Make Final Plans For Childs Dinner

Final preparations for the testimonial to Edwin O. Childs will be the work of the general committee in the next two weeks. The interest throughout the city and the progress reported by the ticket committee seems to indicate already the success of this affair.

It is unique because it is sponsored by no one organization, fraternal, military, or service, but results rather from the desire of a citizens group to pay their respects to one of the most popular and highly respected public officials. Every organization in the city has, however, in some way signified its intention of participation, and the committee wants to make one fact clear; that any man, woman or child in the city can attend this testimonial.

A well balanced program is planned for the evening consisting of a reception, banquet, entertainment and brief speaking; very soon the committee will be able to announce the speakers and guests.

Applications for tickets by mail may be made to Wilfred Chagnon, Hubbard Drug Store, 425 Centre st., Newton. Herman F. Wells is chairman of the General Committee; Miss Phyllis Lindley is Secretary, and Wilfred Chagnon, treasurer.

Man's Hip Broken By Automobile

Edward Pendergast, 53, of 62 Elm st., West Newton, received a fracture of his hip last Saturday morning when he was hit by an automobile driven by Joseph Burke of 18 Whitlowe rd., West Newton. Both men are employees of the Newton Street Department and were on their way to work shortly before 7 o'clock. Pendergast was standing near his home as Burke drove up to give him a ride to the street department yard. Just as the automobile had almost stopped, one of the fenders hit Pendergast. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Chicken Pox Cases Numerous In City

The report of the Newton Health Department for December shows that during that period there were 100 cases of chicken-pox reported in this city. Other communicable diseases included—lobar pneumonia, 6 cases; measles, 2; mumps, 2; whooping cough, 4; scarlet fever, 1. Dogs bit 14 persons in Newton during December.

City Hall Crowded At Inauguration

Floyd Reelected President of Board of Aldermen

Mayor Paul M. Goddard in his inaugural address at City Hall on Monday afternoon, January 1, stressed economy in city activities, sharing by citizens in the responsibilities of problems facing the city, keeping expenses within budget allowances, and efficient supervision by department heads. Mayor Goddard quoted at considerable length from the inaugural address delivered in 1874 by Mayor James F. Hyde, the first mayor of the City of Newton, and he emphasized that there is much similarity between the problems referred to by Mr. Hyde and present day problems which face the city.

About 300 persons crowded into the Aldermanic chamber at City Hall to attend the inaugural exercises and listen to the Mayor's address. The meeting was called to order by City Clerk Grant and Alderman Donald McKay was chosen temporary presiding officer. He appointed Aldermen Jamieson, Rawson and Barwise, and School Committeeman Bristol as the committee to escort the Mayor-Elect and invited guests into the chamber. While awaiting for the committee to return, Alderman McKay called attention to the testimonial dinner which will be tendered Ex-Mayor Childs on January 24. He also delegated School Committee Member Mrs. Margaret H. Woods, in behalf of the Aldermen and School Committee, to present a bouquet of flowers to Mrs. Paul M. Goddard. When the Mayor-Elect was escorted into the hall he was accompanied by Ex-Mayors Childs and Bothfeld; the latter having been Mayor in 1895. He is now President of the New.

Newton High School Receives Award From M. I. T.

The Newton High School received high recognition on Wednesday from Dr. Karl T. Compton, President of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, when the Director of Admissions, Dr. B. A. Thresher, presented to the school a Technology Award, a beautifully bound book, "The Flowering of New England," for the school library.

The award is made annually to the school who has a student at Technology with the highest rating in English for the Freshman year. Emory St. George, who entered M. I. T. from Newton High School, from the Class of 1938, attained this high rating.

Jail Sentence For Drunken Driving

Joseph A. Curry, 44 of 31 Peterboro st., Boston, was sentenced by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court last Friday to serve 3 months in Billerica prison for driving a car while under the influence of liquor, and he was also fined $50 for driving a car after his license had been revoked. Curry was formerly a Wellesley policeman. A charge of drunkenness was filed. Curry appealed. He was arrested on the afternoon of Dec. 28 by Patrolmen Dungan and Walker after the car he was driving had collided at Washington and Jewett sts., with a car driven by Wilfred Gregoire of 19 Jewett st. Gregoire claimed he received a neck injury.

V. P. Maloney Is Mayor's Secretary

Vincent P. Maloney of 35 Gray Cliff rd., Newton Center, has been appointed as his secretary by Mayor Goddard. Maloney is the son of Mrs. Alta V. Maloney and the late Vincent P. Maloney. He graduated from Newton High School in 1932 and from Burdett Business College and has been in the employ of the Calloway Associates of Boston, an advertising firm. He assumed his new duties on January 1.

1940 Committees Newton Aldermen

Few changes have been made in the standing and special committees of the Newton Board of Aldermen for 1940-1941 other than those necessitated by the retirement of Aldermen McCabe, Ashenden, Hutchinson and Tiffin. The new committees are composed as follows: Finance, McKay, chairman; Barwise, Colby, Floyd, Gaddis, Inches and Schipper. Public Works, Jamieson, chairman; Bacon, Everts, Lee, Rawson, Walker and Whidden. Public Buildings, Temperley, chairman; Cronin, Eaton, Faher, Hoffman, Hughes and Lockwood. Franchises and Licenses, Faher, chairman; Cronin, Eaton, Hoffman, Hughes, Lockwood and Temperley. Claims and Rules, Rawson, chairman; Bacon, Everts, Inches, Lee, Walker and Whidden. Education, Everts, chairman; Jamieson and Lee. Kenrick Fund, Schipper, chairman; Cronin and Lee. Legislation, Walker, chairman; Barwise, Eaton, Gaddis, Hoffman, Hughes and Rawson.

The members of the Select Committees are: Mayor's Address, Lockwood, chairman; Eaton, Jamieson, Schipper and Temperley. Street Traffic, Gaddis, chairman; Bacon and Barwise. Joint School Buildings, Bacon, chairman; Lockwood and Whidden. Soldiers' Relief, Colby, chairman; Hoffman, Hughes, Lockwood and Schipper.

At the meeting on Monday the Aldermen voted the following appropriations:

Walter O'Hara Sues Newton Man

Walter O'Hara, former principal owner of the Narragansett race track at Pawtucket, is suing James H. Connors of 127 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill to recover 28,000 shares of stock of that pari-mutuel gambling plant. The suit came before Judge Boudreau in Suffolk Superior Court on Tuesday. O'Hara claims that the stock was given as collateral on a note for $100,000, with the agreement that $25,000 could be repaid each 2 months, with the privilege of repaying the loan within two years. Connors claims that after he made the contract with O'Hara on September 22, 1939, O'Hara assigned his right and interest in the stock to the Leigh Textile Company of Boston, and that O'Hara, therefore, has no right or interest in the stock.

O'Hara's claim is for snow removal and sanding following the storm of Dec. 30; $375 for salary of a dental hygienist; $5500 for improvement of Dickerman Brook; $13,200 for materials and trucking on WPA projects; $400 for settlement of a suit for personal injuries brought by Mildred Wallace.

Alderman Inches was appointed a committee of one to arrange for the annual Aldermen's dinner. He called the attention of the Newton Taxpayers' Association to the fact that the Aldermen pay for this dinner themselves.

Mayor Goddard Stresses Economy; Urges Care In Making Expenditures

Will Make Recommendations After He Has Had Opportunity to Consult With Aldermen, Department Heads, Employees, Citizens

Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen:

The first day of the New Year is a commonly accepted milestone along the road which we are all traveling together. We cling at this season of the year a little more strongly to the hopefulness and promise which always has been and forever will be the legacy of the Christmas season. Our democratic institutions were founded upon a firm faith in God, and may we all, as citizens of Newton, upon whom falls the obligation of preserving and accomplishing the democratic ideals, humbly bow before Almighty God and reaffirm our faith and allegiance to Him and to our fellowmen.

I extend to all the people of Newton my sincere good wishes for the coming year. It will be happy and prosperous for most of us, whereas to others will fall some of the seemingly unbearable disasters which we know are inevitable. Let us face the New Year, thankful for our individual responsibilities, whatever they may be, and with an ever-increasing determination to assume them as an opportunity to achieve that permanent satisfaction—a consciousness of our work well done. I know of no community in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts where unselfish service is more adequately rewarded or more sincerely appreciated than in our own City of Newton. This pertains not only to the field of government, but to all of our countless other activities conducted here for the well-being and betterment of our citizens. But if our strength ever falters, and if we are ever inclined to weaken here where faithful public service is amply rewarded, may we constantly remember the words of perhaps our greatest American, "If I were to try to read, much less answer, all the attacks made on me, this shop might as well be closed for any other business. I do the very best I know how—the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference." If we pursue this course, the end will bring us out all right. It always does.

The members of the Board of Aldermen, the School Committee, and your Mayor have just taken the oath of office. That oath is binding. We have sworn to faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon us as public servants. If I properly understand, this oath is also binding upon our department heads, upon all those connected with our City Government, and upon our individual citizens, for we all owe a duty to our City whether in a public or private capacity. The responsibility for our City rests upon the heads of all. It is the duty of our citizens to see to it that your Mayor does not shirk his responsibilities and the duty of your Mayor not to allow others to shirk theirs.

I shall not make a list of recommendations at this time with reference to the conduct of our City Government for the next two years. I shall act upon the assumption that such recommendations can be more intelligently made after I have had the opportunity to observe at first hand the actual administrative machinery of our City Government and properly appraise its effectiveness. Recommendations will be made and executed after consultation with members of the Board of Aldermen, heads of departments, individual employees, and citizens of the City. Governmental administration should be appraised on results, and the present tendency to do so is an encouraging symptom of a changing attitude toward Government and a healthier condition with respect to it. The first necessity of any government is the proper understanding of its problems, and in this connection I would point out to you that many of our fundamental problems do not change from year to year. I quote from Mayor James F. C. Hyde's address which was delivered to the City Council on January 5th, 1874, just after Newton had entered upon its new life as a City.

"I believe the time has come to adopt a system of the most careful economy in the home, the town, city, county, state and nation."

"We cannot, as a people, go on much longer as we have been going for the last ten years, without disastrous results." (Continued on Page 4)

LEWIS—ANDRESS

Miss Judith Andress chose a candlelight ceremony for her marriage to Rev. Edward William Werner Lewis of Athens, Ohio, at the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, on Thursday afternoon, December 28 at 4 o'clock. The nuptial service, read by Rev. Randolph Seaman Merrill, took place before the altar simply decorated with white lilies and candles. While large tall candles garlanded with evergreen lighted the main aisle of the church, Xmas trees were placed artistically in the chancel.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, Doctor J. Mace Andress, was given in a white tulle gown with a full skirt and a heart neckline trimmed with old duchess lace. Her veil was of net with a coronet of duchess lace. The same lace formed a design on the train of the veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of Easter lilies and stelia.

Miss Ruth Andress, attending her sister as maid of honor, wore French beige tulle and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and narcissus. The bridesmaids were Miss Madeleine Elwell Rowe of West Roxbury, Miss Audrey Bartington of Scituate, Mrs. Donald Prescott Frail of West Newton, and Miss Dorothy May Silley of Newtonville. They were gowned alike in Van Dyke red tulle with bouffant skirts and slight trains cut on period lines in keeping with the bride's gown. Each carried a bouquet of white snapdragon, narcissus and red roses, and wore a hair ornament of narcissus.

The best man was Rev. Harold Bayless, Dayton, Ohio, and the ushers were Philip Morton Andress, Daytona Beach, Florida, brother of the bride, Avaril Wilton Craig, Newton Center, Massachusetts, Henry Payne Rowe, Wynnewood, Pennsylvania, and Donald Prescott Frail, West Newton, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Andress, mother of the bride, wore royal blue velvet, with hat to match, and a corsage of white rum-bum lilies.

Preceding the exchange of vows, a boys' choir under the direction of Joseph R. Ludwison sang a group of carols. Miss Lillian West played the Lohengrin wedding march. Following the ceremony the bride and groom received guests at a small reception at the home of the bride's parents, Doctor and Mrs. J. Mace Andress, 67 Clyde st., Newtonville. The rooms were decorated with evergreens, silver Christmas ornaments and white flowers. Candles and a large white wreath against a silver background formed a beautiful setting for the receiving line.

Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of the Massachusetts School of Art, and is the Assistant Director of the Children's Art Center, Boston.

Mr. Lewis, a graduate of Ohio University, is attending Andover-Newton Theological School and pursuing his Master of Arts degree at Harvard and Ohio universities. He and Mrs. Lewis went to Washington, D. C., on their wedding trip.

BRANNING—RYDER

Miss Helen Phyllis Ryder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ryder of 525 Walnut st., Newtonville, was married to Paul Windsor Branning, son of Mrs. James W. Robison of Philadelphia, and Harry R. Branning of New York, at noon on Saturday, Dec. 30, in Leslie Lindsay Memorial Chapel, Boston. Rev. Dr. Phillips Endeocott Osmond performed the ceremony. A reception followed at the Copley-Plaza Hotel.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of brocade white satin with long pointed sleeves and a yoke of antique point Venise lace. Her fingertip length veil fell from a coronet of lilies of the valley and she carried a prayer book with marker of white satin and lilies of the valley. Miss Marie Chapman of Lexington, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore deep raspberry velvet with a gold headband and carried a muff of velvet to which a single camellia was fastened.

Samuel R. Boyer of Philadelphia, Pa., served as best man. The ushers were Earl Morse and Ralph Berthold of New York, G. Crosland Taylor of Taunton and Roger Wentworth Walker of Rockport.

On their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Branning will re-

Powers' Paragraphs

Much criticism was directed against Charles A. Lindbergh last year when he reported adversely on the efficiency of the military air force of Russia. Lindbergh was accused of belittling the air might of the Soviets because he was allegedly pro-German. The poor showing Russia has made so far in its attempt to invade little Finland indicates that Lindbergh was right, not only as regards the air force of the Soviets, but that the Russian army as a whole is inefficient.

We read and hear appeals for warm clothing for poor people, especially children. And we see young girls and young women who don't seem to be impoverished, walking along the streets in their near zero weather, wearing short, thin skirts, and with their legs naked. Funny, isn't it? But it is no funnier than to observe some bald-headed gazabo walking along a street in freezing weather without any hat on his thinly-thatched dome.

Last week we mentioned that a 25-mile speed limit for automobiles has greatly reduced fatalities and accidents in Worcester, Providence and other cities. During the year just ended, during which a 25-mile limit was put into effect at Atlanta, Ga. (300,000 population), automobile fatalities were reduced over 50 per cent. In 1938 the number was 57; in 1939 it was 27. And some persons don't want a 30-mile speed limit in Newton. Incidentally, the State law still specifies 30 miles as the legal speed limit.

The Newton City Government for 1940-1941 was inaugurated on Jan. 1. It includes a new Mayor, four new Aldermen, and two new members of the School Committee. Paul M. Goddard was a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen for several years, and so possesses much valuable knowledge of this city's municipal problems which should prove of value to him in the decisions he will have to make as chief executive of Newton. Mr. Goddard is young, vigorous, and has impressed us as being straightforward. His inaugural address indicates that he realizes the responsibilities resting upon him, and that he will endeavor to give Newton an economical, efficient administration. His desire to co-operate with the Board of Aldermen and to demand co-operation from department heads, as stated in his inaugural address, will be an important factor in assuring a successful administration. Mr. Goddard is comparatively young and may make mistakes. But he is willing to take suggestions, and even advice and this will lessen the number of mistakes he may make.

The four new Aldermen, Lee, Eaton, Cronin and Whidden, all appear to be men who will measure up to the high calibre which has characterized nearly all members of past city governments of Newton. The two new members of the School Committee, Frazier of Ward 1, and Cabot of Ward 2, are both well known and highly with duchess lace and carried a bouquet of jonquil roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Stephen H. Hartley of Greenville, Rhode Island, as matron of honor. Miss Marion Hatch, another sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Cynthia Thompson was the flower girl.

Stephen Hartley, brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man. The ushers were Charles A. Thompson, Jr., H. Allison Thompson and L. Bradford Thompson, brothers of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch are to make their home in Harrisburg, Penn. The bride is a graduate of Colby Junior College and the Chamberlayne School in Boston. The groom attended the University of New Hampshire.

JAILLLOT—DOHERTY

Ex-Alderman and Mrs. William J. Doherty of Newtonville announce the marriage of their daughter Helen J. Doherty to Mr. C. F. Jaijlot of Gardner, Massachusetts. The ceremony was performed in St. Mary's Chapel, Boston College, on December 30 with a nuptial mass celebrated by Rev. James Kilroy, S. J.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Hodgdon of Newton. The best man was Mr. Frederick Boudrea of Boston.

Miss Doherty is a graduate of the Newton High School. Mr. Jaijlot is a graduate of the Gardner High School and of Suffolk Law School. He is a Deputy Collector in the Boston office of the United States Internal Revenue Department.

A reception was held at the Hotel Sheraton, Boston, after which the couple left for Washington. Upon their return they will make their home in Newton Center.

MUHLINGHAUS—BURR

Miss Esther Burr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McKissock Burr, of 11 Birch Hill rd., Newtonville, was married to Karl Horst Muhlinghaus of Bristol, N. H., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Muhlinghaus of Brunn, Germany, at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 30, at the home of her parents. Rev. Raymond Lang, D.D., of St. John's Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception.

The bride wore a princess style gown of ivory satin with a long train and a fingertip length veil which fell from a braided coronet of matching satin. She was attended by Mrs. Donald Holden Green of Ashland as matron of honor. William Franz Winzark, nephew of the bride, of Merion, Pa., was the ring bearer and his father respected citizens and the city is fortunate in obtaining their service.

Edwin O. Childs retired after serving as Mayor of Newton for 20 years; a record that probably will not again be equalled. Such a record certainly proves the outstanding popularity of Mr. Childs. The fact that he left the office after a score of years without having profited financially is a tribute to his honesty. He also exemplified to a marked degree the spirit of democracy. He was not obsequious to the wealthy and supercilious to the poor. He treated all with equal courtesy. We wish him prosperity and happiness for many years to come.

Maynard Hutchinson retired after seven years' service as an Alderman. In addition to his duties as a member of the City Government, he has given freely of his time and means in Community Chest and other local philanthropies. Many have believed that Mr. Hutchinson had the ambition to emulate his father, and serve as Mayor of Newton. If he still has this ambition, he is young enough to yet achieve it. Major Frank McCabe ended 5 years' service as a member of the Board of Aldermen with the reputation of having been a conscientious public servant, and possessing plenty of courage to attack what he considered abuses in the conduct of city affairs. Although Major McCabe made enemies by his combativeness, he deserves credit for exposing and ending conditions that should not have been tolerated. Alderman Kenneth Tiffin, during the three years he was a member of the Board, displayed courage a number of times by voting in the minority in efforts to effect economy. Ex-Alderman Ashenden gave proper attention to his duties, but concluded that two years service was sufficient for him.

Franklin E. Smith retired from the School Committee after six years of able and conscientious service, during which he stood for proper economy in the conduct of our public schools. Harry Bryant, during his six years of service, frequently differed with his colleagues on the School Committee, but in the belief of a large percentage of Newton citizens, he was right in his contentions, even though he was in the minority.

The speech delivered by President Roosevelt to Congress on Wednesday was a good speech. We are glad to hear Mr. Roosevelt again reiterate his desire to keep this country at peace, and to assure those who oppose the sending of young men of this country overseas to fight in Europe's battles, that he has no wish to so sacrifice the youth of the U. S. A. We agree with the President in his advocacy of ample defense to protect us against any possible aggression by foreign nations which may strive to expand and dominate by brute force. We hope that the President will succeed better during the coming year than he has in the past in his efforts to improve economic conditions in the U. S. A., and we also hope he will have the co-operation in these efforts of the great majority of financiers and industrialists of this country, regardless of their political affiliations.

er, Joseph Franz Winzark, was the best man.

Girl Scouts

City-Wide Training Course for Program Consultants

On Thursday, January 11th at 9:45 a. m. in the Unitarian Church on Washington st., West Newton, there will be a meeting of Program Consultants of all the Newton Girl Scout troops.

Program Consultants are those friends or parents who have hobbies or interests. As advisers and leaders, they furnish ideas of ways in which leaders may get activities started. As instructors in the troops, they temporarily become part of the troop and work with a group of girls over a period of time.

At the Round Table, after explaining the scope of the program, ten groups will be set up led by the Head Program Consultants and some experienced leaders. Here there will be discussed resources, possible interesting activities, plans which have worked successfully in some groups and the standards which the Girl Scout organization hopes to maintain without making the program rigid and uninteresting.

Leaders are asked to report all people working with them on their groups and whether they prefer to work only with that group or city-wide groups.

Another Play Day at Camp Mary Day. On Saturday, January 6th, Camp Mary Day will again be open to Girl Scouts and their leaders. If the cold weather continues, an area will be blocked off and tested for ice skating. Girl Scouts are invited to bring their skates and cut a few fancy figures.

Man Breaks Leg In Fall on Icy Sidewalk

Another victim of the icy sidewalks of Newton is Edward Johnson, 32, of 122 St. Botolph st., Boston. While trying to earn a little money by walking from house to house selling brooms, Johnson fell on an icy sidewalk at Centre and Stearns sts., Newton Centre on Wednesday morning and fractured his right leg. He was taken to Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. The Newton Aldermen, a few years ago, rescinded the ordinance compelling the shoveling of snow off sidewalks.

The Pomroy Home Corporation has purchased the building occupied by the home on Hovey st. for $14,000.

Severe colds and cases of pneumonia are numerous. The mild weather of the early part of the month is responsible for a good deal of sickness.

Miss Spear's School closed Wednesday morning with the usual Christmas tree and exercises. In the afternoon the tree again bore fruit for the benefit of a number of poor children.

A new telephone line has been put in for the use of the police and the present city line will now be used only by the fire and water departments. The police line connects the four stations at the houses of the marshal and sergeant. This arrangement assures secrecy for all police business.

Joshua Jenison, one of Newton's old residents, died on Saturday, aged 79 years. He was a native of Newtonville and had lived here all his life. He started the soap business which his son now carries on. A man of strict integrity and of a kind and benevolent disposition, he was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was one of those who truly valued a good name more than riches.

The polar wave which approached us on Friday last brought the thermometer to 16 degrees below zero on Saturday morning; and the day was the coldest for years. Sunday brought a heavy snowstorm, turning to rain and sleet before night, giving the sidewalks and all exposed objects a coating of ice.

There was an exciting runaway last Sunday afternoon. After Sunday school at the North Church in No-nantum, several of the teachers from Newton were about to start back in a carriage. The ladies were on the back seat and two gentlemen were about to take the front seat, when the horse broke away and started on a full run, the gentlemen pursuing in great alarm. The horse ran down Chapel and Watertown sts. to Galen st., Watertown, and then up the hill and into H. D. Bassett's yard at the corner of Williams st., in all about a mile and a half. There, one of the ladies, who had managed to climb over the seat, caught up the reins and managed to bring the horse under control. That the carriage was not upset in one of the many turns was a marvel.

The School Board met on Monday evening with Mayor Burr in the chair. Miss Jennie Baker was appointed teacher of the Rice School at a salary of $600 per annum, and Miss Kate Glynn was appointed an assistant at the Williams School at a salary of $600 per annum. Mr. Hornbrook submitted the report of the high school committee relative to the petition of George R. Coffin concerning the non-appointment of his son as an officer in the high school military battalion. The report states that no fixed rule governs the appointment of officers, and the headmaster and drill instructor acted within their authority. Mr. Coffin's son failed of appointment not because of insubordination, but because others were better qualified to discharge the duties of officers.

The committee voted to increase the salary of Miss Walsh, janitor at the Williams School, from $38 to $45 per month. The maximum salaries of first assistant teachers was fixed at $700 per annum, and of all other assistant teachers at $620 per annum.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Alderman Chadwick read a communication from John W. Tupper stating that his little boy and a little girl of another family had both been bitten by a mad vicious dog last week, and the dog was supposed to have bitten 6 or 8 dogs in Newtonville. Mr. Chadwick presented an order for the muzzling of all dogs in Ward 2 for 30 days. He said the city is overrun with

College News

By GEORGE W. HUTCHINGS, N.H.S. '39

Once again the boys and girls are back in school; vacations are over—only pleasant memories remain. Looming up are those fatal mid-year examinations, the Waterloo of so many ambitious students.

The H-Y Club held its annual reunion last week with an attendance of approximately seventy. Between the dessert course of dinner and the scheduled entertainment there were numerous after-dinner speeches of both the humorous and serious types and last year's officers were called on to offer a few words of interest to the members and alumni present.

They are Bob Liming, Dartmouth; Tom Hutchings, Bowdoin. Other alumni to speak were Jack Potter, Hamilton; Gil Gould, M. I. T.; Don Abbott, Worcester Academy; Kendall Fisher and Steward MacNeill, Brown; John Metz, Suffolk University; Stew Pattison, Tilton; and Alex Skene, Boston College. More of last year's members away at school are Bill Pescosoldo, Deerfield Academy; Art Hughes, Syracuse; Jack Carder, Northeastern; Bob Hooper, Bryant and Stratton; Fran Callahan, Maine Central Institute; and Jack Sundborg, Nichols. It is interesting to note that four of the last five H-Y Presidents are now in Dartmouth. They are Bob Liming, Jack Selby, Bill Daniels and Gil Myers. Paul Robey, leader two years ago, is back at Staunton Military Academy, with hopes of West Point for the future.

Watch the track exploits of three more illustrious alumni, namely Warren Wittens, Frank Hines, and Basil Babcock of Pennsylvania, Holy Cross and Bowdoin respectively. These boys are really good.

The trend of education is leaning toward the junior college—at least girls seem to favor them more than ever before. Newton notables at Colby Junior include Bette Dempsey, Ada Merriam, and Virginia Tonsley who is the president of the Senior Class there. Barble Williams, Sally Gifford, Alvy Sulton and Betty ailes are among those enrolled at Westbrook Junior, while Lillian Ralshack, Betty Monro and Betty Hutchinson pledge their loyalty to Dana Hall. Lasell Junior, Newton's claim to fame, is naturally popular with the local girls. Jane Hutchison has elected it in spite of her sister's choice of Dana. Pat Taylor, Connie Fulton, Mary Cameron, and Ruth McLaughlin are others attending the Andoverdale school. Jane Anstie was home from Penn. Hall for the holidays along with Winifred Greenleaf who is continuing her study for the stage in busy New York.

Graduation exercises were held last week at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel for the girls of Academie Moderne, Boston's popular modeling school. Sue Blackey of Windermere rd., Auburn, and Peggy Cryon of Whitney rd., Newtonville, were among those graduated from the school. Peg's sister, Janet, is instructing there and undoubtedly influenced her younger sister's decision to take up modeling after a year at Penn Hall. The class of 1938 at Newton High chose Peggy as the "Best Looking Girl" and rightly so.

From the South: we find several Newtonians now attending the University of Virginia. The Fisher twins, Norman and Harold, also Robert and David Greer. The latter transferred after a year at Bowdoin. Maybe it was the Maine winters.

The Nu Sigma fraternity is still in existence at the High School but its originators have gone on to the college. Fred Fisher and Douglass MacDonald are rooming together at Bowdoin; Blinnie Tower, at Dartmouth, and Johnny Fennell is at Amherst. Albert Everts, Newton's tennis champion, is preparing a year at Andover with eyes to Harvard where Don MacKinnon, Dan Needham, Bill Baker, and Don Forte are entered as freshmen.

When speaking of tennis we think of Don Manchester and Ernie Johnson who together with Al Everts formed one of the greatest tennis teams Newton has ever sent onto the courts. Don is at North Carolina State where some of the best college players in the country are turned out, and Ernie is spending a year at Kimball Union with eyes to Dartmouth. Genial Jack Holter is far north at the University of Maine. Not too distant from there at Hebron Academy are several others: Ben Mason, former Newton hockey captain, is back for a second year, while Bill McClellan and Jack Dempsey are newcomers to the Maine preparatory school.

These are just a few of the boys and girls seen during the vacation but we found it interesting to talk with them about school and other common subjects. Even one year away from home is sometimes enough to dim the contacts with the home towners and we hope this casual but far from complete check-up will bring back a few familiar names.

ONE THING and ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

Calendar Complex

This is far from a complaint. Since I've too much self-restraint. Rather, something which 'tis best Should come off this manly chest.

Just as I was doing fine, Scribbling, "Nineteen, thirty-nine," Comes the glad New Year, and so I must write, "One-nine-four-0."

"Early Bird" Spirit

The success of buying and mailing early was so emphatic last month that the idea seems certain to extend beyond the matter of exchanging gifts and is likely as not to spread throughout the year. If you happened to notice there were more motorists who did not wait for the last day of 1939 to obtain their 1940 registration plates, isn't this further evidence that procrastination as the "thief of time" is apt to be found on his uppers if he doesn't watch out?

The activity of National political candidates was noticeable weeks ago and I've no doubt that by this time a good many pledges have been signed which may or may not mean something. The National election seems a long way off but here again we observe that campaign managers are alert to the value of "lining the boys up" at an early date and having their candidates meet the voters.

If the spirit extends to our personal affairs we will be buying summer apparel in the early spring and Fall goods while the weather is red hot. We may even take our vacations before the snow is off the ground. Although the proposal has its good points there is, of course, the danger of over-doing it. I sincerely trust that reason will be exercised, even if it is scarce these days in many quarters. Otherwise those nifty calendars we have received will be of little use which would be too bad for the donors who went to such pains to prepare them for us.

Taking-off Weight

Few households have escaped the diet craze. There is a Newton home, where happily I am a welcome visitor, and where all the members of the family—except one, are, as far as house covering is considered, well upholstered. The exception is the father.

dogs, and it is getting to be unsafe to walk the streets. Alderman Tolman said the city is also overrun with burglars and if he can't keep a dog he will move out of the city. Alderman Johnson said the city should give some protection to ladies and children who now have to go out of their way to avoid vicious dogs. The streets and sidewalks are made for people and not dogs. Alderman Chadwick's order was passed.

It Happened in Newton

Two men, whose regular employment includes the setting-out for city trucks of rubbish barrels, as well as gardening, window-cleaning, etc., for a number of our citizens, were engaged in removing boxes, papers, strings and other litter from Christmas celebrations. Their conversation, as reported in part to me by a sympathetic listener, referred to the large quantity of discarded gift-wrappings to be disposed of. Said one, "I never saw so much of this stuff as there was this year." The other gave a nod of agreement, observing, "Yes, and next Christmas, Santa Claus and his reindeer will be along with a helva lot more."

Acres of Diamonds

The famous lecture by the late Dr. Russell Conwell depicts a story of a man who wandered world wide in search of fortune without success.

After returning home crestfallen he discovered a diamond mine in his back yard.

There are many Newton people who feel it necessary to go outside of Newton for their laundry service, not knowing that Newton can honestly boast of a laundry second to none in modern equipment and workmanship and a 100% Newton enterprise.

"Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," named on all lists of 1939's ten best pictures, opened a 9-day engagement at the Wellesley Hills Community Playhouse on Thursday of this week. Here is a timely, warmly-human comedy drama, the story of a young man, the role played by James Stewart, who is suddenly catapulted into the U. S. Senate. Jean Arthur is his political-wise secretary.

"Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" adds another to the long list of Frank Capra successes which includes such notable films as "You Can't Take It with You," "Lost Horizon," "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" and "It Happened One Night."

Christmas Health Seal Sales Report

From 1925 to 1933, Newton in common with other places showed a comparatively low return from Seal Sales. After 1933, the lines on the graph paper climbed slowly but surely. To reach the peak of the 1938-39 sale ($648.02), it is shown from the figures below that many more residents must be heard from. The experience of the committee in charge of the Sale is that about five hundred dollars is received after the first of the year, but with the hope of equaling and perhaps passing last year's receipts and eventually climbing to the larger amounts once recorded in Newton, it is evident that more co-operation is needed.

"Prevention" is known to be a simpler process than "Cure." The constant fight against tuberculosis is an outstanding example of this. The amount of preventive work done is influenced greatly by the interest and generosity of the public in the purchase of seals. The money received so far will accomplish an enormous amount of good, but the Health Committee of the Family Service Bureau have an urgent use for all that is available in the tuberculosis campaign.

The treasurer, Mr. Frank L. Richardson, reports as follows the deposits on Dec. 30th:

Christmas Seal Sales

For the past five years he has been closely associated with the Generalissimo and Madame Chiang Kai-Shek at their request as Executive Adviser to the New Life Movement, described as the inner spirit of modern China. "Actually it is one of the greatest movements of our day for the economic and social well-being of a mighty nation," declares Mr. Shepherd.

Newton Community Club

For some years it has been the custom of the Newton Community Club to entertain the Mothers' Club of the Stearns School Centre, now known as the Rebecca Penroy House, at one of the Club meetings. This year the tables are turned, and on Thursday, January 11th, at 2 p. m., at the Underwood School Hall, two plays, "Red Queen, White Queen" and "The Three Wishes," will be given by the Mothers' Club. These women, out of their busy lives, take the time to learn their parts, make costumes and even some of the scenery. There will also be an Exhibition of some of the work done in the Hobby Class, and of other work in crafts done by various branches of the Centre.

Today, Friday, January 5th, Mrs. Elliott Church is resuming her Bible Study Class, her subject being "The United Kingdom, Saul, David, Solomon" for that date; and on Friday, January 8th, the subject will be "The Divided Kingdom, Israel, Judah." This group now meets at the Grace Church.

Dr. Robert C. Rankin, of the Department of History of Simmons College, is to give the first of his series of six lectures on "America Faces a World Chaos," in the Eliot Church Chapel at 2:30 p. m., January 8. The second lecture will be on January 15th, and the later dates will be announced.

On January 15th, the Annual Philanthropic Bridge Parties of the Community Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry I. Harriman. Rawson is General chairman for this always delightful affair.

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

Mrs. Marion Rudkin opened the New Year Tuesday, January 2, at the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands, speaking in an entertaining manner on "Books One Should Know." She did not stress books on the "best seller" list but told of many others well worth reading. Salvation Army Drive Near Quota

Salvation Army official collectors continue their collection work in Newton, as the sponsoring committee's treasurer reports that $4414 has been collected toward the $5000 quota. There is hope that the goal will be reached by next Tuesday.

Rep. Douglas B. Francis urges Newton men and women who have not responded to his appeal letter to make their donations now and that in event they are not collected by the fully-uniformed Salvation Army collectors, Mr. Francis suggests that they hand or send their donation to William M. Cahill, treasurer of the Newton Trust Company, at Newton Centre.

"The Salvation Army has an extra large program set up for its winter relief work in the many towns of Massachusetts and for that reason hopes that all former donors and many new givers will set aside something for this work—right now," said Mr. Francis.

Newton Red Cross Aiding Europe

The Newton Chapter has now fulfilled and shipped its first quota of sweaters, dresses, mittens and caps for the relief of those suffering in Europe. Seven groups from different churches and other organizations, together with a number of individuals have made this possible. There were sent 149 sweaters, 129 dresses, 5 dozen mittens and 2 dozen caps, all hand-knitted or handmade in the case of the dresses. The Chapter is indeed grateful to those who have so willingly come forward to make this possible in the relatively short time since the first of November. While no definite quota has been assigned for the coming months, a request has come from National Headquarters that all chapters, where possible, duplicate their prior assignments. Mrs. Carl H. Hanson of Newtonville has been in charge of the production work, ably assisted by individuals and organizations. The daily news reports from Europe cannot fail to impress on all of us the importance of the work the Red Cross is doing in Finland, Poland and other distressed areas. Among others contributing to the Finnish relief fund was a family consisting of a husband, his wife and daughter, who, through making personal donations, sent in a check for $60, as they put it "on behalf of a marvelously worthy and courageous people."

The report received from Washington shows that the response throughout the country has been most generous and co-operative, and just as an example the following figures are given: over 52,000 men's, women's and children's sweaters have been made by the chapters and either have been shipped or are ready for shipment; nearly 80,000 dresses for women and children have been made or purchased, not to mention the many other supplies and surgical dressings which have been sent forward and are continuously going to Europe in comparable volume. This work that has been done and is being done only emphasizes the importance of the continued interest in the Red Cross, and those who have not already sent in their enrollments are urged to do so.

Volunteer workers for the production division may get in touch with Mrs. Hanson at Newton North 6759 or through Headquarters at Newton North 2717.

Parent Education Course Lecture

The next lecture in the Parent Education Course at Newton High School will be given on Monday night, Jan. 8. The topic will be—"The Social and Emotional Adjustment of Adolescents," and the speaker will be Dr. Caroline Zachry, Director of Research, Progressive Education Association. Haydn S. Pearson, principal of the Bigelow Junior High School, will preside.

Distinctive Waban Home Sold

Alvord Bros. report the sale of a distinguished residence at 88 Devonshire rd., Waban. The architecture of this dwelling is influenced by the Spanish mission type, being of brick painted white with a red tile roof. Like many of the homes the construction of which Mr. Bryant M. Pitts is responsible, the interior is very interesting, being entirely of textured walls. There are ten rooms, with three baths, and first floor lavatory; the basement affords unusual recreation facilities as there are three separate rooms; there is an attached two-car garage with overhead doors. The assessment placed on the property by the City of Newton for tax purposes is $15,300. The land is well shaded with dignified trees, and contains 11,210 square feet, commanding a lovely outlook over the adjacent Charles River. The Newton Savings Bank gave title to Mr. and Mrs. Spencer A. Miller, of Waban, who plan to occupy their new residence after extensive renovation.

In connection with this sale, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer A. Miller gave title to their present residence at 30 Avalon rd., in Waban. This is an attractive frame Colonial house of seven rooms heated by oil. The assessment is $7500. The Newton Savings Bank has purchased for investment.

Goddard Appoints Wilson Recreation Commissioner

F. Ewing Wilson of Elliston rd., Newton Centre, was appointed Recreation Commissioner by Mayor Goddard on Monday shortly after the new Mayor had been inaugurated. The Board of Aldermen, on motion of Alderman McKay, voted to suspend the rules, so that Wilson's appointment could be confirmed without being laid on the table until the following meeting, as is the usual procedure. The Mayor also appointed Mr. Wilson a member of the Recreation Commission. The appointment is only for two months, as the term of Mr. Wilson as a member of the Recreation Commission will expire in March. Assuming that the Mayor then reappoints Mr. Wilson, and the appointment is confirmed by the Board of Aldermen, he would serve for a term of three years.

Mr. Wilson has been associated with the Newton School Department for the past 12 years. In 1927 he was made Director of Health, Physical Education and Athletics in the Newton public schools, and served as contact man between the school and playground departments. In 1936 he was made Supervisor of Physical Education at Newton High School. Last September he was transferred to the position of Supervisor of Physical Education at the F. A. Day School. Mr. Wilson received a B.S. in Education from Millikin University, Decatur, Ill., and took graduate work in physical education and recreational activities at the University of Illinois. He was active in football, baseball and track sports during his college career. He was for five years director of physical education at Hammond, Indiana.

—Address

sults. There is a positive and unmistakable demand from the people for retrenchment.

"With business at a low ebb, and uncertainty hanging over the future, should we not be very careful in the expenditures we make.

"We know that some large cities in the country have pursued such an extravagant and reckless course that they find it very difficult to borrow money at any fair rate of interest. On all sides we hear of rapidly increasing city and town debts. The time for the payment of both principal and interest of such debts will come sooner or later, and must, in some cases, prove a very heavy burden.

"I do not ask or expect you to stop all progress, and improvements, and maintain a 'masterly inactivity,' but to exercise wise discrimination, and only attempt those improvements which are necessary, and for the best interests of all concerned.

"We should raise money enough by taxation to cover all ordinary expenses, and then, if possible, keep within the appropriations that are made." My own version would be—We should raise money enough by taxation to cover all ordinary expenses, and then keep within the appropriations.

"The times have changed that money is not so easily obtained as it has been during the past few years, and the people are less willing to pay large taxes.

"Do I ask too much, when I ask you to conduct the affairs of the city in the same careful and economical manner that you do your own; to see that not one dollar is expended which is not necessary, and for which the city does not receive a full equivalent?

"In time past, money has been wasted through a want of system; but this evil, I hope, will be remedied in the future. Newton has, in many respects, been a model town; let us endeavor to make it in all respects a model city."

The closing paragraph of Mayor Hyde's address included the following: "May we give to every question that comes before us every careful consideration as its merits may demand; may all our decisions be free from prejudice and local feeling, made with the sole aim to promote the best interests of the public, and thereby satisfy our own consciences and fulfill the obligations of the solemn oath we have this day taken upon ourselves."

In this same address Mayor Hyde touched upon the problems of our Schools, Highways, Fire Department, Police, Water, State Aid and Street Lamps. To those major departments may now be added outside of the purely administrative and executive operations, our Engineering, Buildings, Health, Public Welfare, Library and Playground Departments. A City has always had certain strictly municipal services to render, and purely governmental functions to perform. But recently the public has demanded that our municipal governments assume functions which reach out beyond these and which more nearly touch the individual lives and well-being of our individual citizens. Under this category come Health, Public Welfare, Library and Playground Activities. Some of these additional services have been brought about by the natural desires of our citizens, others by necessity and the requirements of a changing economy. The most troublesome problem of all government here in the United States at the present time is to determine where the normal functions of government should stop and where individual enterprise should begin, in order to produce the greatest good for the greatest number. We may all have divergent ideas upon this subject, but none of us yet knows what the ultimate decision will be.

Your Mayor is the executive and administrative head of the municipal Government, but the practical work of administration is carried on by the several departments. As Mayor, I expect to be held strictly accountable at the bar of public opinion, and I expect department heads to be accountable to me. I shall cooperate with them to the utmost of my ability, and department heads will have full and complete authority in all matters under their jurisdiction. Municipal Government originated and has continued primarily as a governing unit, but at the same time its organic structure and operation have developed until they are much like that of a large business corporation. Your Mayor has sufficient powers as the head of this corporation to produce either a good or a bad result. The ultimate responsibility for proper administration rests entirely with him, and in assuming this office I would not have it otherwise. In spite of this, however, the Mayor is dependent upon the help and cooperation of all City officials for the results which you and our citizens have a right to expect. We are fortunate in having a Board of Aldermen composed of representative citizens of the community, who willingly assume duties and obligations toward the city in excess of those imposed upon them by the City Charter. I willingly acknowledge my dependence upon them for the help and assistance which have already been promised to me. As a result of the importance and magnitude of our educational system we have, as in other cities, intrusted to our School Committee the almost complete control and supervision of our schools. But the Mayor is an ex-officio member of the School Committee, which would seem to make him responsible for the proper administration of this department. Here again I desire to pay my tribute to the character and ability of the citizens who have been induced to serve on this Committee, and look to them for proper advice and counsel for the betterment of our school system.

There are many others who are serving our City in an official capacity on various Boards and Commissions, all of whom contribute to the net result of our governmental activities. Probably no city can boast of a finer group of citizens giving unselfishly of their time and effort to a City Government.

During the month of December I conferred with many of our department heads and officials. In the coming year, by mutual consultation, we shall be able to evolve plans and suggestions for the more economical and efficient operation of the City's affairs, and already plans have been made to effect economies in certain departments.

The City of Newton should be made a model among the cities of this Commonwealth. This is not an idle dream, for our City has not fallen heir to many of the difficulties which are now the lot of so many cities in this State, and the character of our civic-minded citizens is such that we have a right to expect the best that can be produced in municipal Government. We already lead in some respects, but that is not justification for the assumption that it would be either insincere in his expression of opinion or blind to the facts about him. In the last analysis, therefore, every citizen who is not absolutely devoid of political vision must, in greater or less degree, be a partisan of reform; or, to put it in a more palatable form, he must be a friend of progress wherever opportunities for progress appear."

I hope and pray that during this coming administration we may show a sound progress which will be because of the contribution of our entire citizenship to the needs of this community. Government does not exist for the benefit of the individual citizen as such, and the individual has no moral or legal right to expect anything from his Government which is to accrue to his benefit alone and not to the benefit of all. Government owes nothing to the individual except as a member of the body politic, but rather the individual owes something to his Government which can redound to the benefit of all.

The following has always seemed to me an excellent description of what takes place here in America, and particularly in our cities which had so much to do with determining the character of these United States. It is as well, a vivid description of America's very definite contribution to the science of Government. "Into the great melting-pot of American municipal life the baser elements of indifference, ignorance, and greed, together with the finer elements of intelligence, public spirit, and self-sacrifice, must be poured, and out of the mass will come the composite of American citizenship."

The people of Newton have seen fit to place me in a position of leadership in this great city. May I, in all humility, state what I conceive such leadership to be in this democracy of ours. It simply means that one citizen has been elevated for a time and temporarily clothed with the powers and responsibilities that are vested forever in the individual citizens of the community. He is a trustee, and in this case with his instructions already written in the minds and hearts of Newton citizens.

In Government we are immediately confronted with the problem of human relations, and therefore must summon all the resources of our people to cope with this, the greatest demand upon our democratic institutions at the present time. The ingenuity of mankind has never really been focused upon this problem of human relationships. Whatever we may have done in building the great structure of Government here in this country, whatever we may have accomplished in material progress, is at least partially nullified by a seeming lack of spiritual progress. In every institution, and in every citizen, there is a germ of spiritual understanding which should be made to shine on troubled lives. There is something in Newton which makes it Newton, and I call upon all citizens for his or her individual effort and contribution to a great spiritual ideal.

True patriotism, as has been well said, requires "not only that a man shall be ready to make the supreme sacrifice for his country's salvation, but that he shall stand every ready to devote his time and his talents to the less conspicuous, but equally momentous duty of maintaining public order, protecting private property, and preserving the lives of his fellows against the dangers which lurk in foul tenements, in unclean food, and in that whole field of civic administration whose mismanagement leaves a trail of misery through the habitations of the poor."

Let us face this new year with a firm determination that we will make this City a happier place in which to live, happier because of the sacrifice of our citizens for the welfare of others, happier because of a better understanding of human relationships, happier because we have kept the faith, happier because we have, for one fleeting moment in the great stream of time, touched and held aloft the everlasting torch of progress.

MacMillan Speaks At Central Church

At the annual Fathers' and Sons' Night of the Central Church being held tonight, Jan. 5, at the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, Commander Donald B. MacMillan, the well-known Arctic explorer, will be the guest speaker.

Following a bang-up meal with second helpings, ice cream, songs, and all the fixings, Commander MacMillan will present the spectacular motion pictures of his Arctic trips and describe some of his most interesting experiences. A man who has spent many months of many years traveling among the Eskimos and glaciers of the far north can tell any boy—and any man—a lot of things that wouldn't be found in adventure stories.

While in Newton, Commander and Mrs. MacMillan will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Waldron of Newtonville, whose son, Chauncey, Jr., accompanied MacMillan on his two most recent excursions to the icy zones.

Central Club's Fathers' and Sons' Night has developed into one of the biggest annual events on the calendar and this year the program promises to be one of the merriest for both the oldsters and the youngsters.

ton Savings Bank. Others who accompanied Mayor-Elect Goddard in the hall were Senator Arthur W. Hollis and Representatives William B. Baker, Warren K. Brimblecom and Douglass Francis. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Morrison R. Boynton, minister of the First Church, Newton Centre.

The oath of office was administered to the Mayor-Elect by Judge Thomas Weston, and the Mayor then gave the oath to the Aldermen and School Committee members. He then delivered his address, which is printed in full in this issue of the GRAPHIC.

Following the Mayor's address Alderman Rawson paid a glowing tribute to Alderman Charles B. Floyd, and nominated him for re-election as President of the Board. The election was unanimous. Alderman Jamieson then nominated Alderman Clifford H. Walker for Vice-President of the Board, and this election was also unanimous. Among the Aldermen to whom the oath of office was given were four who are new members: Richard H. Lee of Ward 1, Rodney C. Eaton of Ward 2, Robert A. Whidden and Eugene A. Cronin of Ward 3. The two new members on the School Committee are Francis P. Frazier of Ward 1, and C. Raymond Cabot of Ward 2.

The Aldermen then proceeded to the election of a City Treasurer and Collector and again chose Francis Newhall who has held these two offices for years. A few of the Aldermen voted for a fellow whom they named Francis H. Newhall, but these votes were counted for plain Francis and didn't go to H. The Aldermen then re-elected Daniel A. White as Comptroller of Accounts.

Mayor Goddard and his guests were then escorted from the aldermanic chamber, a recess was called, and the Mayor received the several hundred citizens present in his private office. Also in the receiving line were Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, President Floyd of the Board of Aldermen, and Mrs. Floyd.

Hospital patients sometimes fail to realize that an Intern is actually a Doctor, who has passed his Medical School tests and been through from 6 to 8 years of preparation. From 2 to 4 years is the average Internship.

INTERNSHIP

TWO TO FOUR YEARS

During Internship the Doctor visits patients between calls of attending Physician, acts in emergencies, keeps patients comfortable and assists in operations or wherever a second Physician is needed, but does nothing on his own initiative.

This very valuable training under older and more experienced Doctors is highly concentrated practice. Each two years of Internship is about equivalent in experience to five years of private practice.

Newtonville Fire Causes $8000 Loss

A fire in a two-family house at 25 Bowers st., Newtonville, on Saturday evening caused damages estimated at about $8000 and slight injuries to several firemen. The building is owned by the Margaret Wrafton estate and the fire started in a kitchen at the rear of the house from an undetermined cause. George Hallet and his wife and four children, fled from their apartment on the first floor and Box 234 was sounded at 6:33 p. m., followed by an alarm from Box 235. The fire worked up through the second floor apartment, occupied by Mrs. Viola Taylor, and broke through the roof.

While Hoseman Tolan of Engine 2 was on a ladder at the front of the house, a hot-air explosion blew out an attic window, belching flames and smoke into Tolan's face. Other firemen on the ladder caught him as he started to fall. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance to be treated for smoke inhalation and a burn on his forehead.

NEWTON HOCKEY GAME

Last Saturday afternoon Newton High scored its second shut-out of the season by defeating Belmont High 7-0. Belmont went into the game a slight favorite to win over the orange and black because of their victory over Melrose the Wednesday before, whereas Newton had been beaten by Melrose 8-2 in the opening session of the 1939-40 G. B. I. Hockey League.

Leading the attack on Belmont were Capt. "Bud" Hurley and Phil Fessenden. The former gathered three assists and two goals, and the latter riddled home three goals and picked up an assist. "Bunny" Dugan got in a goal and an assist and Gordie Goodband got the odd goal. Newton outplayed the Belmont aggregation all through the contest, and honors go to Ed Bender, Newton goalie, who turned back many a scoring chance by the red and white.

In the first period Newton started out playing Belmont to a standstill, and then Phil Fessenden got the jump for his first goal assisted by "Bud" Hurley. Newton then received another goal by the aforementioned pair, Hurley to Fessenden. As far as excitement went there was none to be spoken of. There were no penalties but there were times when it seemed that there should have been some handed out by the referee.

The second period found Newton in possession of the puck at the mouth of the Belmont goal. In one of these scrimmages Gordie Goodband scored Newton's third goal. Walt Hurley and James Sullivan, Newton and Belmont respectively, received the penalties for high sticks simultaneously. Alex MacLean of Belmont spent a minute in the penalty box for handling the puck. Newton appeared to have the game salted away but the final period showed they were not satisfied with a three goal victory. All four of Newton's forward lines saw considerable action and each did as well as the other.

In the final period Newton made a break and Bunny Dugan scored the fourth goal for the orange and black. Phil Fessenden riddled the fifth goal home after a minute of play. He was assisted by Hurley and Dugan. Sullivan of Belmont received his second penalty of the afternoon for a leg check. Bud Hurley sank his first goal when he picked up the puck at his own blue line and raced all the way down the ice and in upon the Belmont goalie. The time on Newton's sixth goal was 1:59. Phil Fessenden received his first penalty of the year when he accidentally tripped one of the Belmont players. He was given a minute and a half to relax in. Joe Beatty went into the penalty box for a body check in center ice just as Fessenden was coming out. Walt Hurley scored Newton's seventh and his second goal with the assistance of Phil Fessenden for the final tally and second shut-out of the campaign.

Next Saturday Newton High takes on another second place rival, in Cambridge Latin. This game should prove interesting to Newton fans as should the Arlington-Melrose encounter. If Newton was they should remain in second place alone instead of being tied with Melrose and Cambridge Latin as the Monotony Towns should tumble Melrose.

Teachers Lose In Basketball Game

Wednesday afternoon the Newton High varsity basketball team had their annual chance to get revenge on the teachers. They did this well considering the fact that the Faculty had a player who has been playing for the last 12 years on school, college and professional basketball. Capt. Johnny Flagg and Frank Olivieri led the attack on the faculty who went down to defeat 31-25. The teachers had the individual playing stars in Owen MacDowell, Vic Knapman, football coaches, and Mr. Winston, former Harvard University basketball team captain. The varsity had the team play as was evident by the score. The varsity took a beating in punishment but they were jubilant when Frank Olivieri injured a member of the faculty in the final period. The crowd booted at the teachers every time they committed fouls and made cracks about the varsity having to play Medford this Friday and they wanted to beat them in some sport this year. Newton High has some good material and should go places and end the season well up in the Suburban League if not in first place as they were last year. In the second game of the doubleheader the Intermediates tied the 2nd Varsity 21-21. Coletti, Francis Flagg, brother of the varsity captain, and Bob Lowry led the seconds. A couple of sophomores, George Norcross, Bill Healey and Larry Tempesta led the Intermediates in tying their superiors. This afternoon the varsity goes to Medford High to open the Suburban Basketball League for 1940. Tuesday they journey to Cambridge to take on Cambridge High and Latin.

Practical Jokers Start Year Wrong

Two young colored men who started the New Year by feeling humorously inclined appeared in the Newton court on Tuesday morning. Elijah Merritt, 17, of 27 Army st., West Newton, was charged with being responsible for a false alarm of fire and was fined $25. At 7:29 p. m. Now Year's night, Elijah telephoned fire alarm headquarters and gave the false information that there was a fire in a building at Hicks st., West Newton. When Engine 2 was sent to Hicks st. it was found that there was no fire. Firemen traced the telephone call to young Merritt's home, and he admitted telephoning the alarm.

David Evans, 30, of Robin Hood rd., Auburndale, who has appeared in the Newton court a number of times, thought he would have some fun with his friends, the police, so on Tuesday morning about 1:10 he telephoned police headquarters from the Silver Lake Garage that a hold-up had occurred at that place. Policemen hastened to the scene in cruising cars. They found no bank, but they did find David and arrested him for drunkenness. Judge Mayberry sentenced Evans to serve 30 days in Billerica prison.

Dr. Alfred Carreno Found Not Guilty

Dr. Alfred Carreno of 147 Highland ave., Newtonville, was found not guilty of practicing medicine without a license by Judge James J. Middlesex Court Dec. 22, 1939. Last September an indictment was secured against him by State Police after physicians had complained that Carreno had been treating a large clientele, some of whom had been suffering from arthritis. In the Superior Court a statement of facts was presented to Judge James which was agreed to by both defence and the government. This statement asserted that Dr. Carreno is a medical school graduate, was formerly a surgeon in a children's hospital at Buenos Aires, Argentine, and a professor at a university in Columbia, South America. The statement also gave the information that he had not charged for examinations, that he was licensed by the Newton Board of Health to give massage treatments and baths, and that he has the right to use the title "doctor."

Cooking School Sessions Will Offer Unusual Benefits To Women of the Newtons

Miss Margaret Fossett to Direct Second Annual Free School
Sponsored by The Newton Graphic at Newton
Centre Woman's Club, Jan. 22, 23, 24

Announcement of the second annual free Fall Cooking School, sponsored by the Newton Graphic in conjunction with the Boston Consolidated Gas Co., and a number of local merchants will be of major interest among Newton women. The Cooking School will be held on the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, January 22, 23, 24 at the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse in Newton Centre sq. The Cooking School has been timed to follow the holiday season. Many attractive features of the school will be announced shortly.

Foremost among the features offered are the services of Miss Margaret Fossett, director of the Home Economics Department of the Boston Consolidated Gas Co., who will direct the school and demonstrate many of her favorite recipes. One of the most popular and best known cooking school teachers in this section, Miss Fossett has many treats and delightful surprises in store for the women of all parts of Newton.

In the many other communities where cooking schools have been held, her classes have always been filled to capacity by eager and enthusiastic women who carry away with them many helpful hints to make the task of preparing meals a satisfactory job for the cook as well as for the other members of the family. Miss Fossett's experience in the culinary art is one of many years' standing.

The sessions of the Free Cooking School will begin each afternoon at 2 o'clock. Doors will be opened at 1 p. m., and women are advised to come early as capacity audiences are anticipated. Further details and other special features of the school will appear in the Jan. 19th issue of the GRAPHIC. Watch for these important announcements and plan now to attend the free sessions of the cooking school.

Office of Captain In Police Dept. To Be Discontinued

Mayor, Chief Hughes Agree
No Need For Captain-Inspector

Substantiating the statement made in his inaugural address, Mayor Goddard has made one move toward economy by deciding not to fill the vacancy in the rank of captain in the inspectors' division of the police department caused by the retirement of Captain Richard Goode. This move did not come as a surprise, as an announcement to this effect was made some weeks ago. Mayor Goddard also announced that he will recommend to the Board of Aldermen that the ordinance relative to the police department be amended so that the office of captain in the inspectors' division shall be abolished. Before making this decision, the Mayor conferred with Chief of Police Hughes. (Continued on Page 4)

Childs Banquet Committee Meets

The general committee arranging for the testimonial to ex-Mayor Edw. O. Childs held a meeting on Wednesday night at Elks' Hall. According to reports of the sale of tickets, interest in this affair is growing rapidly and those desiring to attend are requested to obtain their tickets now, rather than wait until the deadline. The banquet will be attended by men prominent nationally and in State affairs, and the names of the speakers will be published shortly. There will be an entertainment by professional talent. The committee states that students will be welcomed to attend the testimonial, in view of reports to the contrary.

Newton Youth to Go to Annapolis

Congressman Robert Luce has made the following designations for filling two of the three vacancies at the U. S. Military Academy for admission July 1, 1940. Designations for third vacancy are now under consideration and decision will be announced later. Principal—Edward Francis McCabe, 52 Arlington rd., Waltham. 1st alternate, Gregory Sarmanian, 85 Weston st., Waltham; 2nd alternate, Adolph Maletta, 15 Ellsworth ave., Cambridge. Principal—Ronald D. Cullen, 30 Wedgewood rd., West Newton; 1st alternate, Coleman Noahson, 79 So. Prescott circle, Brighton; 2nd alternate, Richard V. Donnellan, 7 Madeline st., Brighton.

Chase Warns Unemployment Must Diminish

Stuart Chase of Washington, former Newton boy who has become a nationally known economist, was the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Community Forum last Sunday. Mr. Chase discussed the long-drawn-out period of unemployment which has prevailed in this country for 10 years past, and he gave the warning that "something will break loose" unless this problem will be solved before a much longer period elapses. He said—"Men are not biologically constituted to remain idle indefinitely." He said that human needs must be considered as the criterion, instead of investment profits as opportunities for investments have become limited, people are afraid to invest their money, and our savings have become a curse and a menace. He argued that if we turn to human needs as the criterion, we will find that we need in this nation 50,000 more doctors, 100,000 more dentists, and 500,000 more teachers to bring national standards up to those of Massachusetts, and that 1,000,000 men can be employed indefinitely on conservation.

Mr. Chase said that fear and tradition vanish when war comes, that wars are always well financed, and that fear will end when we have the courage to build as well as the courage to destroy. He commented, in referring to the "planned economy" of the New Deal, that President Hoover opened the door to the camel, and President Roosevelt pushed the door wide open.

Health Department Report For 1939

The 1939 report of Irving House, Sanitary Inspector of the Newton Health Department shows that during the past year Mr. House made 1726 routine inspections, 1138 sanitary inspections and investigated 393 complaints. In the Newton court he secured 5 convictions for violations of food laws and 3 convictions for failures to abate sanitary nuisances after warning had been given. Eight hearings were held where persons had failed to abate nuisances. Among the food articles on sale which were condemned by Inspector House were 731 pounds of fish, 690 pounds of candy and quantities of meats, poultry, vegetables, fruit, bakery products and sea food.

No Appointment to Assessor Vacancy

Mayor Goddard has not, as yet, made any appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John R. Prescott of the Board of Assessors, and will not do so within the next few weeks. Mr. Prescott died on December 24. There have been many applicants for the office.

Report of Health Dept. Shows Big Improvement In Milk Sold In Newton

Modern Tests For Bacteria and Check Kept on Farms and Pasteurization Plants Cause Milk
Delivered In Newton To Be Sanitary

At its meeting on January 22nd the Newton Board of Health is expected to adopt a new regulation which will impose more rigid requirements on milk sold in this city insofar as bacteria count is concerned. The regulation is similar to one recently passed by the Boston Health Department and has been submitted to City Solicitor Bartlett for his approval. It will reduce the present passable bacteria count of regular (pasteurized) milk from 40,000 to 20,000; Grade A milk from 10,000 to 5,000; and cream from 40,000 to 10,000. Milk Inspector Robertson of the Newton Health Department states that 90 per cent of the dealers delivering milk in Newton now meet the 20,000 bacteria count on the regular milk; all but one dealer met the proposed requirement on Grade A milk; and 80 per cent met the proposed cream bacteria count. The Newton Health Department stresses "bacteria count" in determining the quality of milk. It does not publish butter-fat or solids counts in its lists of milk dealers and the quality of the milk they deliver in this city. Some health departments of cities, including Waltham, in the lists they publish to show the quality of milk delivered in those cities, still give the butter-fat and solids counts instead of the bacteria count. In former years a number of milk dealers were prosecuted in this city because the milk they delivered was under the standard in butter-fat or solids.

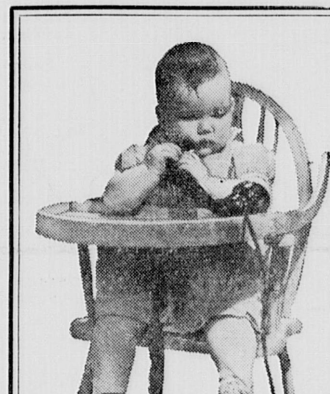

The report of Milk Inspector Alexander Robertson of the Newton Health Department shows that during 1939 he, assisted by Inspector Irving House, made 1352 inspections at 892 farms in New England, which are included in those supplying milk to dealers who sell in this city. They also made periodic inspections of receiving stations and pasteurization plants. At the laboratory of the department Inspector Robertson examined 1534 specimens of unpasteurized milk, and 1410 samples of milk which had been pasteurized. Among the causes which were found to be responsible for too many bacteria in milk at some of the farms were improper cooling methods, and improperly cleaned or sterilized equipment of utensils. Insistency by the Newton Health Department that such conditions be improved, has resulted in appreciable results the past two years.

During 1939 less than 3 per cent of the samples of milk and cream examined in the laboratory indicated improper pasteurization, as compared with 5 per cent in 1938. As results of inspections made by Mr. Robertson and Mr. House at farms, a number of producers were excluded from supplying milk for delivery in Newton. Eighteen so excluded, were reinstated when they had corrected faults found by the Newton inspectors. During 1939 samples of milk and ice cream, sold in Newton schools, were examined once each month during the school year.

Report of Traffic Bureau Shows More Deaths, Accidents

Washington Street Continues to Be Most Dangerous in City

Lieut. Edward Moan of the Traffic Bureau of the Newton Police Department issued the report for 1939 on Tuesday. It shows that the number of persons killed or fatally injured by automobiles in Newton during 1939 was 10, and the number injured 659. In 1938 the number of fatalities was 3, and the number injured 630. The number of accidents during 1939 in which persons were injured (or claimed injuries) was 432. In addition accidents involving property damage, totaled 170. Drivers injured in 1939 accidents (or claiming injuries) totaled 236, and passengers 257. The number of pedestrians reported injured during the year totaled 130, and the number of bicyclists 34. Most of these totals showed a slight increase over 1938. As in previous years, Washington (Continued on Page 10)

Newton Skating Facilities For Residents Outstanding

Supervised Skating Places In Newton Patronized by Thousands

The City of Newton through the initiative of Ernst Hermann, former Superintendent of Playgrounds, has won an outstanding reputation for the excellent facilities it has provided for many years in skating both for young and old at Bullough's Pond, Crystal Lake, Ware Cove, and other places in the Newtons. This city pioneered in furnishing plenty of opportunities for the enjoyment of this popular winter sport and for many winters Bullough's Pond, and later Crystal Lake, have been patronized not only by thousands of Newton residents, but also by hundreds from outside this city. In fact so many outsiders were regularly coming to Newton's public skating places, that the ice was becoming overcrowded, and several years ago a rule was established whereby the nominal charge of 25 cents was made for a season's skating privileges for residents, and $1 for non-residents.

The first supervisor of the skating activities of the Newton Playground Department was the late Leo Hughes, who died last year. The present supervisor is John F. (Buck) Donahue of West Newton, well known former athlete and athletic director. Gilbert

J. Champagne of Nonantum is the director in charge at Crystal Lake where there is a daily average attendance of about 1500, and on exceptional days, such as last Sunday, over 4000 skaters thronged the ice at the lake.

Bullough's Pond was the first supervised skating area to be established by the Playground Department in Newton and has remained the most popular. The director in charge there is Nicholas Tedesco. Frequently, the number of skaters at Bullough's exceeds 3000 per day and the hockey rinks at the pond are constantly occupied. The accessibility of the pond to the more thickly populated sections of the city cause it to be patronized by large numbers of boys and girls who must walk there.

At both Bullough's Pond and Crystal Lake are heated buildings for the skaters, and checking facilities. At both places are fenced-in areas for hockey games, and at Crystal Lake is a large, reserved area for figure skaters. Flood lights provide illumination for night skating. Among the rules in force at the skating areas are—that skaters are not to gather at any place on the pond where an accident occurs; boys or youths are not to carry hockey sticks in the general skating areas; no speed skating is permitted; and directors are to be obeyed in maintaining order and safety at the various skating places. Because of the size of the skating areas, the directors have to be constantly on the alert to prevent boys from disobeying the rule regarding scrub hockey games in general skating areas. SHERIDAN—CALDWELL

Miss Natalie Elva Caldwell, daughter of Mrs. Maude Taylor Caldwell of 249 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, was married to Philip Elmer Sheridan of Cambridge at eight o'clock on Saturday evening, December 30, in the First Church in Newton, Congregational, at Newton Centre. Rev. M. Russell Boynton, D.D., performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother.

The church was decorated with evergreens, white chrysanthemums and white candles. At the reception evergreens and mixed flowers formed the decorations.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William Davis Taylor of Chestnut Hill. She wore a gown of white satin with a long train, a long lace veil which fell in cascades from a tiara of pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Robert Gould, the matron of honor, wore aqua velvet and carried mixed flowers tied with variegated ribbon. Miss Ruth E. Johnson, cousin of the bride, who was the maid of honor, wore American Beauty velvet with a pearl necklace and carried mixed flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Webster, Miss Elizabeth Webster, both of Newton Centre, Miss Elizabeth Leland of Auburndale, Miss Virginia Carman of Somerville and Miss Rosabel Shaw of Worcester. They wore gowns of velvet in jewel tones and carried bouquets of mixed flowers tied with variegated ribbon. Master Kenneth Gould of Jamaica Plain was the ring bearer.

Toby Records of Delaware was the best man. The ushers were Dr. Harry T. Johnson of Waltham, cousin of the bride, Steve E. Stephan of Worcester, Robert Boyer of New York, George Thierault of Cambridge, Robert McAllister of Boston and Robert Gould of Jamaica Plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan will reside in Cambridge. The bride is a graduate of Lasell Jr. College and also studied at M. I. T. and Boston University. The groom attended Mass. Institute of Technology.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

John W. Paul ("Polly") of 1628 North Fuller ave., Hollywood, Calif., a former Newton Centre boy, who has always retained his love for his native city, writes the following:

"Editor, GRAPHIC:

"Would like to hear from some of the 'boys' who entered Newton High School in September, 1877, or were later in that class. Possibly we are men now."

Mr. Paul comments that there were over 50 in that class, and he can't find any of them now with the exception of one West Newton resident.

The report of the Newton Police Traffic Bureau for the year 1939 gives the number of fatalities in this city caused by automobiles during the year as 10. Although one death included in this number was that of an aged man who fell while alighting from an automobile, and this could hardly be called a traffic accident, an elderly woman, who was hit by an automobile in Auburndale last August, died within the past week, so the total of 10 can still be properly used. Some of those fatally injured last year were not residents of Newton, and some of the drivers of the cars involved also were not residents of Newton. We mention this to show that "safety drives" in Newton or elsewhere can have no direct bearing on automobile accidents when so many involved are non-residents. The only practical methods to assure diminution of traffic accidents are—a safe speed limit (not over 30 miles), and strict enforcement of traffic laws.

Washington st. again has the worst record for traffic accidents. During the years that the writer agonized for a restoration of the motorcycle squad in the Newton police department, I asserted that Washington st. was this city's most dangerous highway, and that it should be patrolled by a motorcycle policeman much of the time, both during daylight hours and until midnight. It has not been patrolled to anything approaching the extent I hoped it would be, since the motorcycle squad was restored. We also stated in past years that it is the duty of the State police to patrol the Worcester turnpike, in Newton, as this roadway is under the control of the State and is mostly used by automobiles passing through this city.

One handicap against the reduction of automobile accidents in Newton is the growing tendency in recent years by jurors serving at sessions of the Middlesex Superior Court in Cambridge to reverse decisions made in the Newton district court by finding "not guilty" motorists found guilty in our local court of drunken driving and operating to endanger. Middlesex County jurors in past years earned a creditable reputation for upholding the law, but many of them seem to be tending toward that sympathy for offenders which has characterized Suffolk County juries in all too many cases.

Last month the Newton Board of Aldermen granted leave to withdraw to a petition for a religious order which had sought a permit to use a building on Waban Hill rd., Chestnut Hill, as a dormitory for religious sisters attending colleges in Boston and vicinity. This petition shared the same fate as has about every petition which has been presented to Boards of Aldermen in past years in Newton when concessions in the zoning law were sought. And during these same years, since the zoning ordinance was passed in 1922, and increasingly so in more recent years, both the zoning ordinance and the building laws of this city have been violated and ignored by scores of persons who have been permitted to "get away" with such violations. Single residences have been converted into residences for two and more families, not only in private residence zones, but in single family zones. Two-family houses have been altered so that they are occupied by as many as up to six families, not only in violation of the zoning, but also utterly in violation of the building code. And these violations are no deep secrets. All properties so changed were no altered by former owners. Many of these residences have been illegally converted into residences for two and more families by persons who purchased them in late years; long after the zoning ordinance went into effect. It is undeniable that people in Newton who try to obey the zoning ordinance and building code are penalized, when one considers the number who have succeeded in ignoring both.

Not only is our zoning ordinance being disregarded by many, as regards the use of residences by two and more families, but also as regards the conduct of business in residence zones. While it is true that the Building Department has compelled many to cease conducting business in a residence zone, a perusal of the Business Directory section of the Newton City Directory for 1940, or the business section of the latest Telephone Directory will show that many are conducting some business enterprise in residence zones in Newton. It is true that a large percentage so doing, don't display signs, or that their business activity is so inconspicuously evident as to arouse protests from neighbors. We were asked to comment on this matter, however, by someone who had opportunity to observe that those who try to conform with the zoning ordinance and buildings laws are in so doing insofar as succeeding in their attempts.

During the past few years we have observed from newspaper publicity and accompanying illustrations, the growing popularity of living pictures depicting "Famous Madonnas." We assume that the ladies who indulge in this type of entertainment (or display) are in large part actuated by devout motives, and it would be poor taste to criticize them. But, from the photographs of some of the "madonnas" we have seen in newspapers, to us they appear rather advanced in years for the depiction. If the men were as religiously inclined as the women, we might see more tableaux depicting the "twelve apostles."

Japan warns France not to permit the shipment of war materials for China through the French colonial possessions in Asia. The U. S. A. continues to be the principal provider of Japan for the war materials used in the conquest of China. And the people of this country are to be taxed additional billions of dollars to pay for warships and arms to protect us from Japanese aggression in the future. Interesting, isn't it?

If the Christmas tree continues to remain in the street at Newton Corner, it may take root.

A prominent member of the Massachusetts Legislature announced recently that a bill will be introduced at the next session of that august body providing for the sale of alcoholic liquors (other than malt beverages and wines) by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, instead of by private dealers as at present. This is not, of course, a threat, so that the liquor merchants can be shaken down.

Massachusetts continues to receive undesirable publicity because of its partnership in the part-mutual gambling business. Last week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post devoted some space to dog-racing tracks in this formerly austere Commonwealth. Do you remember the difficulty Governor Saltonstall had last year in obtaining an increase in the taxes the State received from the dog tracks because some members of our State Senate opposed such an increase? Good people in Massachusetts refuse to sanction a State lottery which would solve our tax problems, but they permit the owners of the dog tracks to continue to make millions annually from the "suckers."

Kiwanis Club

Over one hundred members and friends of the Newton Kiwanis Club attended the Ladies' Night and Annual Installation of Officers held at the Charles River Country Club Monday evening. Following a steak dinner, International Trustee James P. Gallagher of Newton installed the following Officers and Trustees who will serve the Club during 1940. John A. Janse, president; Walter J. Finlay, Imm. Past President; Raymond A. Green, 1st vice president; Edward J. Pease, 2nd vice president; Leo E. Noel, treasurer; Austin M. Shea, secretary; directors: Wilfred Chagnon, Charles A. Barrows, Charles J. Black, Clarence J. Hutchings, Hermon Norton, M.D., Thomas H. Burns and Burt M. Rich.

Following the installation services, vaudeville acts and dancing were enjoyed.

Honored guests were Kiwanis New England District Governor Fred Mitchell, and Mrs. Mitchell from Lynn, and also New England District Secretary Parkie Keenaley of Salem.

The next meeting of the Club will be held at the Charles River Country Club on Tuesday, January 16.

The City Clerk recorded 169 marriage intentions in 1884; there were 182 certificates of marriage, and 293 death returns.

The inaugural ceremonies of the new city government will be held next Monday, January 5, at 3 o'clock. Invitations in the name of the Mayor-elect have been sent out by City Clerk Kingsbury.

Telephone subscribers are now charged 15 cents every time their telephone is used by anyone except themselves or their employees. Non-subscribers using the telephone should go to the telephone exchange.

The policeman detailed for duty at the Read Fund lecture left Eliot Hall early in the evening, and the boys had things their own way for the next half-hour. The stamping and clapping were unrestrained until Alderman Henry gave them a warning which subdued them. The city marshals promised to have a policeman on hand at the next lecture. The disturbance was not made by those belonging to the so-called "hoodlum" element, but by boys whose parents are supposed to teach them better manners.

Daniel Mahoney of Auburndale was instantly killed at the Church st. crossing, Newton, by the 11 o'clock express from Boston on Thursday morning. He was crossing the track toward Washington st. when Gate-tender Slater warned him of the approaching train. He had just time to step off the track but was not far enough away to escape the cylinder head. Strangely enough, no outward sign of the terrible encounter was visible. He was 58 years old and leaves a wife and several children.

The report of the City Treasurer for the year ending December 31, 1884, shows that $107,630.25 was spent for the schools, $1088 for fuel for them, and $53,415 for the erection of four new school buildings. The expenditures for the Highway Department totaled $94,391; Fire Department, $24,291; Police Department, $17,290; Street Lights, $18,847; Free Library, $8366; removal of ashes, $3213.

For downright eccentricity the new school house at the corner of Centre and Lyman sts. goes ahead of anything the city of Newton has yet indulged in. In the first place, the color is a dirty brick-red, reminding one of an ancient barn in the backwoods districts, but supposed to be aesthetic. Then there is an octagonal tower at the street corner of the edifice having an observatory at the top. The building seems to be in two sections, joined at right angles, the front section facing the common and having its west end cut line an overgrown bay-window. The other section runs back along Lyman st. and has a steep slope like a Dutchman's barn, with a hencoop, or is it a belfry, and a row of hothouse windows set in the side.

50 YEARS AGO

The ice dealers are beginning to feel rather blue over the continued warm winter, with no ice crop prospect, but they do not feel half as blue as the boys and girls with new skates and sleds.

A new fireproof safe weighing 2½ tons was put in Eliot Church, Newton, yesterday. In it will be kept the communion service and church records.

In one of the Newton schools on one day this week 21 of the 40 pupils were absent. In another school on the same day 60 per cent of the pupils were absent from one of the rooms. "La Grippe" will succeed in closing the schools if its ravages keep on.

A Newtonville physician made 55 calls last Saturday. There is a large amount of sickness in the city. Among those critically ill with pneumonia are Edward Bailey of Cabot st. and Mrs. Coffin of Highland ave.

The order passed by the City Council compelling the muzzling of dogs in Ward 2 has met with the general approval of citizens, although a few residents object to the conditions involved. All the dogs in Newtonville are either tied up or muzzled through the efforts of Patrolman Bosworth. Dogs from other parts of the city are frequent visitors and are more privileged, inasmuch as they do not have to wear muzzles and can roam at will.

City Marshal Richardson is enjoying his official exercise behind a homebred horse purchased for the use of the police department.

Several of the Newton Center business men are confined to their homes with the gripe. The apothecaries of the village cannot afford to give up as they are doing a rushing business.

Sullivan's shoddy mill at Lower Falls was shut down last week on account of the number of cases of gripe among its employees. Other mills have been running with half of their help absent on account of the sickness.

College News

By GEORGE W. HUTCHINGS, N.H.S. '39

News from the campuses is fairly slack at this time because of the ever-present mid-year examinations which are lurking in the not too distant future. Upon completion of these, the boys and girls will relax and live again like typical collegians.

Back in 1936 Hugh H. Estes of 95 Alban rd., Waban, was graduated from the local high school. His interests consisted mainly of participation in track and football—full time activities in any school. Enrolled in the Mathematics Course, he earned good grades and was initiated into the National Honor Society in his senior year. From Newton High High advanced to Michigan where he is a member of the Engineering School. Honors have been heaped upon him generously, yet deservedly.

When the effects of that last recess wear off, we still have more college news to offer; many of the students are still dormant.

to send representatives to Student Christian Conferences. Bob was one of the student campaign workers who solicited contributions from faculty, alumni, and students of the University. Each contributor received a green feather to wear in recognition of his contribution.

When we referred to Janice Donovan's selection as Queen of Bowdoin House parties, perhaps it was not clear that she came in the company of a Harvard man. All due precautions will be taken to prevent the recurrence of such a situation as Bowdoin men are still trying to explain to their girl friends. What ignominy! From the standpoint of actual beauty, however, the boys are in complete accordance with the choice.

When the effects of that last recess wear off, we still have more college news to offer; many of the students are still dormant.

Letters To The Editor

SEEKS NEWTON MAN

January 6, 1940.

Dear Editor:

About three years ago, a man from Newton, driving a nice car, picked up my Doberman-Pinscher dog, named "Dobe" and brought him home. The man said it looked like the dog that he lost, only that my dog did not have his tail cut as short as his. Only in this way did he decide that my dog was not his.

I think I've located this man's dog in Hyde Park and would like to find out who the man is so as to contact him.

If you would publish this letter I thought maybe I could reach him.

Sincerely yours,

CLEMENT A. NORTON

ONE THING and ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

Chance for Amateur Sleuths

Readers are urged not to miss the collection of articles found in Newton Free Library books and exhibited in a glass case at the main library building. The thoughtfulness of some people has enriched the city to a limited extent but I wonder what the library authorities are going to do with nail files, paper cutters, cards, scissors, etc., unless present them for study from a psychological viewpoint.

What I would like to get at is the story behind these things. Take for instance the half-dozen playing cards revealed between the leaves of one volume. Perhaps some disgusted player threw up his hand. Or there is the possibility that a little cheating was going on, if I may say so. A shrewd player may have held up some trumps and then forgot where he had concealed them.

I can understand why a pair of eyeglasses came in another book. Not infrequently people use their glasses for a book-mark, although remembering them later. The cloth half-mask, a black one, seemed to me sinister-looking, but no doubt I read too many mystery stories. It is one of those commonly worn at masquerades and may figure in a romance if only we could get at the truth.

I'd really like to ferret out the circumstances behind some of the most intriguing of these articles. The more obvious, such as nail files and paper cutters promise nothing extraordinary but there are several of them which I'd like to puzzle over if I had the time.

Our Watchful Commonwealth

If you have an idea that Massachusetts is not a busy state let me assure you that there is plenty going on as far as its officials are concerned. The Legislature, which is not sitting this year, decided last year that there were a lot of matters which should be looked into further during 1940. For the purpose of investigation several recess commissions were created. In other instances the question was turned over to a State board or department. It would consume too much space to give the full and complete list. However, in order that you get a faint idea let me say that among the subjects are the following: biennial budget, prevalence of certain kind of mosquitoes, provision for appellate court, propagation of lobsters, hours of labor in hospitals, functions of the Metropolitan District Commission, vocational schools, pardon and parole methods, youth education and employment, wage and hour standards, transportation. State teachers colleges, mutual insurance and slanders by radio. As I said, there are many which might be added, but I guess this will prove our State has an eye on about everything that is important.

Sure of His Ground

What the intrepid Finns have done to the Russians was a great surprise to practically everybody as far as I can learn. I have discovered, however, a man who was not the least astonished, although gratified like so many others. That man had done research work among them some years ago. When the first clash came last year this man placed a bet of $1000 that the Finns would be victorious. Had no difficulty in finding a taker because people thought him light-headed. "What made you so confident?" I asked. "Because I've lived with those people and learned that nothing can stop them," he replied.

Use for Old Matches

Collecting cards of paper matches provides a great many people with something to occupy their time. I have often wondered what the goal was and supposed the largest accumulation from the widest area represented "tops" to a collector. How one qualified for the championship I have yet to learn. Only recently I discovered that wooden matches offer an opportunity to the industrious that really counts for a great deal. At a social center I found that classes of young people had by their diligence and skill constructed boxes, ornaments, souvenirs and many really desirable things. The young folk were guided by instructors at first but soon caught on. Naturally, they exhibited patience and were willing to work and apply themselves. The results were amazing—at least from my point of view. I do not think artistic is too strong a word. Apparently, matches and glue, when combined, offer limitless possibilities to those with skill and imagination.

Lucky People

Here it is, you might say, the middle of January. If all your Christmas "thank you" letters are written and mailed; all "changes," if any, made at the store; all the mechanical toys still intact and running as they should and if the books that Santa Claus brought for the young of the Metropolitan District Commission are not somewhat battered and unusal one.

New Year—New Leaf— Why Not New Car?

THE slate's clean, the past is past, you're making a new beginning on a new year you hope will be happier and finer and richer—how about doing the job up right?

You spot the fun possibilities in this brilliant and buoyant Buick just by watching it flash by, but have you been in to try it?

Do you know what it's like—first hand, we mean—to have a hundred-plus Dynaflex horsepower waiting your treadle-foot's nudge? Have you sampled the thrill in such an engine micro-poise-balanced to smoothness a wrist watch can't hope to equal?

Today's winter-roughened roads give you swell chance to try out Buick's gentle ride—raw weather emphasizes the stout snugness of Unisteel Bodies by Fisher and the convenience of the Flash-Way Direction Signal.

Now's when you most need firm new rubber—sure, soft, tiptoe brakes—Buick's automatic choke—stout, taut frames and rugged bodies, and why wait for spring to buy beauty that gives your spirits a lift?

Then too, driving speeds are naturally lower now and driving distances shorter, making this the best time of all to get a car properly started in life.

So figure it out! It's a new year. You've turned a new leaf. Ask your Buick dealer what a new Buick will cost you now—and let every month of 1940 contribute to a happy new year!

W. Newton Youths Found Guilty of Assaulting Police

The Newton District Court was crowded yesterday at the trial of three young men of that district and a Waltham youth, all charged with having participated in a brawl which started in a West Newton lunch room, and evolved into a fight between two of the defendants and two Newton policemen. Bernard Ryan, 25, of 16 Henshaw st. was fined $50 for assaulting Patrolman Charles Mague; $20 for disturbing the peace, and $5 for drunkenness. He appealed. John Roche, 19, of 430 Cherry st., was fined $50 for assaulting Patrolman Cunningham. He appealed. Bruce Pintabona, 22, of Allen ave., Waltham, was fined $20 for disturbing the peace and $10 for drunkenness. He appealed. John Flaherty, 19, of 19 Austin st., Newtonville, whose arrest started the fracas, was committed to Billerica prison for 10 days under a former suspended sentence. He was also fined $20 for disturbing the peace. He did not appeal.

Patrolman Cunningham testified that as he was eating in the lunch room shortly after midnight on Sunday, Dec. 31, Flaherty and Ryan became involved in a tussle. Flaherty, who was drunk, was told to go home by Cunningham and when he refused, the policeman placed him under arrest. After Cunningham had taken Flaherty outside the lunch room, Roche ordered him to release the prisoner, and, according to the officer's testimony, Roche then hit him in the face and ran away. Patrolman Leehan substantiated Cunningham's testimony and told of going to Roche's home where he arrested Roche and Flaherty. Patrolman Mague told of arriving at the scene of the fight and of placing Ryan under arrest and in a police car. Mague testified that when Ryan got out of the car, he asked him to stop resisting, as he did not want to use his club on him. According to Mague's testimony, Ryan continued to struggle and the officer hit him a few times on the wrist, and then several times on his head.

Father Hubbard to Lecture at High School, Jan. 28

Rev. Bernard Hubbard, S. J., famous for his explorations in Alaska, will give a lecture on Sunday, January 28 at Newton High School auditorium under the auspices of the Boston College Club of Newton. The proceeds will be used to establish a scholarship at Boston College which will be awarded annually to some deserving Newton boy. Father Hubbard will be introduced by Bishop Richard J. Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Newton Center. John F. Desmond of West Newton, president of the Boston College Club of Newton, is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

Donald MacMillan At Central Club

About 130 attended the annual "Fathers and Sons' Night" of the Central Club at Central Congregational Church, Newtonville on Friday night, January 5. William Matteson, president of the club, was in charge of the meeting and H. Philip Paty introduced Commander Donald B. MacMillan who gave a brief talk before showing pictures taken on his latest trip into the Arctic, made last summer. Assisting in the showing of the pictures was Chauncey Waldron, Jr., of 207 Highland ave., Newtonville, who accompanied Commander MacMillan on the last two trips. The pictures showed Arctic life, Eskimos, icebergs, glaciers, the midnight sun, and a feature was the stampede of a herd of frightened musk oxen. Joseph Ludwigson led the community singing and the dinner was arranged by Edward Jackson.

Play By Troop 12 Newton Girl Scouts

"The Candy Shop," a musical play, was given on Tuesday by Troop 12 of the Newton Local Council, Girl Scouts, at the home of their captain, Mrs. L. E. Schoonmaker on Kenilworth st. It was directed by Mrs. Norman Shipley, who was assisted by Mrs. George L. White and Mrs. James A. Ramsay. Parts in the play were taken by Katherine McCarty, Eleanor and Dorothy Schoonmaker, Holly Taylor, Alice Riddle, Betty Brown, Dorothy Forbes, Barbara Bates, Marilyn Hennessy, Marion Pescoe, June Gunter, Hannah Shipley, Marguerite White, Beryl Dwight, Jean McDonnell, Norma Tanguay, Lorraine Gorham, Joan Horrigan and Nancy Fitzgerald.

W. Newton Man Fined for Speeding

Frederick Kershaw, 27, of 105 Temple st., West Newton, was fined $25 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Wednesday for speeding. It was Kershaw's second conviction for speeding within a year. Fines of $5 for speeding were levied on Clifford Oliver, Jr. of Wellesley; Thomas Falter of Watertown and Richard Freisenbruck of Cambridge.

In the Newton court the same day Joseph Gardella of Arlington, captain-elect of the 1940 Harvard football team, was fined $10 for speeding. Judge Mayberry imposed the $10 fine on Gardella after he had lectured the Arlington youth about "shooting off his mouth." Motorcycle Officer Dowling testified that when he stopped Gardella for speeding on dangerous Washington st. on December 16, the Harvard athlete handed him the driving license of a passenger in the car, although Gardella admitted his own driving license was at home. When Dowling told him he could not drive on someone else's license while he possessed one himself, Gardella told the officer he should learn the law. He further told the policeman that he could not go to court because being captain of the Harvard football team, it would hurt him socially to be brought into court.

Mr. Frank Grebe to Be Ordained at Second Church

The Second Church in Newton, West Newton, has called an Ecclesiastical Council to meet on Sunday afternoon, January 14, at 7 o'clock, to consult and, if deemed wise, to proceed with the church to the ordination of Mr. Frank Grebe to the Christian Ministry.

A Service of Ordination has been planned for the evening of January 14, to be held in the Second Church at 7:45 o'clock. The following will share in the service: Rev. John Brett Fort, St. Mark's Church, Leominster, Mass., The Call to Worship and Invocation; Rev. Ernest W. Kuebler, Director of the Department of Religious Education of the American Unitarian Association, The Scripture Lesson; Rev. Karl B. Marlatt, Dean of the School of Theology, Boston University, The Sermon; Rev. Osbert W. Warmingham, Associate Director of the American Youth Foundation, The Charge; Rev. Boynton Merrill, D.D., Minister of the Second Church in Newton, The Prayer of Ordination; Rev. Edwin P. Booth, Professor of Historical Theology, Boston University School of Theology, The Communion Service.

All friends of Mr. Grebe are especially invited to attend both the afternoon and evening sessions. The general public is cordially invited to attend the evening service.

Mr. Grebe has been Director of Religious Education in the Second Church for the past twelve years. Under his leadership the Church School has grown steadily in enrollment, in the number of departments and in the quality of work done. A staff of nearly seventy-five, largely volunteer, assists him. Great stress has been laid on teacher-training, and the result has been a steady increase in the number of competent teachers devoted to the school and church. A very beautiful and finely planned Educational Building was added to the church plant. Hundreds of interested clergymen and educators have been inspecting this unusual equipment, and scores have been studying the methods devised by Mr. Grebe. He seeks ordination that he may more adequately minister to the spiritual needs of those who are growing to young manhood and womanhood in this large parish and that he may better serve the church which welcomes this latest forward step of its thoroughly tested and beloved director.

THE NEWTON HOSPITAL AID ASSOCIATION

The Annual Meeting of the Newton Hospital Aid Association was held Tuesday morning, January 9, in Thayer Hall of the Newton Hospital, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, presiding.

There were the usual annual reports of the officers, including that of the manager of the Benefit Shop, Mrs. Francis Williams. As she gave many personal side-lights of the work done, she proved her statement, that the benefit of that little shop to the community could not be reckoned in dollars and cents, alone, as through its channels, much is done along social service lines. She made an urgent plea for clothing, particularly for men and children.

The nominating committee included the names of the present officers, and Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson was re-elected president and Mrs. Charles Floyd, Mrs. Pitt Drow, Miss Mary Sawyer, Mrs. Warner Taylor, Mrs. Dana Dutch, Mrs. Charles Riley and Mrs. D. Morley Lodge as vice-presidents. Mrs. Theron Walker as recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur Shannon, as corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edward Sawyer as treasurer and Mrs. Warner Eastus as her assistant.

The speaker of the morning was Mrs. John Greene, Director of the Boston school of Occupational Therapy, and she explained the purpose and use of her work among victims of tuberculosis, mental troubles, orthopedic cases and children afflicted with infantile paralysis.

Following her talk, Miss Marjorie Fish showed still pictures of many of the cases mentioned above. A representative from the Newton District Nursing Association was given time to tell her audience of the advantages of being able to call on her association, when only short nursing care is needed, and Miss Bertha Allen, superintendent of the Newton Hospital gave some interesting statistics of that institution.

A very enjoyable part of the program was that furnished by a group of about forty student nurses, who sang two selections, followed by an original song dedicated to the Hospital Aid Association, in which they expressed their gratitude.

Luncheon was served at the close of the program in the main dining hall.

Candle Cause of Newton House Fire

A lighted candle which ignited a lace curtain, caused considerable fire damage at the home of Mary T. Walsh, 21 Marlboro st., Newton, last Saturday evening. A telephone call was received at 6:15 p. m., when Engine 1 arrived, the blaze appeared so threatening that an alarm from Box 127 was pulled, bringing more apparatus. Another call to the same neighborhood was made by Engine 1 at 8:55 a. m. Sunday when a heater in the house at 75 Waverley ave., became overheated and ran dry.

A defective oil-heater in the cellar of Barron's store at 997 Watertown st., West Newton, brought Engines 2 and 4 and Ladder 1 to that address on Monday at 11:13 a. m.

Walker Predicts Business Boom

"The year just ended was one of the best years in the history of our business," Mr. John M. Walker stated to a GRAPHIC reporter this week. Walker is president and treasurer of the Home Specialties Company, of Newton Centre.

JOHN M. WALKER

"We are now writing so many orders for early spring deliveries," continued Mr. Walker, "that our force is taxed to capacity manufacturing and getting merchandise ready to fill our orders. If present conditions are any indication of what we may expect the balance of the year, 1940 will indeed be a banner year for us. The loyal patronage of our many Newton customers is greatly appreciated and we hope the New Year will be as happy and prosperous for them as we confidently expect it will be for us."

Celery Salesman Must Pay $279

Louis Fantasia, 21, of Baldwin place, Boston, was arraigned in the Newton court last Saturday after having been arrested the preceding day by Boston police on a warrant obtained by Newton police. The youth had been employed as a salesman by Peter Volante, Oak Hill celery producer and was in court several months ago on a charge of having stolen $279 from his employer. At that time Fantasia agreed to make restitution, but had failed to do so. In court on Saturday Judge Mayberry gave him a 3 months suspended jail sentence on condition that he pay back Volante at the rate of $5 each week.

Safety Council to Wage Campaign On Safety in Homes

The Newton Safety Council, Inc., has set aside the week of January 15, as Home Safety Week. This campaign was begun in the knowledge of the appalling and unnecessary number of deaths and injuries in American homes through negligence. The Check-Up List calls attention to the most common sources of these accidents so that they may be remedied.

On January 15, copies of the Home Safety Check-Up List will be distributed throughout the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades for the children to take home with them. In these grades, preliminary educational work will be taken up the previous week that the list may have some meaning to the pupils. At the same time several milk companies are co-operating with the Safety Council and will leave copies of the list with their customers' morning milk.

This is the first year this has been attempted. If the campaign is successful, its scope will be increased next year. On the co-operation of the citizens of Newton depends the success of the Home Safety Week. The Check-Up List is as follows:

OUTSIDE THE HOUSE

1. Uneven walks and wobbly steps cause falls. Are yours in good shape?
2. Are your porch and stair railings strong and true?
3. Are your bushes trimmed; is your view clear as you leave the driveway?

BASEMENT

4. Have you a sign in your garage, "Never start the motor with the doors closed?"
5. Do you use metal barrels and only metal barrels for ashes?
6. Is all rubbish either in cans or removed from the buildings?
7. Are all stairs and passageways clear?

UPSTAIRS

8. Do you forbid leaving anything whatsoever on the stairs?
9. Are all stairways well lighted?
10. Have you a supply of extra light fuses on hand, to avoid using dangerous makeshifts?
11. Are all lamp cords and extension cords sound? (free from fraying or worn spots?)
12. Have you a set rule in your family never to use inflammable cleaning fluids indoors?
13. Are your lye and other strong cleaners stored in tight containers out of reach of small children?
14. Are your supports for hanging mirrors and pictures amply secured and strong?
15. Are all pins, needles, scissors and sharp instruments kept out of reach of small children?

16. Have you a rubber mat handy for use in your bath tub?
17. Knowing that you should never touch electric fixtures with wet hands, have you non-conductor cords and pulls for the lights near sinks, bowls and tubs?
18. Does a check of your first-aid kit show it to be complete?
19. Are matches stored in fire-proof containers out of reach of children?
20. Are kitchen curtains fastened so that they cannot blow across the stove?
21. Are all poisons kept in very tight containers away out of reach of children?
22. Are all small rugs fixed so that they cannot slip?

Golden Wedding Of Mr. and Mrs. Gooley

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Gooley of 40 Highland ave., Newtonville, observed their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday by holding a reception at their home which was attended by over 50 relatives and friends. They received many presents, including a purse of $50 from their children, Mr. Gooley, who is 85 years old, was born at Holland, Vermont; and Mrs. Gooley the former Ada Frappied, who is 71 years of age, was born at Barnston, Quebec. They were married at Barre, Vermont. As a young man, Mr. Gooley went to California to engage in ranching and later resided in Barre. They have resided in Newtonville for 21 years. They have three children, Franklin P. Gooley, Dr. Henry N. Gooley and Mrs. Gladys Porter, all of Newtonville; and three grandchildren. Mr. Gooley attributes his longevity to his adherence to the old adage—"Early to bed and early to rise." He has made a practice of retiring early and arising at 4 a. m.

Auburndale Woman's Club

"Celebrity Chatelogs" is the clever title of the lecture of Mildred Buchanan Flagg for the program of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, January 16th.

Mrs. Flagg, a resident of Newton, well-known as an author, a lecturer, and an editor, will entertain her audience with accounts of personal interviews with famous people who are headlines in today's news. She will be introduced by the chairman of the Day, Mrs. Paul Kieser.

This program will be at 3 o'clock, following a half-hour of business over which the president of the Club, Mrs. Austin Fisher, will preside.

The Auburndale Garden Club was hostess for the meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, January 2nd.

Mr. Laurence Fletcher, secretary of the Trustees of Public Reservations in Massachusetts, was the speaker, and was presented to his audience by the chairman of the Garden Group, Mrs. George Armstrong.

Mr. Fletcher first outlined the purposes of this organization, so that his audience might understand and appreciate better the work done by them in the last fifty years. At the present time, even more than formerly, he explained, there is the danger of old historic spots being sacrificed to personal gain, and when possible, the Society steps in and purchases the tract of land or the old home and preserves it for the use of the public. At the present time they control thirty-six reservations all over the state.

By means of colored slides, he took his audience on a trip along the North and South shores, showing views of Gloucester, Cohasset, and then returned to the Blue Hills, thence to the Charles River at Sherborn, and finally ended the trip out in the Berkshires.

As a suggestion for Garden Clubs, he told of the Demonstration Garden which the Westfield Garden Club has sponsored, where thousands of flowers have been planted, and where information as to when and how to plant is freely given.

Among the historic homes which are controlled by this organization are the Old Manse in Concord and the Gore House in Waltham.

A business meeting preceded this program, during which a representative from the Boston Community Chest was the speaker.

Tea was served at the close of the program.

West Newton Educational Garden Club

The Garden Club of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will meet at the Library, Walnut st., Newtonville, at 2 o'clock, on Monday, January 15th. State To Foster Project of Traveling Library

Clubwomen of Massachusetts will soon hear much of a project which the State Federation president, Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, has mentioned in her Message to Clubwomen this past month. The idea sprang into prominence last September when New England clubwomen in attendance at the Conference at the assistance of the Vermont State Federation of Women's Clubs in sending libraries to the doors of lonely farmhouses and to the rural districts where no centralized libraries could fill their dwellers' hunger for good reading and for education. The Bookmobile on exhibition there aroused keen interest, and led to questions which disclosed a situation that promises to have far-reaching influence in Massachusetts.

This very smart looking, light colored van was labelled in large letters on the side where a firm name usually appears, "Vermont Bookmobile," and underneath that, in smaller lettering, "Presented by the Vermont State Federation of Women's Clubs." When the doors of the van were opened row after row of books came into sight. This "bookmobile" services many of the country towns and outlying villages in Vermont where books are so eagerly awaited. In fact it even rolls up to many a lonely, isolated farm house, and leaves its treasures for those whose delight upon seeing it appear may well be imagined. The world indeed progresses, when modern inventions and understanding humanity may combine to give such pleasure as only a few short years ago could have been unrealized, even if dreamed of.

Questions of Professor Peach of the Vermont Library Commission, and of Miss E. Louise Jones, head of the Massachusetts State Division of Public Libraries at the State House, who were in attendance at the Conference, brought out the need of such a Bookmobile project in Massachusetts, where it would hardly be believed that such a necessity exists. The State Library Division has set itself the goal of having six such Traveling Libraries to cover all parts of the state, with a regional base set up in a large library for each section of the state to be reached. Bookmobiles may be sent out from town to town and made available for many readers who now are shut off from library resources, with several thousand books planned for each section. A professionally trained and experienced librarian will have immediate supervision of each of the regions. This is the plan envisioned by the State Library Extension Division, and already in its furtherance the Federal Government is to contribute $30,000 to be spent for books. The raising of about $36,000 more for the purchase of "bookmobiles" is another step in the achievement of the goal. And so interested did the clubwomen of Massachusetts become in the explanation of the plan that they have taken under consideration the raising of funds to purchase such a "bookmobile" for Massachusetts as their share in its development, similar to the gift of the Vermont Federation for its state. The cost of such a "bookmobile" is stated as $11,000. And the Literature chairman of the State Federation, Mrs. Miner H. A. Evans; and the Education chairman, Mrs. Franklin S. Nichols, are perfecting plans for the furtherance of this gift as a project of real value to the state, and one worthy the efforts of clubwomen.

Massachusetts clubwomen will indeed hear more of this project!

boys and youths in this matter, would make things more agreeable for the directors and the general skating public.

Because the skating places under the supervision of the Newton Playground (now Recreation) Department are promptly plowed free of snow after storms, Newton residents enjoy skating many more days each winter than do persons in other cities and towns. After each snowstorm plows pulled by small tractors clear the snow from the ice. A revolving broom follows the plows in cleaning off the snow. The numerous cracks in the ice, caused by the large number of skaters, are minimized as much as possible by the use of planers, and when the weather is sufficiently cold, water is poured onto the surface of the skating areas to fill in the cracks. As a safety precaution, skating is not permitted until the ice is at least 4 to 5 inches in thickness.

Afternoon Session on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday At Newton Centre—Many Valuable Prizes to Be Awarded

There is a familiar saying that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach and another that the way to keep peace in a family is to feed friend husband well. So every woman in Newton should be interested in cooking and should be on hand next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, Jan. 22, 23 and 24 at the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse in Newton Centre sq. for the three free sessions of the NEWTON GRAPHIC Fall Cooking School.

The sessions of the school, which is conducted with the co-operation of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company and many local merchants, will begin each day at 2 o'clock and end at 4 p. m. so that the mistress of the house will be home in time to prepare the family's evening meal. Doors will open at 1 p. m. and the women are urged to come early as capacity attendances are expected at every session.

Miss Margaret Fossett, director of the home economics department of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, will be the director of the school, and will impart many valuable cooking hints to those who attend. The school is absolutely free to the women of Newton and vicinity and many valuable and useful prizes are offered. Some of these numerous prizes will be awarded at each session with the major awards being presented at the close of the school on Wednesday.

The major prize offered by the GRAPHIC is an R.C.A. Victor radio, large console model, magic eye, all wave length, touch-button control which will be displayed at the cooking school. The radio is valued at $89.95. This prize will be awarded at the close of the cooking school session on Wednesday.

Hoffman Critical At Overspending On WPA Projects

Following a long closed door session by committees of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, Alderman Hoffman made another criticism of additional appropriations when the Board resumed its open meeting. This item, the subject of Hoffman's criticism, was the recommendation by the Mayor and the Finance Committee of $4583 for WPA projects on work done in the latter part of 1939. This money was for materials used in laying granite sidewalks and cement curbing. Hoffman contended that there must be something wrong with the accounting system, and the same system which has been adopted by the Street Department should also be applied to the WPA. He called attention to the fact that during 1939 the Federal government allotted $481,000 to Newton for WPA projects.

Chairman McKay of the Finance Committee explained, in answer to Hoffman's criticism, that the deficit WPA material bills for 1939 were caused because there is a conflict of authority between the Street Department and the WPA administration officials. He said the appropriations for 1939 on materials for WPA projects were exceeded because neither

Drama Club To Present Annual Play

High School Production To Be Comedy Entitled "First Lady"

"First Lady," the sparkling comedy by George Kaufman, comes to Newton High School auditorium on Friday afternoon, January 26, and Saturday evening, January 27. The play is directed by Miss Louise Wetherbee. The play enjoyed great success on Broadway and in the screen version, and now becomes a popular vehicle for the amateur groups and summer theaters. In producing "First Lady," the Drama Club of Newton High offers another stellar attraction in its long list of successes in a varied repertory of classics and modern comedies.

Kaufman's hit play is timely, and has its setting in the Capital. The role of the clever First Lady, originally done by Jane Cowl, is taken by Bette Brady, and that of her feminine rival is acted by Lane Kutz. Robert Gallant and Thomas Lawson are the presidential candidates. Other members of the large cast in important roles are Jane Cooper, Eleanor Sampson, Ingrid Johnson, Richard Warren and Robert McGrath.

Start Decennial Business Census

The Federal Decennial Census of 1940 has started in this city with statistics on business and industry being compiled by enumerators assigned to Newton and attached to the 9th Congressional district headquarters at Cambridge. The enumerators assigned to this city are Ex-Alderman John Brocklesby of Auburndale, M. Bernard McCarthy of West Newton, and William Desmond of Newton. It is expected that this work will take about five months. The information obtained by the enumerators regarding business and industries, is, according to law, to be kept confidential.

The Federal census of population and housing will start on April 1, and the staff of enumerators to be assigned to Newton has not yet been announced.

Newton Physician Left $40,000 Fund

Dr. Harry Hartwell of 36 Walnut park, Newton, was bequeathed a trust fund of $40,000 in the will of Miss Charlotte Robbins of Weston which was filed at Middlesex probate court on Wednesday. After the death of Dr. Hartwell and his wife, the fund is to be used for the benefit of aged couples and women in the towns of Ayer, Groton, Harvard, Littleton and Shirley. Miss Robbins owned an estate estimated at $400,000 which includes a number of public bequests.

Aldermen Can't Abolish Eyesore

A petition from residents of Austin st., Newtonville asking that the Board of Aldermen "enjoin the owner of an unfinished house at 122 Austin st. to complete the building or restore the property to an appearance appropriate to the neighborhood," was given leave to withdraw by the Board on Monday night after Chairman Rawson of the Claims & Rules Committee had reported that the City Solicitor ruled that the Aldermen have no power to act on this petition.

Alderman Cronin said that if the city has the right to grant a permit for the erection of a building, there should be some way to compel the completion of the building so that it would not remain an eyesore in a neighborhood, and that some teeth should be put into our building code. Alderman Hoffman agreed with Cronin and asked if the Aldermen can pass an ordinance to prevent such a nuisance, or if an act of the Legislature is necessary? Alderman Rawson replied that the Aldermen have not the power to pass such an ordinance.

The building in question has been in an uncompleted condition for over 2 years. It is located on a lot partly consisting of ledge, and in addition to being unsightly is a source of danger to children in the neighborhood.

Objections By Two Aldermen Delay Forming New Precincts

Temperley and Lee Want Savings Effected By Shifts In Present Lines

Objections raised by Aldermen Temperley and Lee of Ward 1 caused the orders creating some new voting precincts to be referred back to the Claims & Rules Committee at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. Chairman Rawson of the committee explained that the General Laws of Massachusetts limit the number of voters in any precinct to 2000, and as several precincts in this city have more than that number, added precincts must be created. The divisions of existing precincts and the bounds of the proposed new precincts, as submitted by the Claims & Rules Committee, were defined at the suggestion of the Newton Board of Assessors. Alderman Rawson explained that the assessors are anxious to have the new precincts created as soon as possible, because the work of the assessors in blocking real estate in the wards affected, will be delayed until the changes will have been made. He also commented that changes in ward lines cannot be made until 1941.

The proposed precinct changes are—Ward 1, Precinct 2, to be divided into two precincts; the division line to be the Boston & Albany railroad; the precinct on the North side to be known as Precinct 2, that on the South side, Precinct 3. Precinct 2 of Ward 1 now comprises all of the Ward East of Jackson rd. Ward 5, Precinct 3 is proposed to be divided into two precincts, the division line to be the B. & A. railroad, and the precincts to be known as Precincts 3 and 5. Precinct 4 of Ward 5 is to be divided, according to the plan, the division line to be Dedham st. and Walnut st., one side to remain the present Precinct 4, the other side to be part of the new Precinct 5. Precinct 2 of Ward 6 will be divided, the division line to be Parker st. to Cypress st., and Cypress st. to the present boundary line of the precinct. The new precinct will be known as Precinct 5, Ward 6. The triangular piece of land at Newton Corner at the junction of Washington st. and the Boston & Albany railroad tracks will be changed from Precinct 2 of Ward 7 to Precinct 1. The only residential building in this area is the Whitman Building.

Alderman Lee, the new member from Ward 1, who did not agree with the majority of the Claims & Rules Committee as regards the new division of Ward 1, doubted the advice

Aldermen Refuse Claims for Damage

Several claims for damages to automobiles caused by city-owned motor vehicles were refused by the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. One claim was from Charles E. Smith of Belmont st., Newton. He stated that a car owned by the Street Department and driven by an employee of that department, was driven into his car on Centre st. last August. It cost Smith $18.55 for the repairs of the fenders and bumper of his car. Another claim was from Ernest Perrean, a fireman attached to Engine 5 at Auburndale. While his car was parked in the yard of that firehouse, a city owned horse became frightened and pulled a cart against Perrean's car. A third claim was from James Kerrigan, Newton Centre automobile supplies dealer. A car driven by an employee of the Welfare Department, and owned by the city, was backed into Kerrigan's car, causing about $6 damages to the fenders. The owners of these three damaged cars were informed that they will receive no money from the city, because the city is not legally liable. So, if your car is damaged, or if you are injured by a city owned automobile, don't ask for damages. The city isn't legally liable, and so far has refused to accept the State law which permits it to carry liability insurance on its motor vehicles.

The Newton Community Forum will have as its guest speaker Dr. Chao-Ting Chi, on Jan. 21, 1940, at 3:15 at the Newton High School. His subject will be "New Situations in the Far East."

Chinese Savant To Speak at Forum on Far East Problem

Dr. Chi was born in Fenyank district, Shansi, China, educated at Tsing Hua College and upon graduation came to the United States on a Boxer Indemnity Scholarship to study at the University of Chicago (Ph.D. 1926).

In 1927 and 1928 he was in Europe. In 1934 he received his Ph.D. in Economics from the Graduate School of Columbia University. He served as a member of the Chinese Delegation to the Institute of Pacific Relations Conference at Yosemite, Calif., 1936.

In the summer of 1936, Dr. Chi was appointed Professor of Economic History at the Nankai Institute of Economics, Nankai University, Tientsin, China, but was prevented from taking up his duties there by the destruction of the university by Japanese bombing.

Dr. Chi spent the summer, fall and early winter of 1938 in the Orient making a six months' tour and economic investigation in China under the auspices of the International Secretariat of the Institute of Pacific Relations. He traveled on a bomb-ridden railway from Canton to Changsha, experienced daily air raids in Changsha and Hankow, and covered by plane most of the leading cities in heroic China. While in Chungking, the new capital of China, he watched from the gallery the work of China's embryo Parliament, the People's Political Council, in full session, and interviewed early a hundred active leaders in China. He made a special investigation of the economic possibilities of China's southwest, the economic base of China's war of resistance, and obtained much first-hand information on the economic aspects of the Sino-Japanese war.

Dr. Chi is on the editorial Board of "Amerasia," is Expert of the Economic Research Department of the Central Bank of China, a lecturer at the New School for Social Research in New York, author of "Key Economic Areas in Chinese History," and contributor to various American and Chinese periodicals.

Notice to Residents Of Newton

It has been called to the attention of the Veteran's Council of Newton that certain individuals are soliciting funds for the purpose of decorating the graves of veterans.

We take this opportunity to advise you that the decoration of graves of veterans is by order of the Mayor placed under the jurisdiction of the Veteran's Council of Newton. Flowers for this purpose are annually provided by appropriation from the City Government and by generous donations of flowers by residents and school children.

Inasmuch as the Veteran's Council has received no notice of intent to solicit by the organization or parties in question, the Veteran's Council hereby gives notice that it does not support the solicitation and does not in any way encourage the purchase of tickets.

Chairman Veteran's Council of Newton.

Goddard Opposes WPA Employees On Civil Service

Mayor Paul Goddard stated at the Rotary Club on Monday that he had informed City Solicitor Bartlett that he favors making a legal fight, if necessary, of the ruling of Civil Service Director Ulysses Lupien that certain persons employed by cities and towns on WPA administrative work must be placed under civil service. The employees in Newton who would be affected by Lupien's ruling are Harold F. Young, sponsor's agent for the city on WPA projects; George Carroll, an accountant; Mary McCauley and Arlene Olsen, stenographers. The Mayor stated that he is willing to have the matter taken to the Supreme Court.

Lupien, who was appointed last year to the position he now holds, recently ruled that employees in administrative work on WPA whose salaries are paid by cities or towns,

Tickets Selling For Childs Dinner

The committee arranging the testimonial dinner to Ex-Mayor Childs at the State Armory on next Wednesday night, January 24, held a meeting on Wednesday night at Elks Hall. Chairman Herman Wells reported that there had been a large jump in the sale of tickets since the preceding meeting. Letters have been received from Governor Saltonstall, Chief Justice Fred Field, Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Joseph E. Perry, Grand Master of the Masons; Harold D. Field, District Deputy of the Elks, and members of the Mayors' Club and fraternal organizations, signifying their intentions of attending. Senator Arthur W. Hollis will officiate as toastmaster. Tickets are now on sale at drug stores throughout the city.

A sub-committee of the Finance Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen, composed of Chairman Donald McKay of the committee, and Clarence Colby, has made an exhaustive study of the charges which have been levied against Newton for the maintenance of the Middlesex County T. B. Hospital at Waltham. Their report, which is printed herewith, shows that Newton and other cities and towns of Middlesex County have been assessed disproportionately, and conversely, other units of the county have had to pay far less than they should. The report follows:

The Middlesex County Sanatorium, located in Waltham, was built in 1930-32 for the care of tubercular patients residing within the county. The original cost was over $2,200,000. In 1937 an addition was made at an expense of $417,000. The City of Newton was assessed $361,489.95 for its share of the cost. Bonds were issued both for the original assessment and the addition. The debt service of these bonds is not taken into consideration in the following report which is an analysis of the operating expenses and the manner in which such expenses are assessed to the various municipalities. It should be stated, however, that maturing bonds and interest charges require about $34,000 in 1940, and the last bonds will not be retired until 1948.

There exists a most complicated accounting system which apparently has hidden from general view the many inequalities. We do not believe that a court of law would uphold the segregation of expenses as now in effect under the designations of "Maintenance or Upkeep"—and "Care of Patients." The proper allocation of items under those respective heads makes a great difference in the final net cost of patients to each city and town. The net cost is determined by three distinct steps:

1. There is now in effect an initial daily charge of $1.50 per patient.
2. There is an annual maintenance assessment against every municipality in the county (Lowell and Cambridge excepted—see below) which in 1938 totalled $284,520.
3. There is a subsidy of $5 per patient week paid each municipality by the Commonwealth.

Lowell and Cambridge have their own tuberculosis hospitals and were therefore exempted from contributing to the construction cost, and are not at present liable for maintenance.

Provision is made in our annual budget for item number one. In 1938 our expenditure was $16,095.

Each January the City of Newton receives a bill from Middlesex County for its share of the previous year's maintenance. As yet the bill for 1939 has not been received, but undoubtedly it will be before us for action at the next meeting. Last January it amounted to $41,500.39. Apparently we have never heretofore questioned the accounting, but several weeks ago members of the Finance Committee in anticipation of the bill began a study of this subject. Conferences have been held with the County Commissioners, the Superintendent of the Sanatorium, the Director of the Department of Corporations and Taxation, and the City Solicitor. Complete records for the year 1938 have been carefully analyzed and a summary is in your hands. The burden imposed on 31 cities and towns for the benefit of 21 is startling. Figures for 1939 are not yet available.

Community Fund Campaign To Start

Dinner at Brae Burn Country Club for Newton Workers

With the opening of Greater Boston's 1940 Community Fund campaign set for Monday, January 22, T. Alexander Lane, chairman in Newton, has issued a last-minute challenge to his group of local volunteer leaders and solicitors to do their task thoroughly and promptly.

Every worker in Newton and throughout the metropolitan area is urged to attend the official campaign opening, next Monday evening in Grand Hall, Mechanics building, Boston.

In addition to messages from prominent citizens of city and state, including the Governor and Charles Francis Adams, president of the Community Federation, the popular radio headliner, John Keiran of "Information Please" fame, sports editor of the New York Times, will address the meeting. Francis C. Gray, general chairman of the 1940 campaign, will preside.

A dinner was held Monday evening at the Brae Burn Country Club in the interests of the Newton Campaign for Greater Boston's 1940 Community Fund. J. Alex. Lane, chairman for Newton, presided. Charles Francis Adams, president of the Community Federation and former secretary of the Navy, delivered the principal address and other talks were given by Mayor Paul M. Goddard of Newton; Francis Gray, General Chairman of the 1940 Fund Campaign; Ammi Cutter, Chairman of the Metropolitan Division; Thomas Eliot, Vice Chairman of the Metropolitan Division; William J. Davidson, Associate Chairman, Newton; William Fawcett, Director Community Chest Campaign for Newton; John Cahill, Vice President, Rotary Club of Newton and John Janse, President of the Kiwanis Club of Newton.

Mr. Adams' talk was principally directed towards the many reasons why residents of Newton, as well as the other metropolitan areas, should interest themselves in the campaign. It was pointed out that the 175 hospitals, health and social service agencies supported by Boston's Community Fund rendered service to residents of the metropolitan area, for example, that last year hospitals, clinics and dispensaries among the 175 agencies, rendered 4560 total days of ward care in hospitals, and 8880 treatments in clinics and dispensaries to residents of Newton. 41 per cent of this service was rendered free of charge or at part pay. Numerous other services were rendered by health agencies, family service and relief societies, institutions and agencies for the handicapped, children's service, youth agencies, and settlement homes. The other speakers also spoke in the interests of the campaign, being directed in Newton.

Others seated at the head table were: Neil Lombard, Associate Chairman for Newton; Otto H. Bradley, Executive Director of the Community Federation of Boston; Edward Hubbard, Secretary, W. Metropolitan Division; William Cahill, Treasurer Newton Trust Co.; Leo B. Rogers, President Brae Burn Co.

The Directors for the different sections of the City of Newton were also present with many of their workers. The Directors are as follows: James B. Melcher, Newton Corner; Malcolm P. Ball, Newtonville; M. J. Niles, Auburndale; Mrs. M. J. Niles, Assoc. Director, Auburndale; William Krause, West Newton; Harry B. Cummings, Waban; Walter P. Rayner, Newton Highlands; Treasurer W. Cahill, Newton Centre; Harold F. Tracy, Oak Hill; Mrs. Endicott P. Saltonstall, Chestnut Hill, South; David Stoneman, Chestnut Hill, North.

Others who attended the meeting included the following: Miss Mabel Eager, of Auburndale; Judge Daniel O'Connell, Justice of the Superior Court; C. Raymond Cabot of Newtonville; Maynard Hutchinson of West Newton; and Albert P. Evans, Newtonville, Alderman of the City of Newton.

Of interest was the awarding of a special prize to Mrs. Endicott P. Saltonstall, for her support, interest, and loyal service that she has given to the Boston Community Fund Campaigns, both past and present.

The campaign proper opens on January 22, 1940. It was emphasized that it was the intention of the campaign in Newton to cover those individuals who lived in Newton, and who do not subscribe elsewhere. Those interested who are not called upon may secure information by calling at 87 Union st., headquarters for Newton, or by telephoning Center Newton 1909.

Aldermen Delay Creating New Voting Precincts

ability of the proposed change. He said it seems unnecessary to create a new precinct in the Ward. At present Precinct 1 of Ward 1 has about 1300 voters, and Precinct 2 about 1300. Lee suggested that that part of Precinct 2 from the westerly side of Jewett st. be transferred to Precinct 1. He commented that in Ward 5 where areas are being rapidly developed, new precincts are necessary.

Alderman Temperley of Ward 5 said that instead of creating a new precinct in that Ward, if some of the contiguous parts of Precinct 3 and Precinct 4 are transferred to Precinct 1, and part of Precinct 4 to Precinct 2, the cost of a new precinct, $200 to $300 yearly, will be saved. Temperley called attention to the fact that not so many years ago areas now designated as parts of Waban and Oak Hill were included in Upper Falls. He said that voters now have to travel from Florence st. to Newton Highlands to ballot, a distance of about 2 miles, whereas some of those voting in Precinct 3 live much nearer to the Upper Falls voting place than they do to the Waban voting place.

Aldermen Discuss School Cafeteria

A petition from the Newton Taxpayers' Association asking the Board of Aldermen to pass an ordinance relative to the handling of profits in public school cafeterias in Newton was given leave to withdraw by the Board on Monday night. Alderman Rawson, chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee, explained that the furnishing of meals for teachers and pupils in school buildings is permitted by the School Committee, which has authority on this matter. Some years ago the city, by authority granted under the General Laws, appropriated $6000 to install cafeterias in some of the schools, and in 1932 this money was returned to the city treasury from profits made in the cafeterias.

The business done by these cafeterias totals $100,000 yearly, and the practice is to provide meals at as near cost as possible. There is a revolving fund, and what profits have been made have been used to purchase new equipment. Alderman Rawson stated that Supt. of Schools Warren has informed him that the present cafeteria fund is somewhere between $5000 and $13,000, and that the net profit made on the cafeterias last year was only $218.

Alderman Hoffman commented that there is quite a difference between $5000 and $13,000 and such a figure either indicates accounting that is not clear cut, or that the school department believes that the Aldermen are not supposed to know the actual figures. Hoffman said that the Public Buildings Committee had discussed the figures submitted by the School Department regarding the costs to be charged to the cafeterias and the question of a proper charge for steam used was raised. He asked what was the nature of the ordinance asked for by the Taxpayers' Association. Alderman Rawson said that the City Solicitor has given the information that the State statutes dispose of the question of the ordinance, and the Aldermen have not power to act.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

Last Monday night the City of Newton by official action of its Board of Aldermen gave another manifestation of poor sportsmanship, injustice and cheapness. We refer to the refusal of the Board of Aldermen to take favorable action on some claims presented to the city by persons whose automobiles were damaged by automobiles owned by the City of Newton and driven by persons in the employ of the city. Even when the evidence indicated that the fault was clearly on the side of the drivers of the city-owned automobiles, the Claims and Rules Committee recommended leave to withdraw on damage claims because the city is not legally liable for damage to person or property caused by any motor vehicle it owns, other than those owned by the Water Department.

This action of the Board of Aldermen is nothing new. For many years preceding Boards of Aldermen have done likewise on advice of the City Solicitor. Even in the case of a fatal accident the same action was taken.

It is true that the city is not legally liable for damage caused by its motor vehicles. It is also true that there is a State statute which permits cities and towns to take out insurance on their automobiles, so that when any person is killed or injured by a city or town-owned vehicle, damages can be collected; and damages can also be paid in case of property damage. A number of cities and towns have accepted this law and insure their motor vehicles. When the writer was a member of the Board of Aldermen he endeavored to have the city act fairly on this matter, but he did not succeed. Since then we have from time to time criticized the failure of the city to either insure its automobiles or pay damages when the fault was plainly that of city employees driving city-owned automobiles or trucks. If the City Solicitor or the Aldermen were injured, or their automobiles damaged through the fault of some city employee driving a city-owned vehicle, we have an idea they would want to be reimbursed.

Residents of Oak Hill, who have petitioned the Planning Board not to favor a plan which would permit the subdivision of a hillside into small building lots located on a street with a 12 per cent grade, will have the approval of a majority of Newton residents. In all parts of the city, large, old estates are being cut up into house lots, many of these lots quite small, and on them small, inexpensive houses have been and are being erected. It is unreasonable to expect that Newton of the future will contain large estates as it did in the past. It is reasonable to attempt to prevent Newton from deteriorating into a thickly settled community, composed largely of small house lots. Crowding too many houses into this city would not only greatly change its character, but would necessitate additional school buildings, a more expensive school cost, and eventually—a greater welfare burden.

Many of those who want to build cheap houses on small lots in Newton are speculative builders, either who don't reside here or who have recently moved here. They are not employing Newton men in the erection of these houses and have little interest in the city, other than to profit by its reputation and popularity. Oak Hill was planned as a community of large house lots and attractive homes. The tendency there now is the other way. And it should be definitely impressed on real estate developers in Newton that they cannot expect to obtain concessions from our zoning ordinance so that they can clutter up the city with neighborhood business areas as was attempted in one development recently. While the present Claims & Rules Committee serves, we feel confident the zoning ordinance will be sustained.

The Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children calls attention to the great increase in drinking among mothers of young children, and the serious results it is bringing. Before the misnamed "prohibition" era, saloons (or barrooms) with few exceptions, would not serve liquor to women. Since the sale of alcoholic beverages again became legal in these places, Massachusetts holding common victualler licenses are permitted to sell liquor to women as well as men, and as the M. S. P. C. states, drinking among women, including mothers of young children, has become alarmingly prevalent.

There is a practical and simple way to correct this evil. Massachusetts has a law licensing taverns. A tavern can sell spirituous liquors in addition to wines and beer, and can sell to men only. Amend this law so that there will be two classes of taverns—those which can sell all kinds of alcoholic beverages, and those which can sell only wines and malt liquors. By doing this, Newton and other communities can grant licenses to "taverns" limited to the sale of wines and malt beverages, and selling to women in these places will be prohibited. At least 90 percent of the beer places in this city licensed as common victuallers, should not have common victualler licenses, as they serve little food, even sandwiches. The granting of "Common Victualler" licenses in Newton has been for many years collusion by authorities in the violation of the law pertaining to the Sabbath Day as regards the sale of groceries and other merchandise on Sundays.

In addition to certain stores opening Sundays because they possess common victualler licenses, and instead of serving meals, sell groceries and other articles illegally, for the past few years drug stores and other stores in Newton have been permitted to openly sell food, although not possessing common victualler licenses. Between the License Board, the Police Department and the Health Department, some measures should be taken to enforce the common victualler law in Newton.

Executives of a company operating a chain market in this city wisely vetoed the edict of a district official who was apparently determined to resume the opening of this store on Wednesday afternoons and by so doing jeopardize the continuing of the enjoyment of this weekly half-day by hundreds of food store and market employees in the Newtons. The owners of the store in question will gain much more by closing it on Wednesday afternoons, than they would have by taking the niggardly attitude and breaking an agreement which met with public approval the past year and more.

Music Course To Be Given at Newtonville

Plans have been completed for a lecture course on "Understanding Music" to be sponsored by the All Newton Music School and given by Harry A. Seaver, graduate of the Music Department of Harvard University. The course will be held in the lecture hall of the Newtonville Public Library on Walnut st., beginning on Monday, February 12, at 10:30 a. m. and continuing for six successive Mondays through March 18. These lectures will be designed for music lovers and all those interested in music who know something about it and want to know more. A very small fee will be charged for the full series as this is not a benefit project, but an educational and cultural opportunity for the people of Newton.

A free demonstration lecture on "The Musical Form of the Varied Theme or Theme and Variation," the oldest and simplest musical form in existence, will be given by Mr. Seaver in the Newtonville Library on Monday, January 29, at 10:30 a. m. Further information about this lecture and the Lecture Course may be learned from Mrs. Ray Eusden of Newton who is chairman of the Committee in charge of the lectures.

The All Newton Music School would be glad to hear from a public spirited friend who would donate a piano for the Library Hall. Such a gift or loan would be very much appreciated, would receive the best of care, and would be a real asset to the attractive lecture hall of the new Newtonville Library.

The Lend-A-Hand Masque held its January meeting on Monday evening at the home of Miss Eleanor Hall, 126 Prince st., West Newton.

A musical program was presented, featuring Mrs. Gladys Parker, well-known pianist, with her talented pupil, ten-year-old Cynthia Brown, both of Waban, and Miss Katherine Fitzpatrick, lyric soprano, of West Roxbury.

The Lend-A-Hand does not meet in December but nevertheless was most enthusiastic over the charming puppetry work of a group of its members who showed their own version of a Nativity Miracle Play at this time.

C. states, drinking among women, including mothers of young children, has become alarmingly prevalent.

There is a practical and simple way to correct this evil. Massachusetts has a law licensing taverns. A tavern can sell spirituous liquors in addition to wines and beer, and can sell to men only. Amend this law so that there will be two classes of taverns—those which can sell all kinds of alcoholic beverages, and those which can sell only wines and malt liquors. By doing this, Newton and other communities can grant licenses to "taverns" limited to the sale of wines and malt beverages, and selling to women in these places will be prohibited. At least 90 percent of the beer places in this city licensed as common victuallers, should not have common victualler licenses, as they serve little food, even sandwiches. The granting of "Common Victualler" licenses in Newton has been for many years collusion by authorities in the violation of the law pertaining to the Sabbath Day as regards the sale of groceries and other merchandise on Sundays.

In addition to certain stores opening Sundays because they possess common victualler licenses, and instead of serving meals, sell groceries and other articles illegally, for the past few years drug stores and other stores in Newton have been permitted to openly sell food, although not possessing common victualler licenses. Between the License Board, the Police Department and the Health Department, some measures should be taken to enforce the common victualler law in Newton.

Executives of a company operating a chain market in this city wisely vetoed the edict of a district official who was apparently determined to resume the opening of this store on Wednesday afternoons and by so doing jeopardize the continuing of the enjoyment of this weekly half-day by hundreds of food store and market employees in the Newtons. The owners of the store in question will gain much more by closing it on Wednesday afternoons, than they would have by taking the niggardly attitude and breaking an agreement which met with public approval the past year and more.

At present a patrolman receives $750 for his first year's salary, and as his uniform and equipment costs $100, he receives only $650. The proposed change fixes the salary at $900 for the first year, and $1000 thereafter.

Both her arms were broken and she received internal injuries. At last accounts she was very low.

Since there is no skating on Boyd Playground this winter, the young people who have enjoyed skating there in past years are very indignant. An explanation seems to be in order. To provide safe skating at Boyd Park has never cost less than $400, and frequently more than $500 per season. The funds for skating are never more than $900 for all the villages in the city. To spend half as much on Boyd Park alone is unfair to the rest of the city. Considering the fact that an outlay of $1500 to regrade the park would make the annual expense of flooding these grounds only about $50, it seems we could easily save enough in a few years to pay for the change.

The training school for nurses connected with the Newton Cottage Hospital is hardly as well known by our people as it should be. It has been in existence less than 2 years and its first pupils have not yet completed their 2 years' course; yet it has proved beyond doubt its capacity for great usefulness to the hospital, to sick people of Newton and to pupil nurses themselves. To the hospital it furnishes all female nursing service except that of the head nurse. To sick outside the hospital it provides trained service as far as nurses can be spared from the hospital. To pupils themselves it furnishes thorough training in one of the most honorable employments for women.

NIGHT GAME BRINGS WALTHAM TO NEWTON

Undefeated School Basketball Team Faces Severe Test Tonight

An undefeated Newton high school basketball team will be seeking its fourth consecutive Suburban league victory tomorrow evening at the high school gym. Newton's opponents will be the second-place Waltham high team which has won two of its three games, going down to defeat at the hands of Cambridge Latin on the Waltham court on Tuesday. With a Watch City victory needed to keep them in the fight for championship honors, the visitors are apt to rebound from their Tuesday's loss with an overpowering attack.

Setting the pace with its three wins, the orange and black will be compelled to travel on high to turn back the visitors in this game which may have a definite effect upon the pennant scramble. A win for the local five would give them an advantage which other teams might find hard to overcome in the next few weeks, whereas a loss would tie the race up into a free-for-all struggle.

The game is being staged in the evening in order that parents and adults interested in the popular court game may have an opportunity to witness the manner in which Newton high carries on this form of sport. All tickets will be priced at 25 cents. It will be the only night game of the season.

Coach Beverly Wilson of the Newton team will start his usual lineup which has Nino Coletti and Paul Holmes in the forward berths, Captain Johnny Flagg at center, and Francis Olivigni and Phil Teschner as guards. Captain Flagg is the spark-plug of the team and high scorer. Teschner is the only junior in the starting line-up.

Among the early replacements when needed will be George Norcross and William (Bullet) Byrne as forwards, Dick Lowery as center, and Johnny Brown and Gareno (Goddie) Gentile as guards. Byrne is a younger brother of Bullet Joe Byrne of Newton athletic prominence a few years ago.

Over the past several years Newton and Waltham have an even rivalry. Last year the Waltham five were runners-up to Arlington for league honors in a playoff series after the Spy Pond five had defeated Newton in the only evening game at Newton last Friday.

and was victorious at Cambridge Latin a week ago and on Tuesday at Arlington, 29 to 27.

In the Arlington game Newton led all the way. At half time the count was 14 to 6 but the Spy Ponders pulled up slowly to knot the count at 27 all with three minutes to play. Olivigni tossed in a two-point shot to give Newton a two-point edge. Flagg was fouled while shooting and was given two free shots. The first missed. Under the new rule Newton took possession of the ball outside instead of accepting the free throw. Arlington broke through when the ball was put into play but had no chance to break for the basket and the game ended.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Howard Johnson Club was still at the top of the league after its Monday night game with the Royals. They defeated the Royals in an overtime period 33-31. Baker, the Johnson forward, took a pass from Smith under the basket to decide the game. The Royals, on Friday evening, had defeated the Italian American Catholic Club by a narrower margin 20-19. With the Royals trailing 20-18 and but a few seconds to go, Paulini sunk a long shot from the center of the floor to decide the game.

NEWTON HOCKEY TEAM IN SCORING SPREE

Swamp Medford 9-4 To Set Up New Record

Last Saturday Newton High trampled over Medford High 9-4 setting two scoring records in the GBI hockey league games at the Arena. One was a new mark of four goals in 40 seconds and the other a season high of nine goals in one game. The avalanche of goals that came at the end of the first period were all that were needed to give Newton the game. The orange and black were led by Tom Dugan who scored five goals and got two assists and "Buddy" Hurley who collected two goals and two assists. Phil Fessenden and Gordie Goodband each scored a goal and the former picked up an assist to complete the attack on Medford. Newton leads the league in team scoring and has three men among the first five leading scorers in Bunny Dugan, Walt Hurley and Phil Fessenden. Dugan and Hurley are one-two and Fessenden is fifth. Melrose also won and is still tied with Newton at the top of the standings. The orange and black does not play Melrose again and the lack of such a conflict may result in sharing the championship.

In the first period all was quiet until Bunny Dugan sank a goal in 3:21 to put the orange and black one up. Then the red, white, blue underdogs held Newton for next seven minutes. Donaway of Medford received a penalty midway through the period for charging. As the 10 minute mark went by "Bud" Hurley scored, Dugan and Fessenden assisting, and before another 40 seconds had elapsed, or between 10:20 and 11:00, the orange and black had poured home three more goals to give them a 5-0 lead. Never before in the history of the league had any one team scored as many goals in such a short time. The last three goals were scored by Hurley from scrimmage in 10:45, Phil Fessenden, assisted by Hurley and Dugan, in 10:55 and the last of the four by Gordie Goodband assisted by Jim Gallagher in 11:00. Play dragged in the last minute of play as Newton rested on their 5 goal lead.

In the second period both teams pressed the attack. Medford was the first to capitalize as Will Riley scored assisted by McLean in 1:01. Thirty-three seconds later Newton's Dugan scored to make it 6-1. Medford tallied a second goal when the same pair beat Ed Bender. Newton was not to be denied a five goal lead and at the two minute mark Dugan assisted by Paul Hines, clicked to send the orange and black forces ahead 7-2. Medford High came right back five minutes later with a third goal. A beautiful pass from Dave Cunniff to Will Riley gave the Mystics another for good measure. Dugan hadn't finished with Medford caging another goal past Tumenelli to keep Newton five goals to the good. Joe Beatty bad-man of the league and Al

Greaves went off for high sticks just after the final goal of the period was scored. Ellingwood, of Newton, went off for an illegal check as the other two were returning. Beatty has spent nine minutes in the penalty box to give Newton its third "bad-man" of the league in the last three years.

The third period saw many substitutions. Dugan returned to end Newton's scoring spree, beating Tumenelli. A minute later Medford scored to return to its place five goals behind Newton. Joe Beatty went off again for tripping to end the period.

Tomorrow Newton entertains Rindge at the Arena in the first game of the last half of the season. Newton unless it suffers from over-confidence as they did last year from this same team should win handily.

NEWTON SKI TEAM TOPS AT CARNIVAL

Snow Racers Win Two Cups And Nine Medals

The Newton high ski team, entering its first meet of the 1940 season last Saturday at the Walpole Winter Carnival at Elmerest, on Turner's lake won every event for high school boys. Contestants also came from Sharon, Walpole, Norwood, North Attleboro, and Wellesley. The Newton youths won two cups and nine medals. Captain Duncan Reid, a Newton high junior, won the one-mile cross country race and the dash event as well as competing as a member of the Newton relay team. Other Newton medal winners were Norman Williams, Theodore Rand, George Pettin-gill and Durham Priestly. Priestly was second in the mile race and Williams fourth. In this event seventy-five contestants started.

Other members of the Newton ski team which is coached by Daniel P. Willard of the high school faculty, are Frank Moore, Parker and Roger Reidy, William Bronsdon, Samuel Thompson and Stephen Butts.

Burglaries At Two Newton Libraries

Following a break at the Auburn-dale branch library on Tuesday night, when a pane of glass was broken to affect entrance and $4.23 stolen from the librarian's desk, a similar break was made at the West Newton branch library on Wednesday night. A pane of glass in a basement window was broken, and then a door in the library interior was smashed and taken off its hinges to afford access to the reading room. Desks were ransacked.

Delicious Banana Scallops will be served each day to all attending the GRAPHIC Cooking School.

but they will of course be quite similar because of the accounting methods. You will note that the communities are divided into two groups for purposes of comparison—one containing those which are paying more than their fair share and the other those which are paying less. It will be seen that the daily cost per patient was as high as $21.51 for Bedford and as low as $1.52 for Burlington. Between these extremes are the other 50 municipalities. Twelve towns which sent no patients were assessed a total of $7,431.

To understand the accounting system reference must be made to the Acts of the Legislature and the manner of their interpretation now in effect. G. L. Chapter III Section 85: "The County shall provide for the care, maintenance and repair of said hospitals. The County Commissioners shall annually in January appropriate the cost thereof—for the previous year to the towns liable in the same proportion in which the cost of the construction was assessed, and shall issue their warrants against the towns for the amount or percentage for which they are severally assessed to pay for the maintenance, care and repair of said hospital." G. L. Chapter III Section 88: "The charges for the support of patients shall be based on actual cost of their care and treatment, exclusive of all interest or other expenses, pertaining to the construction, equipment or permanent upkeep of the institution."

Chapter 35, Section 45: "He (director of accounts) shall require as far as possible uniformity and correctness in the method of keeping said accounts and may prescribe the classification of receipts and expenditures and a uniform system of receipts, certificates, vouchers and exhibits."

As the books are now kept we find that in 1938 Somerville paid for 22,056 patient days $2740 less than Newton paid for 10,730. Or to put it in another way—Somerville had a net cost of $47,724 for 22,056 patient days—an average of $2.16 per day, whereas Newton had a net cost of $50,464 for 10,730 patient days—an average of $4.70 per day. Newton pays more than twice the daily cost of Somerville patients. The answer of this cost variation lies in the interpretation of Section 85, quoted above. We find that in 1938 the total assessment of $284,520 apportioned as a maintenance or upkeep charge contained in part:

In the expense classification which has been used for years, and referred to later in this report, it is definitely stated that Ward Maids shall be included in Care of Patients. A violation of this is shown above—over $22,000 being charged to maintenance. All of the above and many other items seem to us directly chargeable to Care of Patients. If they had been so allocated it is obvious that a daily cost of $1.50 is ridiculously low. On the statements in your hands we have calculated what the net cost would have been to each city and town at three higher daily schedules, namely, $2, $2.50 and $3. Even at a $3 daily rate there would have been over $80,000 for maintenance to be divided among all the municipalities on basis of their assessed valuations.

A study of the three rates shows that those places now benefiting very substantially would still be paying less than the $3.60 which is the average patient day cost of the hospital. Those cities and towns which are now paying far more than their share would still be paying somewhat more than the average cost, before deducting the state subsidy. We would not quarrel with that as it seems to be the intent of the Act that maintenance be distributed on basis of assessed valuation. But we do contend very strongly that the "Care of Patients" accounting is not in accordance with correct practices. In answer to an inquiry your chairman received the following comment from the Director of Accounts:

"The classification of accounts being used in tuberculosis hospitals is the result of numerous conferences with the doctors in the various institutions and with the State Department of Health, and the schedule or classification approved was the one recommended by them as being a practical classification of the accounts. If experience has shown that a change should be made it must of course be made for all county hospitals and not for a single one, and for that reason I suggested that the revision should come from them instead of being initiated by me. I shall, of course, attempt to study your proposed plan and acquaint myself with the reasons for the change which you present."

We have given you this exposition of facts for your careful study until such time as the assessment for the year 1939 comes before us for action.

Fined $35 For Drunken Driving

Belton Westhaver of Columbia st., Wellesley, was fined $35 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Thursday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested by Motorcycle Officer Dowling at Newtonville square on December 30.

Joseph W. Keely of 1553 Beacon st., Waban, was arrested in Waban at 3 a. m. this morning by Patrolmen McKenna and Rogers on charges of drunkenness and driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arraigned in the Newton court and his case continued.

The DOUBLE TRACK SEA LEVEL ROUTE ATLANTIC COAST LINE RAILROAD

One resolution it's not too late to make

The model illustrated is the Buick Super model 51 four-door touring sedan $1105 delivered at Flint, Mich. White sidewall tires additional.*

NO matter what's happened to the rest of those first-of-the-year vows, there's still time to resolve to have yourself some fun this year with that power-packed, sure-fire pleasure producer—a slightly, sprightly, roadwise 1940 Buick.

You can put yourself behind a husky Dynaflex straight-eight that's a veritable tornado when it comes to going places—but actually silkier than watchworks in its smooth-and-easy freedom from vibration.

You can switch to gentle coil springs and never need another "lube job." You can discard the old-type gear lever for Handshift transmission that works with a finger-flick.

You can help yourself to room—the spacious expanse of the Buick Super's next-things-to-five-feet front seats. You can ride in Foamtex cushion comfort, with Safety Plate Glass all around you and everything from a built-in automatic choke to Buick's exclusive Forward Direction Signal to make driving easy and convenient.

TAMPER-PROOF GAS TANKS—your ignition key locks the gas tank door in the fender, prevents gasoline loss through pilferage. Standard equipment at no extra cost.

So why wait to get your Buick? Prices are low now—lower than on some sixes—and delivery is prompt. Your dealer has a full line to show, too, and your old car's worth more now than it will be later.

How about some action? Time's a-wasting, there's fun to be had—and there's a Buick waiting to hang your license plates on!

Grace Line Offers New Cruises To South America

Venezuela, one of the most fascinating republics in South America, now is coming into its own as a travel field. It is allotted three full days in the itinerary of the new 12-day All Expense Cruises operated by the Grace Line—a longer time than heretofore has been offered to cruise passengers.

During the three days in which "Santa" ships are in Venezuelan ports, the shore program includes the magnificent motor trip to Caracas, the capital, and sightseeing in and around the city; and also a two-day 160-mile Grand Tour of the Andes—from La Guaira to Caracas, Maracay, Valencia, and Puerto Cabello where passengers rejoin their cruise ship.

As the ship approaches the harbor, mountains in folds of green and rust rise several thousand feet to thrust their peaks through the clouds; and the buildings of La Guaira tumble down their slopes to the sea. Back of these mountains lies Caracas, the capital city, only six miles away as the crow flies, yet twenty-three miles by the new motor highway. The latter—a fine modern highway—is a remarkable feat of engineering and presents incomparable mountain vistas as it winds and twists its way to reach an elevation of 4000 feet—before it descends into the valley in which Caracas rests.

Most travelers are surprised to find such a large modern city—after coming from a region of uninhabited, treeless mountains. Yet Caracas, with its population of 203,437, is a large, urban city, in spite of the fact that it was founded by Don Diego de Lozada back in the year 1567.

Most of the buildings in the city are of Spanish colonial design, giving a distinctly foreign flavor to the capital. In the center is the Plaza Bolivar with an admirable equestrian statue of the Great Liberator. Around it are located the 17th century cathedral, the Casa Amarilla, the Archbishop's Palace, and the government buildings.

In the residential sections of the city are scores of charming villas and boulevards shaded with palms, eucalyptus and mahogany trees. In the suburbs are several very magnificent clubs—country, golf and tennis.

There are several good cinema houses in the city. Horse races are held every week-end during the season. Two bull fights provide Sunday afternoon entertainment.

Maracay is included in the 160-mile Grand tour of the Andes which takes in several small towns and leads through the agricultural district, giving glimpses of plantation life. Maracay was the favorite city of the late dictator Juan Vicente Gomez. The pride of the General was the Hotel Jardin which he had designed by a French architect in the manner of the hotels of Algiers. It is a large building with portals shading the street and entrance, balconies facing the street, and a spacious dining room opening on the central patio in which there is a large outdoor tiled swimming pool. To further dress up the building, Gomez had parks laid out around the city; and also a two-day 160-mile Grand Tour of the Andes—from La Guaira to Caracas, Maracay, Valencia, and Puerto Cabello where passengers rejoin their cruise ship.

Industrial Saar Region

Is Political 'Powder Keg'

The Saar, a rich and long-contested region between northeast France and Germany west of the Rhine, has been called a "powder keg" of Europe. Lying athwart a natural route from Germany to western Europe, it has offered an international highway for both armies and trade. The Saar's greatest strike occurred in 1923 when 75,000 miners quit for more than three months in sympathy with workers of the Ruhr district, then occupied by France.

Romans and Gauls fought early Germanic tribes in what is now the Saar area. French troops under Louis XIV and Napoleon marched that way; so did German forces in the Franco-Prussian war, and the Allies during the World war.

For the most part, however, the Saar has been German territory, occupied by Germans, except at rare intervals, for more than a thousand years before the peace of Versailles. Under the terms of that treaty, when the region was taken from Germany after the World war, it was placed under a League of Nations commission, with the provision that a plebiscite should be held 15 years later. In 1935 this vote, offering three alternatives—re-entry into the Reich union with France, or continuance of the League of Nations status—was taken. Result: Overwhelming majority in favor of return to Germany.

Politically under Germany, the Saar still has economic ties with France. This situation is a hold-over from the Versailles treaty, which provided that ownership of its coal mines should be French, regardless of what happened to the territory itself. This agreement was part of the general reparations exacted from Germany because of French coal mines destroyed during the war, and in recognition of France's need for such industrial energy—a need inadequately supplied at home.

In 1934, however, just before the plebiscite, Germany bought back the Saar mines for 900,000,000 gold francs (about $35,266,000). Additional payment was to be made in the Saar's black gold—coal—to the amount of some two million tons annually for five years. After 1940, therefore, France will have no further legal claim on the mines of this region, although she may buy its coal in the open market.

The Saar has vast reservoirs of coal, estimated at more than nine billion tons. It is one of the most highly industrialized centers of Europe, its own coal production supplemented by the iron output of neighboring Alsace-Lorraine.

Doomed Medical Student Records Fatal Disease

The story of Frederick J. Hinds, a Stanford university medical student, who kept a secret record of a rare disease he knew would kill him in two years, was disclosed recently in San Francisco on the eve of his funeral.

Doctors and students paid tribute to the courage of Hinds, who died of myelogenous leukemia, one month before his twenty-third birthday.

Nearly two years before his death, Hinds looked through a microscope in the course of routine medical studies at a slide of his own blood and gave a start of surprise, as clearly as if it were written in printed words, he read his doom there.

Quietly he went about verifying his diagnosis. He was one of the few victims of the disease, in which white corpuscles disappear from the blood and tissues become replaced with bone marrow, leading to a painful death.

"He took it splendidly," said Dr. Loren R. Chandler, dean of the medical school. "He felt that he had a job to do, and did it."

Up until the last painful weeks, when he could no longer work with his hands and look into the microscope, he kept a record of his own case. It was said that record may become invaluable help some day in the search for a cure for myelogenous leukemia.

Advice to Drivers

When driving at night your greatest danger is running off the road in trying to avoid cars with glaring headlights. As a matter of fact you run very little risk of running into the cars which blind you because invariably you pull as far away as possible. But you do run the risk of going on soft shoulders or getting the right wheels into a ditch. As a safeguard be sure to observe the highway shoulder before you are faced with the problem of avoiding a pair of glaring headlights. Know in advance whether or not you can swing way over in safety. If the road is narrow and the shoulders bad, better slow down or even stop.

Typhoid Infection

Typhoid fever is still a constant menace in the United States because the germs which cause it may live as long as two years without food. The germs are spread mainly by water contamination, according to Dr. Paul J. Beard of Stanford university, California. Tests have shown they are extremely vigorous in resisting extreme heat, cold and water conditions. Sunlight kills the typhoid germs quickly, but only on the surface of the ground. Rainy weather is particularly favorable for their survival.

Strategic South Tyrol Links Italy to Europe

The Italian South Tyrol is set high in the Alps of north-central Italy along the southwest border of former Austria. It is a highly strategic region which was a part of the old Austro-Hungarian empire until the treaty of St. Germain shifted it to Italian control after the World war.

It is famed for its spectacular scenic beauty. Through it runs the historic and economically vital route that leads across the Brenner pass into central Europe, linking the Italian peninsula with the heart of the continent.

It was to give Italy a protected position on this strategic pass that the peace treaty in 1919 moved the Italian frontier more than 100 miles northward. The shift included both the Italian-inhabited district of Trento, whose former inclusion in Austria had long been contested by Italy, and the Germanic region of the South Tyrol, now known as Bolzano. In the Bolzano district (which includes over half the entire transferred area of 5,371 square miles) are concentrated more than 200,000 Germans, now reportedly facing the choice of declaring allegiance to the Reich or remaining as Italian citizens in the Italian province.

During the World war, when this region was under Austrian rule, the inhabitants of South Tyrol fought against the Italians in some of the bloodiest battles of the conflict. When the Italians advanced into Austrian territory, both sides had to struggle against nature itself, making their precarious way along precipitous slopes and over icy mountain paths. Whole towns were wiped out when the 1917-18 battles were drawn along the old Italian frontier.

Since acquiring the Tyrolean area, the Italian government has made vigorous efforts to Italianize its people. Italian was made the official language for all public services. It was required on public signs, catalogues, timetables, menus, maps, postcards—even tombstones. Place names were changed from German to Italian. The word "Tyrol" was strictly forbidden, "Bolzano" taking its place.

'Air-Minded' Spiders Soar Long Distances

Spiders are wingless, but by taking advantage of favorable air currents they are able to travel through the air for long distances, and many have some control at least over their flights. In a long series of flights above Louisiana in airplanes equipped with insect traps as a part of a research program looking to control of cotton insects and mosquitoes, P. A. Glick, federal entomologist, found that soaring spiders were more than six times as common as winged moths and butterflies. The insect group including flies, mosquitoes and gnats outnumbered the spiders about seven to one, and there were about three times as many beetles and weevils as spiders.

Immature spiders—called spiderlings—are more air minded than their elders. To launch its flight a spiderling climbs a tall weed, shrub or tree and pays out a long thread of web material. When the breeze pulls on this the spiderling lets go and is drawn upward. Some spiders are able to draw in the filament and so put an end to the flight.

This trapping of insects in the upper air as an aid to the study of methods for controlling crop pests was pioneer research in entomology. It helped clear up puzzles of insect dispersal, and suggested special problems for air study elsewhere. A few strong flying insects prefer to make headway against the prevailing winds, but most insects travel with the winds which are ordinarily from the south in spring and from the north in fall, aiding northward spring migrations and southward flights in fall. Many weak flyers appear merely to drift with the wind.

American House Colors

Durable—but dull—grays, browns and buffs that once colored the exteriors of most American homes are now being discarded for the brighter, more youthful colors for walls, roofs and trim that have been developed in the last 10 years. These bright exterior colors are the latest house fashion. Roofs covered with rose-red or blue-green asphalt shingles are today not uncommon, while walls are being painted in white, blues, reds and many unusual shades, such as coral, beige, chocolate and hunter green. One very popular model on display in the exhibit has lemon yellow clapboard walls, a blue asphalt shingle roof and light yellow trim.

Does Wild or Tame?

A doe deer raised by the A. H. Kellogg family on their ranch near Yakima, Wash., is so tame it enters the Kellogg house. The deer, named Babe, was found three years ago by Kellogg's children when it was a fawn. It apparently had been abandoned by its mother and was near starvation. The children took it home and nursed it with cow milk until it became strong again. When it became older the Kelloggs turned it loose in the hills. But although it ranges miles into the timber, the deer usually appears at the ranch house in the evening at milking time seeking some fresh milk.

Stratosphere Balloons Reach 14-Mile Height

Three recent flights into the stratosphere over Beltsville, Md., by means of groups of rubber sounding balloons reached heights of 14 to 16½ miles above the earth. The balloons, sent up as a joint project by the National Geographic society and the national bureau of standards, carried on each flight as an "observer" an ingenious robot consisting of electric batteries, a tiny motor, photo-electric cells, moving screens, and radio tubes.

The object of the flights was to gather additional information about the atmosphere's ozone layer—an important concentration of the gas which screens away from the earth's surface certain rays of sunlight injurious to vegetable and animal life. The metal and glass robot made "readings" of the varying concentrations of ozone at different altitudes and automatically radioed them to a receiving station on the ground. The results are being compared with other observations for a later report by the national bureau of standards.

On each of the three flights the lifting power was furnished by six rubber, hydrogen-filled balloons attached in tandem. Four and a half feet in diameter when they were released, these balloons expanded to diameters of 14 feet or more in the rare upper air near the top of the ascents.

The string of balloons continued to rise until one of them burst as a result of expansion. The remaining balloons lowered the observing apparatus slowly to the ground and in every case it was recovered.

In the hope of reaching greater altitudes for the co-operative study of ozone concentrations, the National Geographic society is now having larger rubber balloons fabricated. In the meantime improved instruments for detecting ozone and for radioing information back to earth are under construction in the laboratories of the national bureau of standards.

'Ghost' Bombing Planes Forecast for War Use

Dr. Lee de Forest, noted pioneer wireless inventor, has forecast the introduction into war practice of "ghost" bombing planes guided by radio signals that could send them, pilotless, to wreak destruction on military objectives.

He said radio engineers in the United States and in several European countries are building and testing "ghost" planes for such a new mode of warfare. In the United States, he said, engineers had virtually perfected them.

"These 'flying torpedoes,'" Dr. Forest said, "can be guided by a 'mother plane.' After they have dropped their bombs, they can be headed around and sent back home—if they haven't been shot down."

The loss would be less, he said, because the robot ships are to be inexpensive.

Dr. Forest also told of another device, the television facsimile. This enables a man in an observation plane to draw maps of strategic enemy positions and targets and transmit them back to headquarters by television.

Tip for Motorist

One of the most disturbing things in night driving is difficulty removing a headlight bulb when you discover that you are a one-eye driver. Often the bulbs stick in their sockets to an extent where there is risk of the glass breaking in the struggle for removal. One trick is to move the bulb up and down before trying to remove it. This will sometimes break the corrosion between bulb and socket. A new device on the market, known as a "lamp glove," provides a safe and easy way to remove bulbs, but whether or not you have one of these it is always easier to remove bulbs by wiping the sockets with a little colloidal graphite when installing a new bulb. This will prevent corrosion and stickage.

South American Outlaws

That a staggering blow has been dealt the reorganization of the once powerful Mafia, a South American gang of hoodlums, by recent arrests in Argentina is the belief of the police. Following the seizure of Arturo Placeres and Agati Galiffi at Rosario the notorious Jose Manuel Pazz, known as El Capitan, and Antonio Di Santo, together with their immediate accomplices, were captured, breaking up a dangerous ring of counterfeiters. Confessions and other evidence obtained convinced the police that the ring was reorganizing the Mafia, which formerly ruled the underworld throughout South America and preyed upon civilized society.

Cemetery Below Cemetery

Buenos Aires has opened its cemetery below a cemetery. The subterranean burial ground is built in circular crypts and will accommodate 18,000 coffins. Passages from the galleries connecting the various departments meet in the center at a garden, which is open to the sky. The surface above ground is laid out in beautiful gardens. In addition to the sunlight admitted to the garden, the underground cemetery is electrically lighted and ventilated. Authorities report they have a waiting list of 7,000 persons wishing accommodations.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, January 21.

The Golden Text is: "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son" (I John 5:11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; . . . for in him we live, and move, and have our being" . . . (Acts 17:24, 25, 28).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is divine Life, and Life is no more confined to the forms which reflect it than substance is in its shadow. . . . Life is Mind, the creator or reflected in His creations" (p. 331).

Medical School FOUR YEARS

The four years required Medical School study is divided approximately as follows:

1st Year—The future Doctor of Medicine must master the fundamental science of the human body, such as Embryology (development of human being); Physiology (study of all organs in health); Anatomy (study of body structure in health); Histology (microscopic study).

2nd Year—Intensified form of above studies. Beginnings of study of Pathology (effect of diseases on various organs); Diagnosis (comparison of diseased organ to healthy).

3rd Year—Under trained instructors and practicing physicians, the embryonic Doctor begins to meet patients, watching actual clinical practice, diagnosis and treatment, working from nine to twelve hours a day, six days a week for thirty-six weeks.

4th Year—Continuation of third year, constant training in rational treatment based on careful examination and diagnosis. The student is required to be responsible for twenty or more prenatal cases, and attend delivery under supervision of a specialist.

After completion of these four years, he goes through stringent examinations before being allowed to graduate. Medical Schools, Medical Associations and the laws of your State all are constantly working together to prepare your Doctor to be more competent and thorough.

Oldsmobile Adds Beach Wagon as 1940 Feature

Announcement of a handsomely styled station wagon as an addition to the Oldsmobile offerings for 1940 was made yesterday by D. E. Ralston, general sales manager for Oldsmobile. The new model has been designed to meet the growing demands of Oldsmobile dealers for a luxury-type station wagon built to Oldsmobile standards.

Introduced on the popular and low-priced Oldsmobile Series Sixty chassis, with an overall length of more than 201 inches, the new station wagon offers accommodations for eight passengers, including the driver, and large space for baggage is also provided. The body frame construction of specially selected white ash, with hardwood body panels in walnut finish, is unusually sturdy and attractive, and combines with Oldsmobile's passenger car front-end styling for a harmonious result. The four-door body is fitted with window regulators and each door is a unit with a pusher door hardware, modern interior trim and harmonizing upholstery characterize the quality treatment throughout the new model. Hi-Tech Safety plate glass in the windshields, safety plate glass in all other windows, Sealed-Beam safety headlights and super-hydraulic brakes head a long list of regular passenger car safety features that may be included. Quadri-Coil springing, four-wheel stabilization with Knee-Action front wheels—large low-pressure tires contribute to greater riding comfort.

Oldsmobile's sensational Hydra-Matic Drive will be available on the new station wagon at extra cost. The all-silent Synchro-Mesh transmission with Handi-Shift gear control, will be standard equipment. The new station wagon is powered by the proven, six-cylinder, 95 horsepower Econo-Master engine, with 100 percent full pressure lubrication system.

The spare wheel and tire with metal cover, are mounted on the tail gate. The rear seats are easily removed when additional luggage room is required. The front seat is adjustable.

While Deauville Tan is to be the standard color, the new station wagon will be available in several color options at no extra cost, including: Egyptian Ivory, Cherbourg Blue, Catalina Gray and Shirvan Green.

Water Power Clock

One of the world's strangest clocks stands at Rome's Villa Borghese municipal park in Italy. It is operated by means of water power. The water drops from a fountain and is caught into a series of descending cups providing the motive power for the mechanics. The clock, according to the Italian information center at Rockefeller center, has been operating for over a hundred years and has been perfect.

Luxembourg Is Called 'Gibraltar of the North'

Luxembourg, tiny duchy between Belgium, France and Germany, is ruled over by the Grand Duchess Charlotte. She succeeded her sister Marie Adelaide, who abdicated in 1919 and died five years later. The then popularity of the present reigning duchess gave her 66,811 votes as against 16,885 for a republican form of government.

Long known as the Gibraltar of the North, the capital city occupied a strongly fortified elevation, but as a buffer state the duchy was for many centuries a vast battlefield, and was at one time or another during the past thousand years, under the control of nearly every one of the western European nations. The fortifications of the capital were finally razed in 1867 in accordance with a treaty between France and Prussia, the latter having occupied the garrison.

Luxembourg, with only 999 square miles, is much smaller than the state of Rhode Island and has a population of nearly 300,000 contented and fairly prosperous people. In the midst of world-wide depression, every one in Luxembourg was employed, either in agriculture, mining, iron or related industries.

Siegefried and his descendants ruled the land from the Tenth to the Fifteenth century, when feudal castles were built on many of the hills. From the villages dotting the many valleys of the realm, the ruins of some of these castles can be seen today haunting the eminences.

Luxembourg is rich in folklore and fairy tales. Here one may find a Christian altar superimposed on a pagan altar to Hercules, Apollo, Juno and Minerva. The romantic people are deeply religious and maintain their ancient customs, pilgrimages to miracle-working shrines, and dancing religious processions. Their simple enjoyment of the sun is almost pantheistic in a land of unsurpassed natural beauty.

About one-third of the population is engaged in farming 450,000 acres of oats, potatoes, wheat, flax, hemp and rape seed. The land is made increasingly productive by intelligent, scientific farming. Luxembourg's agricultural schools are attended by students from other countries. The vineyards in a good season will produce 1,250,000 gallons of wine. Stock raising is important and profitable.

Among the industries, iron is most important; 35 blast furnaces employ nearly 3,000 workers, with 2,000 more working in the seven steel mills.

Ricksha, Oriental Gadget, Invented by American

The marines have staked out one more claim to fame by establishing the fact that the ricksha that furnishes a living for thousands of coolies in China, Japan and Singapore was the invention of a member of the corps.

It came about in this fashion, the corp official bulletin states:

Private Jonathan Goble, of the marine detachment on the U. S. S. Susquehanna, one of the ships in Commodore Perry's fleet which visited Japan in 1854, conceived the idea.

Goble had been a farmer in New York before he entered the marine corps in 1851 at the age of 24. He remained in the service four years.

Just when Goble conceived his idea of the ginriksha is not known, but after leaving the marine corps, and returning to Japan as a missionary, he suggested to the Japanese the idea of making these enlarged go-carts a means of conveyance.

The first ricksha, constructed as a result of his suggestion, made its appearance in Japan in 1867, and subsequently its use spread to nearly all the countries of the Far East.

Real Paternal Pride

Joseph C. Fayder of Jersey City swallowed a toothbrush five inches long recently when suddenly overcome by paternal pride. Mr. Fayder was brushing his teeth at the kitchen sink at 2:30 p. m. when his son John, 15 months old, distinctly enunciated "Daddy." Mr. Fayder gulped involuntarily in his astonishment and admiration, forgetting the toothbrush until he felt it sliding down his throat. He was taken to a hospital and a doctor said that an X-ray examination showed that the toothbrush was not in a dangerous position and probably no steps would be taken for its removal immediately. John has not had a word to say since the accident.

New Zealand's Fungus

War has brought disaster to New Zealand's most unusual industry, it is said at Wellington. The Chinese are no longer buying large quantities of New Zealand's dried fungus for their vegetable soup. About seven years ago a Chinese, Chew Chong, who settled at New Plymouth, on the west coast of New Zealand, found that the special kind of fungus on stumps of trees was a marketable commodity in the home land. He paid the settlers a cent a pound for dried fungus and shipped it to China. Later the price rose to seven and even eight cents a pound, and the industry prospered. Today the sale of fungus for China is at a low ebb.

Claim Cost of New Street Too High

Property owners on Kingswood rd., Auburndale, sent a petition to Mayor Goddard protesting against an assessment of $4.50 per running foot for the improving of that street. The petition reads:

"The undersigned property owners and taxpayers residing on Kingswood rd., Auburndale, Newton, Massachusetts, vigorously protest the street betterment charges appearing on the 1939 tax bills.

"We believe these charges greatly in excess of what the cost should be to repair this road. We demand that a public hearing be given on this matter and that you show cause why these unreasonable charges should be made."

Mayor Goddard informed the petitioners that although they consider $4.50 per linear foot too high a cost, the work actually cost $4.55 per linear foot. The maximum cost of the city charges is $4.50, although frequently the actual cost is more.

Newton H. S.

Mr. Carl Birmingham of Newton High was named to the board of faculty advisers of the Eastern Massachusetts Scholastic Press Association at its second annual conference at Northeastern University last Saturday. Approximately 400 interscholastic editors attended the meeting in Northeastern's new West Building.

As a member of the board of faculty advisers, Mr. Birmingham will assist with arrangements for the third annual conference next winter.

The senior class enjoyed a Wednesday morning assembly this week when Dr. Harold Major spoke on "Americanism." His address called attention to the many privileges enjoyed by the citizens of this country and ways to safeguard our liberties.

For the purpose of gathering data for the formation of an honor society at Winthrop High School, three students of that school, accompanied by their faculty adviser, conferred with officers of the Newton Chapter of the National Honor Society at Newton High on January 8.

The guests were entertained by President Philip Scanlon, Secretary Cynthia Carlisle and Miss Edith Rideout, faculty adviser to the Newton Chapter.

The visitors, Kathleen Cronin, Harold Bargar, Leon Kind, and Miss Jessie Porter, their faculty adviser, were informed of the type of induction ceremony used at Newton High and told that the students standing highest in leadership, service, character and scholarship in the junior and senior classes are inducted each April at exercises in the auditorium.

A question period followed which helped many pupils solve some of their problems.

The speakers at the January 4 meeting of the Aviation Club were Lieutenant Burton Woodward of the Aviation Section, Massachusetts National Guard who spoke on Army air training, and Ben Follette, Traffic Manager of Wiggins Airways, and feature writer on aviation for the Boston Traveler. Mr. Follette spoke on the new Federal Air Training Program.

The Chemistry Club was called to order by the president, John Fairfield. Following the business meeting, groups were given experiments for which they were to rig up the apparatus. Safety Experts Urge Pedestrian 'Education'

Educating the pedestrian to be more careful on the streets and highways—statistically demonstrated to be necessary to the safety picture—may prove to be a boomerang. Safety experts, who have the jump on run-of-mine dabblers in highway security, believe that, unless the present campaign is handled cleverly, the average motorist is going to lapse into further disrespect for the rights of those who travel on foot.

A survey in Washington showed that 7 out of 10 traffic fatalities were pedestrians. The natural inference is that people walking are especially careless and need a lot of schooling in safety. It is too easy to overlook the fact that pedestrians are especially vulnerable, being minus bumpers, safety glass, steel bodies and turret tops.

According to the American Automobile association, pedestrians who have never held drivers' permits are nine times as likely to be killed as walkers who are licensed motorists.

It is reported that last year 8,000 pedestrians lost their lives through their own careless actions. On the basis of these findings a campaign has been launched to prove that the man afoot isn't always an innocent victim.

But some of the most cautious thinkers on the traffic problem are not too sure that we are giving the pedestrian a break by concentrating too much on his "education." Even the educational methods are under suspicion. Prize example is the rule about walking toward traffic when on the road. Some of the most serious accidents have occurred when pedestrians were following the rule. They have been clipped by cars driven by people who turned way over to the left side of the road to overtake other cars.

'Saluting the Equator' Is Old Sea Tradition

The ceremony of "crossing the line" or "saluting the Equator" antedates the American navy and all the rest of the world's navies.

It is so old that, according to the authorities, nobody really knows where it came from. The Vikings held similar ceremonies; so did the Greeks and Phoenicians. For these ancient, of course, the rites had nothing to do with the equator, which they would not have recognized, had they seen it. But the idea of propitiating the sea god seems to have been common to all of the old seafaring peoples, who had their own times and places for the observance.

The custom of making the ceremony an occasion for horseplay and its identification with the equator evidently came much later. Even the horseplay is a very ancient tradition of the sea, observed from time immemorial by the navies and merchant shipping of all the nations, at least of Europe.

First Davy Jones comes aboard as emissary of His Majesty, Neptune Rex; then a couple of days later as the vessel crosses the line King Neptune himself arrives, complete with trident, oakum whisks and an impressive court to pass judgment on the "pollywogs." These neophytes are those who never before have crossed the line. Their judgment and punishment for the offense is a boisterous affair in which all "shellbacks," those who have crossed before, co-operate with enthusiasm. Lord, soap, creosote, whitewash, electric shocks and a dousing in the swimming tank all are essential ingredients of the ceremony.

Needless to say, the more strenuous observances are preserved for the younger and harder pollywogs, older and distinguished passengers being let off with a verbal roasting.

Manufacture of Pills

At one time pills were impaled one by one on a needle and dipped into gelatin solution, then the pinhole was carefully sealed. Today, by an interesting arrangement of suction bars, hundreds of pills are hemispherically coated at one dip and then transferred to a second similar bar, where the coating is completed. The mixing equipment for a pill batch is like the dough mixer of the bakery. The revolving kettles for sugar or chocolate coating came from the candy maker, but the machines that transform the doughy mass first into "pipes" of carefully controlled diameter and finally reduce them into slugs that, rolled between eccentrically moving belts, produce the pills, are inventions of the pharmaceutical industry. Automatic machines evolved for the purpose stamp out compressed tablets at extremely high speeds, and the utility of these machines is such that they have been introduced into many other industries. A specific example is the stamping of tablets of molding powders for use in the plastics industry.

Water Power Clock

One of the world's strangest clocks stands at Rome's Villa Borghese municipal park in Italy. It is operated by means of water power. The water drops from a fountain and is caught into a series of descending cups providing the motive power for the mechanics. The clock, according to the Italian information center at Rockefeller center, has been operating for over a hundred years and has kept perfect time.

Goddard Opposes WPA Employees On Civil Service

must come under Civil Service, and he ordered the pay of those holding such positions stopped. Subsequently, following protests from many city and town officials, Lupien reversed the "stop-pay" order.

Mayor Goddard contends that inasmuch as WPA is a temporary emergency activity necessitated by the unemployment condition and resultant relief need, that positions occasioned by it should not be given a permanent status by being placed under civil service. This attitude of the Mayor is supported by many citizens. The jobs in administrative work on WPA in cities and towns formerly were financed by the WPA, but several years ago WPA officials at Washington ruled that persons so engaged must be paid by local communities. Last year the question of placing these WPA workers under civil service was raised, and Attorney General Clegg ruled that such a move was unnecessary. Attempts have been made by WPA workers throughout the country to be placed under civil service, and thus assure the permanency of such jobs, but these attempts have been defeated. Now the new State Civil Service Commissioner Lupien is attempting to bring about such a condition in Massachusetts.

Drivers of Cars In Fatal Accidents Found Not Guilty

Two drivers of automobiles which recently hit and fatally injured pedestrians in this city, were found not guilty of driving to endanger by judges in the Newton court last Thursday and Saturday.

On Thursday Judge Crehan found Kenneth Holbrook of Shrewsbury not guilty. Holbrook was the driver of the car which fatally injured James Lydon of Jamaica Plain on the night of November 24. Lydon, 24 years old, was crossing Commonwealth ave. near Manet rd. when he was struck. On December 16 an inquest on Lydon's death was held by Judge Delaney, and he ruled that a complaint should be issued against Holbrook. Holbrook testified that he was driving at a speed of 30 miles an hour and did not see Lydon until he was within 30 feet of the victim. Judge Crehan commented that it was a close case and he would give Holbrook the benefit of the doubt.

In the Newton court last Saturday Judge Mayberry found Dr. David Green of Brackett rd., Newton, not guilty of driving to endanger. Green was the driver of the car which on the night of November 25 hit Harry Harwood, 69, of 274 Linwood ave., Newtonville, as Mr. Harwood was crossing Crafts st. near Linwood ave. The victim received a skull fracture and internal injuries and died later at Newton Hospital. An inquest on this death was also held before Judge Delaney, who ordered a complaint issued against Dr. Green. Green stated that he did not see Mr. Harwood, and stopped the car when he felt a bump against it. In both cases the victims were hit by front fenders of the cars.

The annual school play will be held this year on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 18, and Friday evening, Jan. 19. The play, which will be presented this year, is the popular comedy entitled "Clever Time," written by Laurence G. Worcester. Mr. Charles B. Regan is directing the annual school play this year. The following members of the Junior III class are taking part: Hugh Brinkley, Shirley Cooper, William Sharpe, Barbara Pacher, William Hosley, Priscilla Colligan, Lee Barthold, Morton Bromfield, Gwendolyn Guile, Martha Aisner, Lois Southgate, Helen Aisner is serving as prompter and Frances Sudhalter is the under-study.

The play, a comedy in three acts, is different from most of the plays which the Warrenites have presented in past years. The characters are all grown-up people. The play is a comedy rich in old-time wholesomeness. The plot concerns the complications arising when the villain attempts to gain possession of a clover field.

The following members of the faculty are assisting Mr. Regan on various committees: Costumes, Miss Peppin; tickets and programs, Mr. Johnson; ushers, Miss Meurling and Miss Rice; candy, Mrs. Mooney, Mrs. Holman; dancing and orchestra, Miss Lyson and Mr. Converse; checking, Mr. Hardy, Mr. Blue, Mr. Onthank; ticket distribution, Mr. Surabian, assisted by all Home Room teachers; ticket selling, Mr. Surabian and Miss Cleveland; scenery, properties, lighting, Mr. Acker, Mr. Penny, Mr. Tower; posters, Miss Miles.

There will be dancing at the close of the Friday evening performance until 11:30.

Ten Million Observations

A huge aviation-weather study, in which more than 10,000,000 separate observations at 239 major airports were used, is to be published in Washington shortly by the United States government. It will help airport planners to plan runway extensions and locate instrument landing systems. The work was done as a WPA project in New Orleans, more than 100 persons being employed. They extracted from the records of 239 airports data on visibility, wind direction and velocity, and other flying weather factors and correlated it.

Journey's End

When the steamship Edina, reputed to be the oldest passenger ship in the world, was making its final trip from Melbourne, Australia, Septimus Dandy, who for 20 years had been its quartermaster, stepped to the bridge to bid the captain farewell, collapsed and died in a few minutes.

BOSTON CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY

Fined for Using a Bath Tub

Written into the statute books of a certain New England State back in the early days, is a code that forbade the use of a bath tub in any household, the violation of which was punishable by a sizable fine.

The present age looks back upon such a law as being utterly ridiculous. However, not so very long ago, the mere mention of "sending your clothes to the laundry" meant nothing more to the average housewife than a makeshift, and many times ruinous way of doing the family washing.

In recent years, science has been fast at work in the laundry industry and as a result, it takes its place today with many others in being a much-needed requisite in our daily mode of livelihood.

This remarkable march of progress of the modern laundry can be appreciated to the fullest extent by a casual visit to our plant which is numbered in the front ranks of New England's finest.

... WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES ...

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Exhibits' Director At World's Fair For Guest Night

Dr. Gerald Wendt will speak and give an entertainment for Guest Night of the Waban Woman's Club, at the Neighborhood Club at 8:30 o'clock, on Monday, January 22nd. Dr. Wendt planned and designed scientific exhibits at the New York World's Fair. He will lecture on "The Science Revue of 1940." This evening's entertainment is a most notable one, of interest to both men and women. This is the one Club meeting when husbands of clubwomen are guests. Also on this gala occasion the members of the Junior Woman's Club and escorts are invited.

Mrs. Ernest A. Hale, who has just returned from a holiday in Florida, will preside. Mrs. Stanley W. Stedfast will be Social chairman, and refreshments will be served.

"Newtowne Country Sociable"

A real old-fashioned "Sociable" will be presented Friday evening, January 26, at 8 o'clock, by the Drama committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club. Rural costumes will add to the "Town Hall" atmosphere of the Social Hall. A varied and amusing program will be alternated during the evening with square and modern dancing, and, as a special feature, there will be a parade of "husband-trimmed" hats, with prizes for the smartest creations.

Following the program, an old-time box luncheon will be served. Members of the committee who have the affair in charge are Mrs. Edwin P. McGill, chairman; Mrs. John R. Clark, Mrs. Marshall David, Miss Ruth Feline, Mrs. Robert A. Gleason, Mrs. Walter F. Stevenson, and Mrs. Harold W. McKusick.

An orchestra, with a leader who has the ability to "call off" for the square dances, will be on hand. Tickets will be on sale at 75 cents each.

Conference of Twelfth District At Newton Centre

There is to be a Twelfth District Conference of the divisions of Conservation and American Home, for which the Newton Centre Woman's Club will be hostess, at their Club House, on Friday, January 26th. The morning session will begin at 10:30 o'clock, with greetings from Federation officers, and from Mrs. Howard O. Winslow, president of the Hostess Club. These officers include Mrs. Arthur G. Fletcher, State chairman of the division of American Home; Mrs. Schuyler W. Van Ness, adviser of this division; Mrs. Ralph G. Swain, State chairman of Conservation; Mrs. Edward T. Broadhurst, adviser of this division; and Mrs. William F. Leach, Twelfth District director.

At 10:45 o'clock, "Stories of Historic Trees" will be told by Mrs. Swain, chairman. At 11:05, "Yankee Cook Book Adventures" will be recounted by Imogene Wolcott. At 11:50, "What Conservation Means to You and Your Children" will be explained by Mr. Egbert Hans, Landscape Architect, Department of Conservation, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Luncheon will follow, at 12:30 o'clock.

The afternoon session will begin at 1:45 o'clock, with a musical program. At 2 o'clock, Mr. Sterling H. Pool, president of the New England Gourd Society, will speak on "Gourds." At 3 o'clock, Eleanor Coray Forman will discuss "Bonnets."

An entertaining feature of the day will be an Exhibition in the Reception Room of Old Lace, Fans and Shawls.

Luncheon reservations, at 65 cents, should be made on or before January 24th, by sending remittance, with stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Mrs. Sidney R. Porter, 18 Tarleton rd.

Social Welfare Conference

Clubwomen who plan to attend the State Conference on Social Welfare February 2nd should order their Luncheon tickets before January 28th, from Mrs. Percy C. Campbell, 330 School st., Watertown. Tickets are $1.25, and the Registration fee is 50 cents, both being $1.75.

The division of Social Welfare of the State Federation has arranged an interesting program for this meeting which will be held at 10 a. m., Friday, February 2, at the Parker House, Boston, with Mrs. Francis R. Sweeney, chairman, in charge. Governor Leverett B. Saltonstall will extend the greetings of the Commonwealth, and Mayor Maurice Tobin those of the City of Boston.

"Parent Education" will be discussed by Mrs. T. Grafton Abbott, Consultant in Parent Education of the Massachusetts Division of Child Welfare.

Mr. A. R. Wellington, New England Representative of the National Recreation Association, will speak on "Recreation and Citizenship"; and Mrs. Elizabeth H. Cox, State Director, Consumer's Institute of Massachusetts, on "Consumers on Welfare."

The last speaker of the morning session, Mr. Alfred A. Haffeo, Director of the Department of Safety, Natick School Department, will tell of "Bicycle Safety," this to be followed by motion pictures on "Safety." This subject should appeal to every mother or whose son goes pedalling along the highways and byways.

The Luncheon speaker will be Dr. James Lee Ellenwood, Executive Secretary of the New York State Y. M.

Having received most of her education in England, Miss Battilava is widely-known there as the first woman to be appointed to an official position in India, this being Personal Assistant to the Maharajah of Baroda, in full charge of all matters relating to women's education. She has also held the position of legal adviser to a film company in London. Miss Battilava, a young and very attractive woman, is quite a sportswoman, excelling in squash and tennis as well as in polo, having appeared in tournaments in England.

The Mother's Club of the Rebecca Pomroy House entertained at the Newton Community Club meeting on Thursday, January 11th. In the two plays given, "The Three Wishes," and "Red Queen, White Queen," the following women were in the casts: Mrs. Viola White, Mrs. Edward Norton, Mrs. Margaret Marchant, Mrs. Frank Womboldt, Mrs. Naomi Mather, Mrs. Raymond Cox, Mrs. Gilbert, and Mrs. Frank Moran. essity for Newtonians to support the Boston Community Fund Campaign. Mrs. John MacNeil reported that the Juniors now have committee chairmen and a definite program of Executive Board meetings as well as of regular meetings. Mrs. Gustaf A. Peterson, Art chairman, announced that there would be an Exhibition of Shawls at the meeting on January 25th.

Miss Helen Sandstrom outlined the activities of the Stearns School Centre, and told of how glad the different groups would be to get into their new headquarters after completion of the renovations.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. William W. Burnett and her committee served refreshments, the pourers being Mrs. Granville N. Bond, Mrs. J. Herbert Young, Mrs. R. J. Henderson, and Miss Jane Charlton. The tea table was decorated by Miss Elva Dupee, and Miss Margaret MacLean.

There was an Exhibition of Trays, Waste-baskets, and Pictures, the work of the Hobby Class of the Pomroy House, and the Art committee also had a table of art treasures.

About two hundred and fifty members of the Newton Community Club and their friends attended the Annual Bridge Party and Fashion Show held at the home of Mrs. Henry I. Harriman, last Monday afternoon.

Following the coffee and pastries which were served on arrival of the group, attractive spectator-sports dresses and afternoon and evening gowns from the Sally Wheeler Shop were modeled by the following women:

Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Mrs. Frank G. Dennison, Miss Gertrude Dennison, Mrs. Herbert B. Dwight, Mrs. Joseph W. Gerrity, Mrs. Frank M. Jay, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. B. Ralph C. Emery, Mrs. Fred Hawkins, Mrs. Raymond B. Ladoo, Miss Barbara Ladoo, Mrs. Sterling N. Loveland, Mrs. Richard Moore, Mrs. John L. MacNeil, Mrs. Marvin B. Perry, Mrs. Joseph N. Palmer, Mrs. William J. West Newton Women's Educational Club

On Friday, January 26th, at 2 p. m., the West Newton Women's Educational Club will meet in the Second Church, West Newton. "Pretty, Practical, and Patriotic" is the attractive title of a talk to be given by Elsie Chamberlin. Mrs. Chamberlin, dean of Chamberlin School, is said to "know all the answers" to charm. She encourages a question period at the end of her lecture.

The Travel Class of the Educational Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wilson C. Dorr, 342 Otis st., Monday, January 22, at 2 o'clock. "The Golden Age of Literature" will be presented by Mrs. Everett L. Uphan. The leader and subject for study will be chosen for the coming year.

The Sewing Group of the Educational Club will meet at the Newton Hospital, on January 23rd, at 10 a. m.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club was hostess to the Twelfth District Club Institute on Friday afternoon, January 12th, in the Second Church of West Newton, for a most interesting and educational afternoon. Mrs. Patrick J. Dinean, Club president, opened the meeting, and then turned the program over to Mrs. Elliot R. Scudder, State Federation Institute chairman. Following the more serious program of addresses by various State officers and prominent clubwomen, a social hour was held and announced.

In full preceding the event, a lighter note of entertainment was given in the presentation by Mrs. Albion L. White and Mrs. Earl P. Clere, former Institute department members, of a very amusing skit entitled "Varying Viewpoints," which purported to disclose how some club members regard club life.

Tea and coffee were served with sandwiches by the Hospitality committee in the Ladies' Parlor and Assembly Hall. Mrs. C. Warren Howe, Mrs. Ernest F. Robinson, Mrs. Vernon E. Blagbrough, and Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie were the pourers. Mrs. Karl Bogner and Mrs. Arvid Swenson were the hostesses.

Auburndale Woman's Club

On Friday morning, January 26th, there will be another of the monthly Conferences which the Auburndale Woman's Club is holding, when several of the standing committees join in furnishing the program.

At 11 o'clock, Mrs. Charles D. Anley, chairman of the Public Health committee, will present Mrs. John MacNeil, chairman of the same committee in the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs.

During the past year considerable has been done by this group to determine what the housing conditions are throughout the city, and in some cases what can be done to remedy them. Mrs. MacNeil will set forth this work to the Club members, as it is one of vital interest to all taxpayers.

At noon, coffee will be served for those who remain for the afternoon's program.

At 1 o'clock, the chairman of Literature, Mrs. Paul H. Tardivel, will present Miss A. Dickenson, from the Newton Library, who will tell of the "New Books" which she considers worth reading.

Thugs Rob Woman At Chestnut Hill

Miss Anne Casey, a domestic employed at 124 Chestnut Hill rd., Chestnut Hill, was robbed of her handbag while walking on that lonely road on Sunday night. As she was opposite Gov. Saltonstall's home a car came along and one of the two youths riding in it alighted and asked the girl to take a ride. Upon her refusal, the thug snatched her handbag and returned to the car, which speeded off. Miss Casey obtained the registration numbers on the car, and they were those assigned to a Cadillac sedan owned by Dr. Frank Lahey of the Lahey clinic, whose car was stolen in Boston on Saturday. The bandits who robbed Miss Casey are supposed to be the same who on Sunday night snatched handbags from four other women in Brookline and Brighton. Two of the victims were struck by the coward who robbed them.

Wreck Newton Car In Connecticut

Edward DeLorenzo of 21 Hovey st., Newton, asked the Newton police on Sunday to get a complaint for larceny against Welton Aker, 24, of South Park st., Watertown. Last Saturday morning Aker borrowed DeLorenzo's automobile to look at an apartment in Brighton, and promised to return the car that afternoon. Sunday morning early, Newton police were notified by Stafford Springs, Connecticut, police that the car had been found overturned and abandoned in that town. In the car was found a kit of mechanic's tools, supposed to be owned by Aker. DeLorenzo went to Stafford Springs on Sunday and had the wrecked car towed back to Newton. It is estimated that the automobile was damaged to the extent of $300.

Oak Hill Residents Object to Small Lots and Houses

The Newton Planning Board has received from a group of Oak Hill residents and property owners a petition objecting to a proposed subdivision of a section in that area. The petition is as follows:

We, the undersigned, are OPPOSED to a plan of a subdivision in Oak Hill on Ethel rd. from Brookline st. through property of Harry L. Haines, which comes before your Board on Thursday evening, January 18, 1940. The Plan calls for 13 lots averaging 7,710 sq. ft. in size, the smallest being 6,280 sq. ft. and the largest 9,440 sq. ft., with a road extending 500 ft. Southwesterly from Brookline st. and having a 12 per cent grade from the main street. We object to the Plan for the reasons we have indicated below:

1. We object to the lots having a 65 ft. frontage; to the average size of the lots; and to the exceedingly dangerous grade of the road from Brookline Street.

2. We object to small lots and small structures. You may remember three years ago a group of twenty-seven property owners petitioned the City that restrictions be placed on property located south of Dedham, Greenwood and Dudley roads, so that future development of this area be confined to homesites having not less than 20,000 sq. ft. of land per home. While this request was not granted because the Aldermen were against "Sectional Zoning"—it does clearly indicate the feeling of the Community with respect to developments involving SMALL LOTS AND SMALL STRUCTURES.

3. Fox Meadows should be no precedent. The close proximity of Fox Meadows to this proposed development should not serve as a precedent. The former plan passed the Planning Board at a time when the Board had no authority or power to do more than approve or disapprove proposed roadways. Now, the Planning Board "may approve, modify and approve or disapprove plans . . . shall require re-per grades . . . in making such determination the Board shall take into consideration the prospective character of the development, etc." The properties of Goddard, Walker, Johnston, Mullen, Drinker, Sherwin, Cummings, Roberts, Ramsdell, Smith, King and Balch are located within a half mile of the proposed plat and the average value of these properties is believed to exceed $25,000—so that any plan which contemplates the erection of dwellings having one fourth this average value is bound to lower the standard materially and should be not allowed.

4. We recommend that the Planning Board make a study of the region in connection with the development of roads, before it approves any new roads—so that the District may be the more beautifully and logically developed.

We recommend that the Planning Board await the findings of the Special Committee being conducted by Prof. Adams of M. I. T. for the City of Newton to determine "Zoning as to size of lots, frontages, etc." to see what recommendations may result for the better development of this District. We believe that the land located southwest of Dudley rd. and Vine st. has great promise for attractive development and that the Planning Board should go slowly in letting this property be subdivided into lots too small for the most thoughtful development of this section of Newton.

We, therefore, respectfully urge that you disapprove the Haines Plan forthwith as presented! Henry S. Cummings, Cedric S. Ramsdell, Louis C. Smith, Luise C. Smith, Carl C. Mullen, Mary A. Mullen, John T. Johnston, Mary V. Johnston, Franklin G. Balch, Jr., India H. Balch, Malcolm Morse, Joseph R. Walker, Lucy F. King, Ralph W. King.

Early Morning Fire At Newtonville

A fire in the house at 619 Washington st., Newtonville, early Wednesday morning caused three families occupying tenements in the house to leave it hastily and receive shelter at police headquarters in West Newton while firemen extinguished the blaze which started in the cellar, apparently in rubbish. The firemen responded to a telephone call and to an alarm from Box 2411 at 2:24 a. m. Smoke awakened Mrs. Steadman Langille and she aroused her husband and their four small children. Other occupants of the house were Mrs. Grace Bacon and her two sons, and Mrs. Florence Starkey and her son. Occupants of the house were taken in police cars to police headquarters. The fire was the fourth in that vicinity within the past two months.

Newton Policeman Shot; Wife Charged With Shooting

Patrolman John W. Scott, 44, of the Newton police, was shot in the right buttock at his home, 38 Troy rd., Waban, on Saturday night about 11 o'clock. A telephone message was received at police headquarters Saturday night that Scott had been shot and a police car with Patrolmen Corcoran and Goodale went to his home and took him to the Newton Hospital. Patrolman Scott told the physician at the hospital that he was shot when he accidentally dropped his service revolver.

Lieut. Daniel Crowley was assigned to investigate the case, and as a result of his interview with Scott, on Tuesday noon the policeman's wife, Ethel Scott, 39, was placed under arrest by Lieut. Crowley, and Sergeant Sheridan and Sullivan, on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. It is alleged that following an argument with his wife, Scott went into the bathroom at his home, and Mrs. Scott then took his revolver and fired a bullet through the bathroom door. She was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday and her case was continued to Feb. 1.

The Scotts have three daughters, two of whom, 19 and 6 years of age, were asleep at home when the shooting occurred. Scott's wound is not serious and he is making favorable recovery at the Newton Hospital.

Evening Services At Newtonville On Sundays

A group of young people at the Newtonville New Church are inaugurating a series of evening services to be held at 7:15 Sunday evenings, starting this Sunday, January 21st. Services will be held in the church building on Highland ave., near Walnut st., Newtonville. It is understood that many changes have been made to greatly simplify this service. The sermons, by the pastor, the Rev. Horace W. Briggs, planned to appeal especially to young people of all denominations and the music by the organist, R. Lawrence Capon, has been carefully selected to harmonize with the atmosphere of the service. It is hoped that this service will fill a need in the Community by attracting people who find it inconvenient to attend morning services.

And They Lived Happily Ever After

I've just returned from Hardy's wedding. I took the day off but it was worth while. They sure are a happy couple. Mr. Kind, the bride's father gave Bill Hardy a silver cigarette case at the train. Then he took Ruth aside and I thought I saw a tear in his eye. I heard him say, "send your washing out Ruthie, send it to Brannen's Laundry—your mother told me to tell you that. Their phone number is Longwood 4129—just call them. And they lived happily ever after.—Adv't.

Cooking School Attracts Many Newton Women

Newton Centre Woman Wins Major Prize at Last Session

The second annual NEWTON GRAPHIC cooking school is a matter of history. Held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the affair attracted the interest of many Newton women. On both Monday and Tuesday there were but a very few vacant seats in the spacious auditorium of the Newton Centre Woman's Club while at the final session many women stood throughout the demonstration in the fine culinary art by Miss Margaret Fossett, director of the Home Service Department of the Boston Consolidated Gas Co. Miss Fossett imparted many helpful cooking hints and suggestions to her audiences in the preparation of many appetizing and delightful recipes.

Following the conclusion of the session each day, which presented a different program from the preceding session, awards were made of numerous prizes. At each session the Gas Company awarded a coffee-maker and a unit-toaster. In addition twenty-four large bags of groceries were awarded and numerous special bags of oranges, grape-fruit, moxie, paper towels and other articles. In addition to these awards all the food prepared and cooked by Miss Fossett was presented to persons in the audience.

At the conclusion of the final session on Wednesday the major prize of the Cooking School, offered by the NEWTON GRAPHIC, was awarded. Mrs. William J. Halliday of Norwood ave., Newton Centre, received the 1940 RCA Victor radio, a large console model, magic-eye, all wave-length, touch-button control, which was displayed and furnished musical entertainment prior to the opening of the daily sessions of the school. The radio, valued at $89.95, was offered by the NEWTON GRAPHIC and was supplied by Moore and Moore, Inc., of Newton Corner. The winner's name was drawn from the names of those registered at the Cooking School by little Miss June Gottshall of Newton Centre.

Prizes donated by Newton merchants who co-operated in the cooking school were also awarded at the close of the Wednesday afternoon session. These prizes, totalling in value nearly one hundred dollars, were received by an enthusiastic and applauding audience. A list of the winners will be found elsewhere in this issue.

The success of this second venture into this type of service to the women of the city of Newton surpassed that of the initial trial of November 1938. The widespread registration from all parts of the city indicated the suitability of the location for the cooking school and many of those in attendance voiced their expectation that another series of demonstrations would be scheduled in the fall.

Newton Schools Try To Meet Pupils' Needs

Supt. Warren Says Parents Must Set Example For Children

Superintendent of Schools Julius E. Warren was the lecturer at the parent education meeting on Monday night in the high school auditorium. An audience of over eight hundred attended the talk which was on the topic, "How is Newton Meeting the Challenge of Education?" Mr. Warren pointed out that the school cannot educate boys and girls to be much better than their elders. He described the efforts of Newton teachers to help individual pupils adjust themselves and that where the school unit is large enough the children are grouped according to the needs of the individuals according to their mental age and social maturity.

He said in part: "School may equip pupils with important information and valuable habits of skill; give them intellectual understanding of happenings and problems outside of school; schools can conceivably do something to arouse them to a sense of actual social responsibility, but not even an ideal school can prevent young people learning from the open example of their elders and changing their behavior in the light of the ways in which their elders behave."

"Parents cannot expect schools to teach children to be virtuous or industrious when the parents go to road houses or shift their economic burdens to the government. As the child matures and grows nearer to adulthood, I wonder whether we must not face the further fact that the school cannot educate boys and girls to be much better than their elders are."

Norton Soldier's Relief Physician

Dr. Hermon Norton of 209 Pleasant st., Newton Centre, has been selected as physician for the Soldiers' Relief Department of Newton by the Board of Aldermen, and his selection has been approved by Mayor Goddard. He will assume his duties as soon as the Board of Aldermen makes an appropriation for his salary. The committee interviewed applicants for the position.

Dr. Norton was born at Mount Hermon, Mass., 38 years ago, graduated from Wesleyan College in 1923 and from Harvard Medical School in 1927. He served on the staffs of St. Mary's Hospital and the Boston Lying-In Hospital and the Newton Hospital. He has been practicing in this city since 1928. He is a 1st lieutenant in the Army Medical Reserve, and physician for the Raytheon Co. of Nonantum and the Bettenger Enamel Corp. of Waltham.

Newton Armory Listed in Report Of Money Wasted

The report of State Auditor Russell Wood relative to moneys paid for repairs on State Armories for damages allegedly caused by the hurricane on September 21, 1938 brings out details of waste of the people's money by State officials. Early in 1939 when the scandal about the improper expenditure of money for alleged hurricane repairs on State educational institutions resulted in the forced resignation of Commissioner Reardon, it was asserted that equal waste had occurred in repairs on armories in this Commonwealth, but action similar to that taken in the State Department of Education did not occur in the Military Department.

Among the armories mentioned in the report is that in this city at West Newton. After the hurricane it was reported that the West Newton armory had not been damaged. Subsequently it was reported that a few slates had been blown off the roof there. According to the report of Oscar J. Laliberte, the estimator engaged by the Attorney General to investigate the cost of repairs on the armories, and the amounts of contracts awarded, the cost of repair work at the West Newton armory was $321.50, and of this $309.50 was not for the damage caused by the hurricane. The amount of the contract given to M. S. Kelliher on hurricane rehabilitation work at the West Newton armory was $3875.

Athletic Groups Can't Use Showers In Public Schools

The Newton School Committee at its meeting on Tuesday night voted not to permit the use of showers in school buildings used evenings by groups participating in activities sponsored by the Newton Recreation Department. This action on the part of the committee was caused by the use of the showers at the Weeks' junior high school having been granted to members of the Upper Falls Athletic Club, which has been using the gymnasium in that school. A member of the School Committee had told the Upper Falls youths they might use the showers, but complications arose which caused the committee to forbid such use. Supt. of Schools Warren told the committee that at a conference of school officials it had been decided to recommend permission for use of the showers be withheld until a study can be made of expenses involved and other problems.

This year, for the first time, the erstwhile Newton Playground Department, now evolved into a Recreation department, is sponsoring on a considerable scale basketball games and other athletic activities in junior high school buildings. Supt. Warren stated that it would be necessary to heat water for the evening use of the showers, that an attendant would have to work cleaning and disinfecting the shower rooms until a late hour. He also said that property of school pupils is contained in locker rooms adjacent to the showers. Members of the School Committee agreed with Mr. Warren that the School Department should not have to assume the additional expense occasioned by the use of the showers by the Recreation Department activities. The use of the school gymnasiums will continue to be granted, and a study will be made of the problem on the use of the showers.

The resignation of F. Ewing Wilson as teacher of physical education at F. A. Day junior high school was accepted. E. Melville Westgate of Watertown was appointed temporarily to succeed Mr. Wilson. He has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work, and as a Red Cross swimming instructor. Ruth Moulton was appointed a temporary clerk at the Weeks School to succeed Myrtle Ericson.

Lasell Community Orchestra To Give Concert

The Lasell Community Orchestra will present its first concert of the season next Tuesday evening, January 30, at 8:15 p. m. at the Winslow Auditorium of the Lasell Junior College, Maple st., Auburndale. Due to the enthusiastic reception which the people of Newton gave the orchestra last season, a large audience is expected. Admission is free.

As most people know the Lasell Community Orchestra was organized under the sponsorship of Lasell Junior College and the leadership of George Sawyer Dunham. The players, numbering between fifty and sixty, are almost all Newton citizens. Heading the list of patrons and patronesses are Governor and Mrs. Saltonstall and Mayor and Mrs. Goddard. The orchestra, formed to meet a community need in Newton, has already justified itself by the excellence of the entertainment it presents, not to speak of the other advantages it offers to Newton citizens who become members. The programs are varied so that the tastes of all may be satisfied and the orchestra is usually assisted by some outstanding soloist. At the coming concert next Tuesday the assisting artist will be the celebrated tenor, Rulon Rubison.

New Industry To Come To Newton

A large part of the former factory of the Silver Lake Cordage Company at Watertown and Nevada sts., Newtonville, will soon be occupied by the United-Carr Fastener Company of which Ex-Mayor Sinclair Weeks is an executive. The United States government on or about March 1 will take over the South Boston plant of the Carr Fastener Company, and operations which have been conducted at South Boston will be started in the former cordage factory at Newtonville within a few weeks. About 100 men who have been employed at the Carr Fastener factory at South Boston, will be employed at the Newtonville shop, so at present there will not be opportunities for employment there for new employees.

Newton people who have regretted to see the former cordage factory vacant, or largely vacant for the past several years, will welcome the use of the plant by a well-organized industry, and hope that this new industry will remain in Newton, as by so doing it would eventually give employment to residents of this city.

Distribution Of Clothing Starts

Thrift Center Makes Appeal For Donations

Distribution of warm clothing, underwear, and shoes from Newton's new Thrift Centre at 392 Centre st., Newton, to the families aided by the Catholic Welfare Committee and the Family Service Bureau will begin this week.

For several weeks past the Thrift Centre, which is conducted by a committee of the Newton Community Council with the aid of committees of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs and the Newton Hospital Aid Association, has been collecting used clothing and household articles for redistribution to needy families in the city. All clothing received has been cleaned and laundered without charge by the A B C Cleaners of West Newton and the Garden City Laundry, and volunteer workers of a number of church groups and civic organizations have put it in good repair. Now the Centre is ready to distribute it.

At the present time the Centre has only supplies sufficient to meet in part the needs of the Catholic Welfare Committee and the Family Service Bureau, and clothing will therefore only be supplied on requisition from these organizations. As the work of the Thrift Centre becomes better known, however, it is hoped to be able to supply the clothing needs of the city welfare department and other agencies in the city.

Officials of the Thrift Centre point out that by giving your cast-off clothing and household articles to the Centre you can be sure that they will go to needy Newton families and also reduce the cost of the agencies which aid these families. A telephone call to the Centre at Newton North 2112 will bring a truck to your door to collect your gifts.

The Newton team, which includes Dalton and Patrolmen Joe Smith, Albert Smith, Powers and Lovely, won third place in the competition. Dalton has won many medals and trophies for marksmanship.

McHugh Elected Police Asso. Head

James McHugh, a member of the motorcycle squad of the Newton police, was elected president of the Newton Police Benefit Association at the annual election held on January 18. There were five candidates and he received 55 of the 118 votes cast. The successful candidates for directors were: Charles Cody, William Dowling, Matthew Phillips and Philip Purcell. John Monahan was reelected secretary and Thomas Leehan, treasurer.

Superintendent John C. Brennan of the Chestnut Hill Post Office will be Master of Ceremonies.

Many distinguished citizens of Chestnut Hill section will attend the dedication and banquet.

One thousand citizens of Newton gathered at the State Armory on Wednesday evening to show their appreciation of Hon. Edwin O. Childs, for twenty years Mayor of Newton. The banquet was arranged by a large committee, headed by Herma F. Wells of Newton Centre, as chairman; Miss Phyllis Lindley, secretary; and Wilfred Chagnon, treasurer. Senator Arthur W. Hollis officiated as toastmaster. The invocation was offered by Rev. Ray Eusden, pastor of Elliot Congregational Church, and the benediction was given by Rev. John Sheridan, pastor of Our Lady's Church. The speakers included Chief Justice Fred T. Field of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook, Joseph E. Perry, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Massachusetts, Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Mayor Arthur Hansen of Waltham, John F. Malley, Past Exalted Ruler of the Elks, William Hogan president of the Mass. Elks Association and Thomas W. White.

Grand Master Perry stated that Mr. Childs, as Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge in this state is second highest among the 100,000 Masons in Massachusetts. He referred to the 33rd degree having been recently conferred on Mr. Childs. Mayor Goddard told of the friendly spirit manifested toward him by his predecessor since (Continued on Page 10)

Dedication Of Chestnut Hill P. O.

The Dedication and Banquet of the new Chestnut Hill Post Office will be held Thursday, Feb. 1st, 1940.

This occasion will mark the passing of the old Chestnut Hill postoffice which has been in service since 1895. Dr. John C. Brennan, superintendent of Chestnut Hill, has been superintendent from the day that it became an office in the Boston Postal District.

In 1895 there were no routes at this office, the residents had to call at the postoffice to get their mail until 1901 when 2 routes were established.

Today after 44 years Chestnut Hill can boast of 13 routes, showing the remarkable growth in this district.

The Dedication exercises will begin at 7:30 p. m. Thursday night, Feb. 1st. Among the invited guests are Smith W. Purdon, 4th assistant Postmaster General representing Postmaster General James A. Farley, Postmaster Peter F. Taglia, Postmaster of the Boston Postal District, John J. Breslin, Inspector in charge of the New England District; Gov. A TRIBUTE TO "NED" CHILDS

A thousand citizens of Newton gathered on Wednesday evening to pay tribute to former Mayor Edwin O. Childs, who served the city as its Chief Executive for twenty of the past twenty-six years. During those years the city grew tremendously and maintained its place as one of the foremost residential communities of the state. Mayor Childs can look back upon those years with the knowledge that the city trusted him with the responsibility of the honest conduct of its affairs and that in that trust he was not found wanting. There are many citizens of Newton who have enjoyed personal friendships with Mayor Childs. Continually active in community affairs he has been an influence of great good upon the citizens and upon the youth of Newton. We are glad to speak for those citizens who know "Ned" Childs and join in public tribute to him.

SALTONSTALL VS. KELLY?

Announcement was made this week by former Lieutenant Governor Francis E. Kelly that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the State primaries next September. He also confidently expects to oppose Governor Leverett Saltonstall in the election in November. Having defeated Saltonstall by a mere handful of votes when the two opposed each other in 1936 Mr. Kelly looks forward to administering another defeat to Newton's foremost citizen. Thus the political pot has started to boil early. But Mr. Kelly already overlooks several important items. The most important of these is Governor Saltonstall's efficient administration of the office which he now holds. Mr. Kelly claims that the Governor has not kept his campaign promises. That viewpoint depends a great deal upon how one sees the needs of the state—and Mr. Kelly and Governor Saltonstall never will see the situation alike. And in the coming months the people of Massachusetts will decide which is the better way—through the efficient conduct of the state's affairs with merit and careful spending as the keynote—or through Mr. Kelly's attitude of political patronage for public jobs, wasteful extravagance of public moneys and inefficient approaches to public problems which add to the burdens of a state which is just beginning to feel the benefit of the proper conduct of the people's affairs.

Letters To The Editor

SMALL DAMAGE CLAIMS

Jan. 22, 1940.

The Newton Graphic.

Dear Sir:

In reading over Mr. Powers' Paragraphs in the last issue of the GRAPHIC, I was certainly amazed at the action of the Board of Aldermen in refusing to pay the small claims asked by citizens whose automobiles were damaged by city-owned trucks or vehicles. Mr. Powers' "criticism" was well taken. To my mind it was an unseemly act and should be reconsidered. There is a State Law which permits cities to take out liability insurance. Why can't the City of Newton do this to protect its own inhabitants from damage and likely injury to a person by their own trucks or vehicles?

The cost would be small comparatively, I think.

Very truly yours,

DAVID C. THEALL,
Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Newton People Dog Track Witnesses

On Tuesday the Federal Grand Jury heard 19 witnesses in the government's investigation of the incomes of five members of the Bay State Greyhound Association, one of the two groups which conducts dog racing at Wonderland Park, Revere. Among the 19 witnesses were Joseph J. Twitchell of Belmont st., Newton, and Eleanor and Margaret A. Dwyer of Tremont st., Newton.

Burglars Busy In The Newtons

A burglary occurred last Saturday at the home of Charles Nason, 59a Bowser st., West Newton. The thief stole a lady's wrist watch and a suit of clothes. Entrance was effected by removing boards from a partition in the cellar.

As Dr. Franklin Lowry was passing the Washington Building, 313 Washington st., Newton, at 6:45 Saturday evening, he observed a light in his office. Investigating, he surprised a burglar, who ran out of the office door as Dr. Lowry approached. The thief ran down the back stairs with Dr. Lowry in pursuit. The burglar fled down Bacon st. in the direction of Pearl st. The office door had been forced open with a jimmy.

A car owned by Mrs. Charles Magee of 41 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, was looted while parked at the rear of 27 Commonwealth ave. last Saturday night. Two brief cases and a flashlight were stolen.

An automobile owned by John MacNeil of 252 Franklin st., Newton, was stolen while parked opposite 132 Brackett rd., Newton on Saturday night.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Tryouts for the girls' parts were completed this week for the production of "Stage Door" to be given on March first by the Dramatic Club. The recent acquisition of the college, Haskell's Pond, is very popular for skating as well as the ski slope and toboggan slide, which are in excellent condition. The students are also enjoying the following in door sports: volleyball, basketball, swimming and modern dancing.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

Years ago when the writer was young and skated whenever there was skating (and the ponds were not cleared of snow by city employees in those days) the few persons who could cut dices on the ice were known as "fancy skaters." Now they are referred to as "figure skaters." When one sees photographs of young ladies attired in a quite short skirt and a brief undergarment, cavorting on skates and displaying their limbs, the term—"figure skater" seems correct.

It was announced on Tuesday that a suit brought by Cornelius Sheridan of Milton against Frank Hale of Belleville, New Jersey and Harold Goodman of Mount Vernon, New York had been settled out of court. The defendants were officials of the National Grain Yeast Company and the plaintiff had sued them for $400,000 because he introduced James Roosevelt to Hale and Goodman as result Jimmy became president of the company at a salary of $35,000 a year. Sheridan alleges that he was promised a quarter interest in the company. The amount named in the suit would seem to indicate that Jimmy was not overpaid.

We again quote Balzac. "The law is a spider's web; the big flies break through, the little flies are caught and held." To enforce law and order this country has police departments and courts which cost the people billions annually to maintain. The function of the police is to safeguard life and protect property. Courts are an essential adjunct. For many years past the principal activities of police and district courts have been in connection with violations of highway traffic laws. The enforcement of these laws is necessary if the horrible number of people yearly killed and maimed by automobiles is to be reduced. The principal reason why the number of victims of reckless and drunken automobile drivers has increased from year to year is—that traffic laws have not been enforced, and that a large percentage of those who violate them have not been punished. Their cases have been "fixed" by policemen, exculpated by courts or juries, or not pressed by district attorneys.

A drunken or reckless automobile driver who has money or influence is just as much a menace on our highways as the driver who possesses neither wealth nor influence. A person fatally injured by an automobile driven by some influential individual is just as dead as the victim of an automobile operated by a poor man. This trend of thought on our part did not happen casually. There's a reason.

If conditions were reversed and British mail was being seized from British ships by United States naval personnel, can you imagine Great Britain standing for such imposition and indignity? The United States government could quickly stop this interference with its rights by replacing the embargo on war materials to Great Britain. And that alleged blood-brother nation and friend of ours is further evidencing affection by coercing South American countries so that they will not enter into more favorable trade agreements with the U. S. A.; and by shifting its tobacco purchases from this country to Turkey.

District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey apparently has a big lead in Massachusetts over his rivals for the Republican nomination for President. According to the newspapers, Mr. Dewey is a forceful and convincing speaker. But, he photographs poorly. If we were an intimate of Dewey's, we would suggest to that young man that in his campaign literature there would be no photographs of him smiling. Because, the photographs we have seen of Dewey smiling impress us as though someone was kicking Thomas in the pants and saying—"Smile, d—n you, smile."

John Lewis' attack on a third term for F. D. Roosevelt ought to help the candidacy of that aspirant from Texas whom the C. I. O. leader characterized as a cussing, whiskey-drinking, poker-playing, wicked old man.

Among those adversely affected by the war in Europe are thousands of men and women who were employed in steamship agencies and travel bureaus throughout this country. Many of them had been employed 20, 30 and some over 40 years in this occupation, and they have lost their livelihood, certainly for the duration of the war, and until European travel will be resumed. In the meantime steamship companies operated by non-belligerent countries are not only carrying on their European and other foreign services, but have assigned ships for cruise service to the West Indies, South America and the South Seas.

American owned steamship lines are providing excellent opportunities for those residents of the U. S. A. who desire to escape the dreary winter by traveling to Florida, Bermuda, the West Indies or South America. The popular Savannah Line and the Merchants & Miners Line have frequent sailings from Boston to our own "Sunny South." The United States Line is operating the S. S. Roosevelt regularly from New York to Bermuda. The United Fruit Company boats ply from Boston, New York and Philadelphia to Central and South America. The Grace Line conducts luxurious cruises of 12 days to Venezuela in South America, and longer cruises of 31 and 38 days to Peru and Chile. The new, fireproof, ultra-safe boats of the Panama Line leave New York weekly on 16-day cruises to the Canal Zone. The huge 32,000 ton luxury liners of the Moore-McCormack "American Republic" Lines provide 28-day cruises to Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Barbadoes and Trinidad. And there are the low-priced 12-day tours of the "Dixie" of the Southern Pacific to New Orleans, and the Munargo to Nassau and Havana. Despite the war, thousands of Americans continue to travel in safety and comfort on American ships into the warm Gulf Stream and thence to Bermuda, Florida, the West Indies, Central America and South America.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, Jan. 17, 1890

The gripe is proving very disastrous to cases in this city, who seem to have all the symptoms that affect their human friends. Many cases of pneumonia among dogs are reported, and in nearly every case they prove fatal.

A GRAPHIC representative has interviewed a number of Newton men in regard to the question of biennial elections and biennial sessions of the Legislature. John R. Leeson is in favor because he thinks it would be an economy of time and an economy of expenditure. John S. Fay, however, believing it will result in the selection of better men, Henry E. Cobb, favors, believing we are overlegislated; ambitious politicians thinking it is their duty to post laws on the statute books. Mayor Burr said that he favors biennial elections, especially for the office of Governor. Under our present system the Governor is hardly warm in his seat, before he is expected to take part in a second campaign.

We were in the Newton National Bank one day last week when a little boy came in and handed the cashier, B. F. Bacon, a handsome mahogany box and requested Mr. Bacon to deposit it in the vault of the bank and have it delivered to him or his heirs in the year 1945. The box had on it this inscription—"A.D. 1845. Original Box and copies of papers found under corner-stone of Eliot Church edifice, burned January 16, 1887. To be opened by Charles O. Billings, A.D. 1945." The box contains the original box deposited under the corner-stone of the first edifice in 1845, description of documents in the original box, a record of all matters relating to the building of the new edifice, and the silver trowel used by J. N. Bacon in laying the corner-stone of the new edifice. Charles E. Billings was present at the laying of the first corner-stone, and he conceived the idea of making his son the connecting link with the 100th anniversary. Should Providence spare the life of the boy, he will then be 65 years old, and his father has given him instructions that if he is living, even in a distant land, he is to return to Newton at that time, and open the box. (Charles O. Billings now resides in Brighton.—Ed.)

ONE THING and ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

Valentine Suggestion

There are two weeks and more ahead of us in which to prepare for St. Valentine's Day. The thoughtful dealers have their stock ready now and the window displays make me wonder if we shouldn't show our appreciation and begin immediate selections. Strikes me that there is opportunity to extend the idea by conveying sentiments other than those that represent romance. The old idea that the exchange of valentines was restricted to lovers was long ago abandoned. Much of the wording on the dainty cards is good will eloquently expressed.

It occurred to me that somebody we like and who has been thoughtful of us might be pleased to get a valentine. The fact that it was anonymous, as the old custom provided, might be all the more pleasing. How would our friend the letter carrier like to find that besides handing them to everybody else he himself was the owner of a good big handful in the Feb. 14th delivery?

Futile Wish

The snow that falls on Newton's streets. Would fill my heart with rapturous beats. If it would stick to thoroughfare And leave the sidewalks dry and bare.

Keep Jaws Moving

No evidence has come to me that Newton is to undertake a campaign against discarded wads of chewing gum—a problem that caused Mayor LaGuardia of New York to proceed with characteristic vigor. I have never heard that any section of our own city complained that it was "gummed up." The presence of cast-off "chews" is not only unsanitary but offensive. Pedestrians cannot be blamed if they object when their progress is impeded. Other situations, with which many of us are familiar, are of daily occurrence. These I am forbidden by delicacy to outline and anyway about everybody has had plenty of experience.

It was interesting to see how alert to the public welfare, and incidentally test on Tuesday morning to Postmaster Murray of Boston against the proposal to abolish the postoffice at Waban and make that district a part of the Newton Highlands postal station. Postmaster Murray opened the hearing by stating that the proposed change was to be made in the interest of economy. An inspector had reported that between $500 and $1000 a year could be saved. Carrier service would be improved, with two deliveries a day and a parcel-post team when needed. Letters would be addressed as new to Waban, and a special Waban stamp would mark outgoing mail at Newton Highlands.

The case of the postoffice was managed by Charles A. Andrews. He asked for details as to the proposed, improved carrier service. The next speaker, Joseph Congdon, said he has lived in Waban 17 years and was interested in real estate there. He said it has been a long fight to get Waban established and recognized as a coming community, and now it is one of Newton's most prosperous communities. The removal of the postoffice would be a detriment to Waban.

and is now teacher of home economics in Greensburg.

Mr. Sholes is the foster son of Mr. and Mrs. LaForrest Benson of Waban, and is a graduate of Newton High School and of the Massachusetts Nautical School. He is now an officer in the United Fruit Company's fleet.

Rotary Club

Mr. John Richmond, research engineer, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Club. Mr. Richmond spoke upon television and of the limitation of its scope at the present time because of the cost of expansion of transmission for general use. Impressions through the ear, such as provided by audio-radio, reach the brain much more quickly and with fewer essentials than those which are received through the eye. A musical program on the radio is largely background and the hearer can give his attention to other things at the same time whereas in watching a television program the onlooker's undivided attention must be given to follow the story.

The speaker believed, however, that the time was coming when it would be practical and feasible to transmit sporting events by television and that some persons would install receivers at rather heavy expense for the enjoyment and entertainment it will afford.

Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts Entertain Together

Girl Scout Troop 18 and Boy Scout Troop 15 of Auburndale recently joined in a party held at the Church of the Messiah. The evening was spent in a scavenger hunt followed by dancing, games and refreshments. The joint committee planning the party consisted of Celia Young, Marilyn Carter, Louise Laffey, Beth MacVicar, Esther Bearse, Janet Jackson, William Jackson, Sidney Clark and Robert Jackson.

their own, one of the leading manufacturers of chewing gum proved to be. The protest of New York's mayor was not long under wide discussion when the company posted in street cars and other places signs advising patrons that their chewed gum be "placed in the wrapper or other piece of paper before disposing of it." You can see what they had in mind. If that isn't quickwittedness then show me an example. Suppose they did nothing and allowed the hue and cry against used gum to spread without comment on their part? What would happen to their sales? What they did was to lend the power of their advertising to help correct the situation, using the phrase "Keep your city attractive."

It seems to me that it was not only uncanny, but smart on the company's part but revealed the proper spirit. With unlimited resources the manufacturers undoubtedly could have opposed sanitary progress to their own gain.

From what little study I have given the subject there are those who remain substitutes throughout their playing career, which usually has no limit. In short, come winter or spring Miss Whatshername remains a nonmember, though always a welcome guest. She is assumed to have plenty of free time and an obliging disposition. When at a late hour come news that Mrs. Thisorthat cannot possibly be there because she has a bad cold which she doesn't want to spread, then a hurry call is put in for Miss Whatshername. If there is an epidemic of colds the invitation must be sent her reasonably early as more than one club is likely to have an absent chair to fill.

I am not so sure that the position of Miss Whatshername isn't more desirable in some ways. She doesn't have to pay the usual weekly assessment and, of course, is never expected to entertain. These are certainly definite savings. In short, she enjoys everything that goes on without assuming responsibility. When there is some sort of affair at the wind-up of the season she is not included but that probably is little disappointment to her for she is still ahead of the game.

Elegance of Speech

There are people who cannot find language too extravagant with which to describe their impressions. It isn't that words fail them but that they ask a great deal of such as are available. Only the other day I heard a man tell of a tribute paid his friend. A member of a fraternal order was received enthusiastically on his visit to a lodge in another city. As it was put to me, "They gave him quite an audition."

Mr. Paul E. Elicker recently attended a meeting of the Massachusetts State Principals' Association at the Boston Chamber of Commerce Building. Mr. Elicker gave a report on the college admission examinations. The examinations will be given on April 13 by the College Entrance Examination Board for general admission to certain colleges and for scholarships to these colleges. The general admission examinations are similar to scholastic aptitude tests and the scholarship examinations contain scholastic aptitude and achievement tests.

On January 30, Miss Nute's Math XI English class will present a play, "That Brute Simmons" to other English classes. This one-act play was written by Miss Nute and was taken from a short story by A. W. Morrison. All the play parts are taken by boys, and all the production work including wig-making for the two girl characters is headed by Robert Guild as Mrs. Simmons. John Linden as Mr. Simmons, Jerry Boston as Bob Ford, and Townsend Cushman as Mrs. Chiple. Besides this play, there will be short talks on hobbies.

Club Meetings

At the fourth meeting of Alpha Beta, the club members had the pleasure of hearing Mr. John Cronan speak on some good books. From one of these he cleverly dramatized an episode, taking the parts of all the characters. In closing, Mr. Cronan entertained the club by presenting a skit about a French baker and his cat. The meeting was adjourned by President Roger Reidy.

At the January meeting of the Social Studies Club the members were entertained by the Rev. Mr. Shepherd, a well-known American who has spent most of his life in China. At one time he was advisor to Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek. He spoke on his experiences in the war with Japan.

The fourth meeting of the English Club was held on Thursday, January 18, in room 335. The meeting was turned over to Howard M. Spiro, the program committee chairman, who took charge of the program. It consisted of a Professor Quiz-Information Please with the "board of experts" comprised of Miss South, Miss Waldmeyer, Miss Nute, Mr. Rinker, Mr. Foster and Mr. Johnson.

On January 12th, three Newton High School boys participated in a radio broadcast over station WEEL. They were Alan Michaels, Russell Gwillim, and Bob McGrath, who shared honors with Mr. Kidger. This broadcast originated in New York and had to do with the history of the Budget Fund. The highlight of the program came when the three boys from our school spoke at 9:30. They discussed national defenses with particular stress given to the naval department.

These twelve, who were quizzed by John Frederickson and John Duff, were: Margaret Sherman, William Joyce, Anne Tomlinson, Albert Sears, Jean Webber, Robert Snow, Ann Polonsky, Edward Ryan, Mary Bloom, Ira Ames, Joan Thompson and Joe Farina. Joan Thompson was the winner with a perfect score, and with her partner from Room 27, Joe Farina, she won the honors for her home room. Miss Hart, Mr. F. Tanner, and Mr. Gustavsen were the judges. Mr. Merriam, Mrs. Holmes, Mr. Read, and Mr. Gustavsen made up the assembly committee in charge of the assembly.

Warren, State President, gave a talk on the work of the organization. An entertainment followed consisting of readings by little Miss Beverly Stead, a group of songs by little Miss Susanne Hector and xylophone solos by Miss Mildred Beardsley, all given in a most pleasing manner, and closed with a reading, "America" and the playing of "God Bless America" on the xylophone by Miss Beardsley, which the audience sang.

In Comedy, "First Lady"

"First Lady," a sparkling political satire by George Kaufman, will be presented by the Newton High School Drama Club on Friday afternoon, January 26, and on Saturday evening, January 27, in the High School auditorium. The play is directed by Miss Louise Wetherbee.

In producing "First Lady," the Drama Club is again among the first amateur groups to offer this brilliant Broadway and motion picture success. The plot, timely and gay, satirizes many phases of social life in the Capital.

The large cast is headed by Bette Brady, who takes the part of the clever First Lady, originally acted by Jane Cowl. The role of her feminine rival is done by Lane Kutz, and their husbands by Thomas Lawson and Robert Gallant. Other leading characters are portrayed by Ingrid Johnson, Jane Cooper, Eleanor Sampson, Richard Warren and Robert McGrath. Other members in the cast are Joan Concannon, Polly Lewis, Paul Elicker, Donald Blackey, Alan Michaels, Dorothy Cox, Mary Dillon, Martha O'Neill, Eunice Shamlian, Donald Van Roosen, William Baxter, Paul Edmondston, Beatrice Mendelstam, Herbert Rosenberg, Robert Lewis, Margaret Brink, George Pettengill, and Hollis Wyman.

Thirsty Thief

At Chestnut Hill

Nathan Schwartz of 104 Woodchester Drive, Chestnut Hill, reported to the police on last Friday that his house had been entered by someone who stole six quart bottles of whiskey from a carton in the cellar, and left the other two quarts which the car contained. Entrance was made to the cellar by breaking a window.

Another burglary at Chestnut Hill, reported to the police last Friday, occurred at the home of Dr. A. P. Rogers, 10 Monadnock rd. A pane of glass in a back door was broken and the house ransacked. Because the family is away, the police do not know what loot was taken.

84-Year-Old Man Seriously Burned

Timothy Kennedy, 84, a patient at a rest home at 73 Washington Park, Newtonville, was seriously burned last Saturday night when sparks from a pipe ignited his trousers and seriously burned his legs. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Brighton Youths

Charged With Bag Snatching

Two more Brighton youths were added to the number from that district who have been charged in recent years with having committed automobile robberies and other crimes in Newton. Warrants were obtained by Newton police on Tuesday for the arrest of John Powers, 17, of 11 Lorraine terrace, Brighton and Edgar DeAbre, 16, of 11 Colburn rd., Brighton charging them with stealing a car owned by John MacNeil of 252 Franklin st., Newton last Saturday night. The car was taken while parked on Brackley rd., Newton, and the pair were arrested in it at the Back Bay, Boston on Monday night.

DeAbre is also charged with having been involved in the bag-snatching from Annie Casey on the night of January 14. The Casey girl is employed as a domestic at 124 Chestnut Hill rd. and it is alleged that DeAbre and George Bennett, 17, of 41 Burbank st., Boston, robbed her while she was walking opposite Governor Saltonstall's home on that road. Bennett is also charged with having been involved in thefts of automobiles and with driving without a license.

On the night Miss Casey was robbed, three other bag-snatching robberies occurred in Brookline and Brighton and police are endeavoring to connect the pair with those robberies.

Sergeant Hamon and Patrolman Dalton of the Newton police went to Boston and questioned the youths after they had been arrested on Monday night, and as a result obtained complaints against them. The trio were arraigned in the Roxbury court on Tuesday and released on their personal recognizance; their cases being continued to Thursday. They will be prosecuted in the Newton court later.

The case of the McLeod woman was continued until January 27.

Annual Meeting of Gamewell M.B.A.

The forty-fifth annual business meeting of the Gamewell Mutual Benefit Association was held Friday, Jan. 19th, in the Exhibition Room of the factory.

The following officers were elected to serve for the year 1940. President, Ephraim Estelle of Newton Highlands; vice-president, Edmund M. Eastman of Waltham; secretary, Thomas Willgoose of Needham; treasurer, James G. Powell of Newton Highlands; Board of Directors, Edith M. Campbell of Waltham, Joseph P. Cleary, of Newton Upper Falls; Charles DeFazio of Needham Heights; Stephen J. Bennett of Newton Upper Falls and Charles J. Manning of West Newton.

The Gamewell Mutual Benefit Association was founded in 1894 and during the intervening years has paid out many thousands of dollars in sick and death benefits; during these last few years of business depression the Gamewell Company have assumed the financial obligation of its members, thus making it possible to carry on through a time of its greatest need.

It is interesting to note that this association founded by the employees many years ago is one of the oldest Mutual Benefit Associations of Massachusetts.

Disobey Traffic Rules, Fined, Filed

In the Newton court last Friday Harriet Woolf, 19, of 1165 Commonwealth ave., Allston was fined $5 for speeding and $5 for not stopping her car before entering a through way. Clinton Carlson of Watertown was fined $5 for speeding. For not stopping their cars before entering Commonwealth ave. a through way, Alice Cleveland of 67 Sheffield rd., Newton Centre, and Harry Witt of 52 Grant ave., Newton Centre, each was fined $5. Gerald Dath of Normandy rd., Auburndale, was fined $5 for not slowing down at a street intersection.

In court the same day the case of Harold Hills of 2181 Washington st., Lower Falls was filed. He was charged with driving a car to the left of the center of the street, that is—on the wrong side of the road. Another case filed in court on that day was that of Warren Conn of 77 Arnold rd., Newton Centre. He was charged with failing to obey instructions on a traffic sign.

In the Newton court on Monday Judge Mayberry filed cases of three motorists charged with failing to slow down at intersections. The three were—Walter Ayer, 87 Evergreen ave., Auburndale; Carl Eldredge, 86 Bulbough Park, Newtonville; Paul Courtney, 370 Beacon st., Boston.

Water Dept. Can't Work Outside City

At the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen it was voted to authorize the City Treasurer to accept a check of $245 for work done by the Newton Water Department at the Women's Prison in Sherborn for a contracting firm. The local water department had special equipment which was used. When this matter was being discussed the City Solicitor ruled that it is illegal for the Water Department to do work outside the city limits because the city would be liable in case of accident.

A sequence of this ruling followed within the past week-end. The cold spell froze a service pipe which carries water from a main at Charles st., Auburndale, over the abandoned Charles st. bridge to the buildings of Boston University athletic plant at Nickerson Field. Weston employees of the Newton Water Dept. thawed the frozen pipe to the middle of the bridge on Monday, but a private contractor had to be engaged to continue the job on the Weston side.

Planning Board Disapproves Oak Hill Development

The Newton Planning Board announced last Saturday that it had disapproved a plan submitted by Harry L. Haines of a plot of land on a hillside off Brookline st., Oak Hill. According to the plan this lot of land would be subdivided into 13 house lots, ranging in size from 6280 square feet to 9440, and averaging 7710. The lots would be located on a new street to be known as Ethel rd. The Oak Hill Improvement Association objected to the plan because of the small size of some of the lots, their narrow frontage, 65 feet; and because the proposed street would have the dangerous grade of 12 per cent.

Claim Woman Owed Maid Wages

Inspector John Regan of the State Department of Labor was the complainant in the Newton court last Friday against Mrs. Rose Fisher of 79 Woodchester Drive, Chestnut Hill. He told Judge Mayberry that he had received complaints from girls who had been employed as domestics by the Fisher woman, that she had refused to pay them all wages owed them, and that she had made deductions from their wages because of alleged damages the servants had caused to household equipment. Regan presented as evidence a letter Mrs. Fisher had sent to Margaret Bazley, a former employee, in which she offered to pay the girl $3 of $8 allegedly owed, but that the other $5 would be deducted to pay for damages allegedly caused by the Bazley girl to a vacuum cleaner. Judge Mayberry commented "that is pretty cheap stuff." He ordered the $8 paid before January 26. He also told Mrs. Fisher's 18-year-old son, whom she had sent to represent her in court, because she was ill, that if Mrs. Fisher is summoned again to appear in court, she either must come herself or send a physician's certificate that she is ill.

Phoned False Alarm Is Fined $50.00

William L. Page of 20 Albion pl., Newton Centre, held a party at his home last Saturday night. A number of the guests were members of the National Guard. Two others came to the party as uninvited guests, one of whom J. Kenneth Cupit, 23, of 8 Sawdust ter., Allston, was also a member of the National Guard, and wanted to join in the social time. It cost Cupit $50 for going to the party, because he decided to be funny and his idea of humor consisted in telephoning Newton fire alarm headquarters at 2:30 a. m., Sunday, that there was a fire at 20 Albion pl. The firemen at Engines 3 and 9 and Ladder 2 were aroused from their slumbers and went out in the cold to that address. There was no fire at the house, and denials were made that any alarm had been sent from there. But, the operator at fire alarm headquarters had traced the call when it came in.

Inspector Hammell was assigned to the case and was informed that Cupit had been seen using the telephone just before the firemen arrived. A complaint was issued against him and he was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday. He was given until March 5 to pay the fine.

Oil Burner Causes Fire In Garage

Pyramid Construction

According to Herodotus, the method of building the Pyramids was by raising the great stones a step at a time until they were in position. The mechanical means by which such masses of stones were raised to their places is a mystery, and various methods have been suggested by which they may have been wound up. Many authorities are of the opinion that an inclined plane was employed.

Pupils' Needs

Whatever good taste or wholesome interests those who leave formal schooling have formed may, and are likely to be, dissipated if they find that adults or their acquaintances are finding their pleasures largely in such unwholesome or destructive pursuits as visiting road houses, saloons and gambling joints.

"Or, if education wants boys and girls to start on their own feet and make their own way, the adult world cannot long be tolerated of a social order in which thousands are eager to shift their economic burdens to the government."

The topic of the course next Monday night will be "After School—What?" Dr. Frederic Spaulding, of the Harvard University Graduate School of Education, will be the speaker.

Community Fund Drive Now On

Thousands of soliciting volunteers in Newton and throughout the 550-square-mile metropolitan area set forth this week in a united effort to oversubscribe the 1940 goal of $4,625,000, the minimum needed to enable the more than 175 hospitals, health and social service agencies in Greater Boston's Community Fund to continue their vital services the coming year.

In Newton every local solicitor is working with a will to do credit to the community, under the leadership of J. Alexander Lane, of West Newton, as chairman, and spurred on by the challenge of the Lincoln theme, "Teach how to all—despair to none."

R. Amund Cutter, chairman of the Metropolitan Division, cited among the principal reasons for contribution to Greater Boston's Community Fund by the people of Newton, that Community Fund agencies, particularly the hospitals and health units, give year-round service to the people of Newton, and that many people in Newton earn their living in Boston, or have lived in Boston, or have close associations there, implying some obligation on their part to help bear some of the responsibilities of meeting the social problems created in its congested areas.

There are towers 40 feet high and spaced eight to ten to a mile from which archers could sweep the bases of adjoining walls. There are solitary watch towers at irregular intervals outside the wall. The parapet is surmounted by merlons and crenelles for observation.

Man's Scientific Studies
Offer Strange Contrasts

Civilized man is an ironically ingenious fellow in that the faster he progresses in civilization the faster he seems to develop lethal weapons and the desire to use them on his mates, whilst, at the same time, he emulates the Red Queen in traveling faster and faster in cutting down the danger of death due to disease.

On the medical front of late a group of encouraging developments can be reported, possibly as a partial offset at least to some of the gloom surrounding the political and economic fronts.

The versatility of sulfanilamide may, it appears, experience further extension through the fact that in combination with a fat component of coconut oil it has been found to prevent the growth of tuberculosis germs in test tubes, says Technology Review. Moreover, it checks the disease from developing in guinea pigs inoculated with large doses of a human strain of the bacillus.

Drs. M. L. Crossley, E. H. Northey and M. E. Hultquist, reporting their work to the American Chemical society, emphasized the fact that thus far they have been concerned only with animals and that no conclusion is as yet permissible regarding the efficacy of the new compound in the treatment of disease in man. The tubercle bacillus wears a wax armor plate which the new drug is able to penetrate. The bacillus of leprosy likewise is sheathed in a waxy coating; it is hoped that the new chemical may prove efficacious against this foe also.

—The Tuesday Evening Club of the Church of the Messiah had a social evening and entertainment on Tuesday evening in the Parish Hall. Many members were present with their husbands as guests. A one act play was presented by a group from Winthrop, after which there was dancing, and games under the direction of Mrs. A. H. Webber. Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Edward Johnson.

—"The Sword of Division" is the sermon topic selected by the Rev. Richard P. McClintock for the 11 o'clock Sunday a. m. service at the Church of the Messiah. There will also be the usual celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m. At the Young People's Fellowship at 7:30 p. m. the speaker will be Mr. John H. Fenton of the Boston Herald who is making a return engagement by special request of the young people.

Let the Doctor Help Through the Pre-natal Period.

MAKING DREAMS MORE PLEASANT

When a woman dreams of her baby, in these days of advanced obstetrical knowledge and practice, there is not the same fear present in her mind that women have always had to bear. Pre-natal care and attention by the Doctor, fits the mother physically for her ordeal. Proper diet and supervised exercise and recreation insure the health of the child.

When the baby arrives under expert guidance, in hygienic surroundings, with every scientific aid to allay pain and temper the danger, the mother's dreams are more pleasant — to say nothing of the fears of the father — and the welfare of the baby.

Newtonville Boy Found Strangled

Kenneth R. Clark, 12, of 553 California st., Newtonville, was found strangled in his bedroom on Wednesday morning about 7:15 by his aunt, Mrs. Charles W. Peterson. Continued efforts of resuscitation by Mr. Peterson and police and firemen who were called were unavailing. A piece of window cord around the boy's neck had resulted in strangulation.

Young Clark was actively interested in Boy Scouts and last Friday had been voted into membership in one of the patrols of Troop 6, Newtonville Boy Scouts. On Tuesday afternoon he attended a meeting of the patrol in high spirits and was looking forward to passing regulation tests this evening. During the preceding evening he had chatted in a happy mood with his aunt before retiring. It is believed that he was experimenting in knot tying when accidentally strangled.

He had made his home with his aunt and uncle for the past six years since being orphaned at the death of his mother. A first year student at the F. A. Day Junior High School, he was considered a good student. He enjoyed an ideal home environment and happy surroundings and was planning to become a member of Central Congregational Church.

Private funeral services were held from his late home yesterday afternoon at which Rev. Randolph Merrill, pastor of Central Church, officiated. Interment services were held today at Woodstock, Vermont, where he had lived with his grandparents before coming to Newton.

Kiwanis Club
The Newton Kiwanis Club held its meeting Tuesday noon at the Charles River Country Club, joined by clubs in America and Canada in the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the founding of the first Kiwanis Club.
The speaker for the day was James
P. Gallagher of Newton, International Trustee of the organization. In introducing Mr. Gallagher, Past President Archie Bellinger called attention to the fact that Mr. Gallagher was a Past President of the Newton Kiwanis Club and Past Lieutenant Governor of the New England District and a Past
Governor of the New England District.
In his address, Mr. Gallagher spoke of the fine record of growth and of service of the organization in America and in Canada during the past 25 years. He mentioned the enthusiasm of many club members, often driving as far as 50 miles to participate in the local meeting. He outlined the opportunity which the local club has to serve the people of Newton in an even greater manner than in the past.
The program next week is being arranged by Mr. Frank Battles, Manager of the Newton Pontiac Agency.

... WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES ...

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Art and Antiques Conference at Newtonville

A most unusual feature will be the opportunity for all clubs of the Twelfth District to exhibit arts and handicrafts at the Conference for which the Newtonville Woman's Club will be hostess on Wednesday, January 31st. This will include all arts; the work of such classes as pottery, tray-painting, watercolors, Bennington ware, and the display of old china, glass, etc., in table-settings. This Exhibit will be in Social Hall of the Club House.

The program for this All-Day Conference of the Twelfth District Art and Antiques departments of the State Federation will open at the Club House, 61 Washington pk., at 10:30 a. m., with greetings from Mrs. Frank E. Morris, president of the Hostess Club; and from several State officers, Mrs. William F. Leach, Twelfth District director; Mrs. Clifford L. Hubbard, State chairman of Art, and Mrs. Olaf Hoff, Jr., State adviser to this division; Mrs. William G. Darrow, State chairman of Preservation of Antiques, and Mrs. Schuyler W. Van Ness, State adviser to this division.

Scheduled to speak at 10:45, Mrs. John H. Kimball, a former State Federation president, who makes her home at quaint T Wharf, has chosen the appropriate subject "Old Boston's Waterfronts". Mrs. Edward Newell will talk on "Flower Arrangement", as the other morning speaker, at 11:15 o'clock.

Opportunity will be given at 12 noon for the clubwomen to view the Exhibit of Antiques and Art, followed by Luncheon.

At 2 p. m., there will be a musical program. Mrs. Leach will call the Roll for attendance representing the clubs of the District. The speakers for the afternoon will be Mrs. Caroline Cleaves Saunders, at 2:45, on "The History and Design Found in a Notable Collection of Old Hooked Rugs"; Mrs. Maurice Spillane, at 3:15, on "The History of Old Bennington Ware"; and Mrs. Helen Jackson

Secrets of Allied Intelligence Work During World War

"Propaganda Prevails" is the cryptic title of the lecture for the meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, January 30th. The speaker, Allan M. Macfarlan, will be introduced at 3 o'clock by Mrs. Bradley Hill, chairman of the Program committee, following a half-hour of business over which Mrs. Austin Fisher will preside.

Major Macfarlan will relate some of his personal experiences when he was collaborating with the Allied Intelligence Services during the World War. It is expected that his talk will contain thrilling subject-matter, as this man, unbiased and unspooned, exposes many of the "isms", some harmless, and others dangerous.

"Celebrity Chatlogs" was the subject of a talk given before the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, January 16th, by Mildred Buchanan Flagg, a well-known lecturer, as well as a resident of Newtonville, who was introduced by the chairman of the Day, Mrs. Paul Kieser. Mrs. Flagg, who has traveled extensively, through her work as an author, has met many of the personalities who appear in the headlines of the daily papers, and the anecdotes which she told of personal contacts with many of these were of particular interest to her audience.

Among the well-known authors she included H. G. Wells and Mrs. Margaret Mitchell. According to Mrs. Flagg, no one was more surprised than the author herself at the popularity of "Gone With the Wind".

Two other celebrities were Bill Robinson, whose tap dancing she particularly admired; and Betty Davis, whom she had known intimately before she became famous on the screen.

An amusing incident which she related was when Byrd was to be a speaker and required among other settings, a cake of ice. When he appeared on the platform, Mrs. Flagg said he carried a penguin which he deposited in the center of the ice cake.

During the business meeting which preceded the lecture, Miss Caroline Smiley, who was introduced by Mrs. Arthur Robinson, chairman of International Relations in the Club, urged her audience to become better acquainted with Latin America.

A Variety of Lectures

Newton Centre Woman's Club

The first Recital-Talk in a series by Lucy Simonds is to be on Tuesday, January 30th, at 10:30 a. m., at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. The subject will be a resume of Italian Operas, especially those of Verdi. Tickets may be secured from members of the Music committee.

Mrs. Douglas M. Pease, a Club member, will talk on "Current Biographies" on Thursday, February 1st, at 10:15 a. m. Mrs. Pease has a knack in presenting her lectures which holds the intent attention of her audience. Tickets may be obtained at the door or from members of the Literature committee.

Mrs. George Willard Smith, assisted by Mrs. Henry C. Marble, will give an illustrated Travel Talk on "Guatemala" on Wednesday morning, the 31st of January, this being the first of three "Different Mornings" arranged by the Ways and Means committee. The platform program will be at 10:30 o'clock, preceded by coffee at 10 o'clock. Single admission tickets, or strip tickets for the series, may be secured from Mrs. David E. Goldich or from Mrs. John W. Duthie.

Social Science Club

"Nazi Ideology" will be the subject of the talk by Dr. Herbert Gezork at the Guest Meeting of the Social Science Club to be held at 10 a. m., Wednesday, January 31, at Channing Church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Alden H. Clark and Mrs. Philip S. Jamieson.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

Professor J. Anton De Haas, the William Ziegler Professor of International Relations at the Harvard School of Business Administration, spoke on the topic "To Make the World Safe for Democracy" at last week's meeting, January 16th, of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands. He was introduced by Mrs. Albert S. Hutchinson, of the Women's Advisory Committee of the Newton Trust Company. He pointed out the methods Germany is pursuing to force neutral nations to take a hand in the conflict, by their intolerant treatment of these nations' boundaries and legal rights. He explained how Russia had gained the ascendancy over Hitler's schemes, and Mussolini's real attitude toward Hitler; and he also gave his viewpoint of Germany's delay in attacking England with real earnestness. Summing up, he expressed his opinions as to the future for the survival of democracies, and as to the possibility of revolution in Germany.

A question period brought out some timely points, because Tuesday happened to be the day when Prime Minister Chamberlain took up the Hor-Belisha incident.

In the Art Corner was a most interesting exhibition of the pictorial work of Franklin Jordan, among these an outstanding photograph of the year, "Cockers"; and of the drawings of animals by Mrs. Jordan, of Newton Highlands.

A social hour followed the program with tea served to the Club members and many guests by the Social committee, Mrs. Arthur Andersen, chairman; with Mrs. Donald D. McKay and Mrs. Warren B. Kennedy pouring.

Club Institute

"The Rise of a New Spirit" will be discussed by Mrs. Charles L. Slattery, guest speaker at the State Federation Club Institute which will be held on Thursday, February 1st, at 10:30 a. m., at the Y. W. C. A. in Boston. Mrs. Elliot R. Scudder, State chairman, will preside.

Club Finances will be the subject of the forum and prominent in the question period. The regular lesson in Parliamentary Procedure will be given by Mrs. Cordelia B. Bartlett, Institute parliamentary.

Mrs. Fred L. Pigeon, fourth vice-president of the State Federation, will talk on "Our Junior Clubs," giving the highlights of the New England Junior Conference held January 20th, in Boston. Three State chairmen, Mrs. George E. Taber, Credentials and Registration; Mrs. Miner H. A. Evans, Literature and Drama; and Mrs. Albert Farnsworth, Legislation, will describe their departmental activities.

"Duties of a Federation Secretary" will be discussed by Mrs. Walter H. Woods, past president of the Brookline Woman's Club; and Mrs. Chauncey B. Doten, American Citizenship chairman of the New Century Club of Needham, will tell of the work of her department. The forum speakers will be Mrs. Lydia Wells, president of the Acton Woman's Club; Mrs. Wayne E. Horner, president of the Westborough Woman's Club; and Mrs. L. Clayton Anderson, president of the Belmont Woman's Club.

Entertaining Programs

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

The Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will meet at the home of Mrs. Helen A. Ward, Wood End rd., on January 29th. Miss Minnie E. Hyde and Miss Anna S. Thompson will be hostesses. There will be a Drama-Reading in charge of Mrs. Mark H. Ward. The play to be read is "The American Way," by Kaufman and Hart.

Juniors to Have Artists Ball

An "Artists Ball" is to be given by the Newton Highlands Junior Woman's Club on Saturday, January 27th, at the Newton Highlands Workshop. Costume will be very informal and in keeping with the mood of the dance. The Crimsouians will furnish the music.

The committee in charge of the arrangements is headed by Carolyn White, assisted by Doris Baucoman, Gloria Seaworth, Catherine Thompson, Florence Green, and Shirlee MacMillan.

The Crystal Periscope of Woman's Progress

"Progress in Education for Women" is the theme of the Birthday Parties which are being held throughout the United States to help celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the General Federation.

The Massachusetts State Federation will unfold the history of women's progress during the forty-six years of its existence, at the Annual Meeting in May at Swampscott. Through "A Crystal Periscope," Mrs. Arthur Atwood, author of the Pageant, will show how and why the present clubwoman is beholden to those who have gone before her. Anne Hutchinson's contribution to women's freedom will be depicted, and Julia Ward Howe, founder-president of the Federation, will be represented. Among the clubs to be featured will be the Ladies Physiological Institute of Boston and vicinity, whose members wore masks to the meetings and discussed, in hushed voices, the taboo subject of anatomy. The schools today owe

Rev. B. R. Hubbard 'The Glacier Priest' In Newton Jan. 28

Rev. Bernard J. Hubbard, S.J., the famous Alaskan missionary and explorer, who will give an illustrated lecture at Newton High School on Sunday evening, Jan. 28, under the auspices of the Boston College Club of Newton, has had many thrilling adventures in the Far North, and has made valuable contributions to science.

After spending a year of ethnological research with King Islanders, the most unspoiled Eskimo tribe of the Far North, Father Hubbard became convinced that these people were originally one of the less fortunate tribes of Tartary that fled from the great Asiatic conqueror of the 12th century, Ghengis Khan, and coming to Siberia, crossed the Bering Straits and spread along the bleak Arctic shores from Alaska clear over to Greenland. To substantiate his theory, the Glacier Priest took his two white companions of the year's sojourn on King Island, Ed Levin and Ken Chisholm, together with the Eskimo Chief and five other King Island hunters, and a forty-foot walrus-skin boat, built by experienced Eskimo craftsmen, the intrepid party left King Island upon the breaking up of the winter ice and started North into the Polar Seas of the north Arctic Ocean. Experienced veterans of the Arctic, native and resident white alike looked askance at this adventure of the Glacier Priest. Over 2000 miles of the most dangerous waters on earth, where over 100 whaling vessels had been wrecked, were to be navigated in the most primitive boat known to man. In betting circles, odds of 9 to 1 were offered against the successful outcome of the venture. With faith in the Eskimo oomiak as admirably adapted to the Arctic and with the utmost care in selecting everything necessary for a voyage of indefinitely long duration, the party started North. Terrific storms battered the staunch oomiak all the way to Point Barrow and forced the party ashore for days at a time along the desolate coast. Every succeeding storm had the effect of confirming the faith of the party in the seaworthiness of their craft. Exposure, minor accidents, and constant dangers were ever present but success crowned every effort. All the Eskimos from the Canadian border to Norton Sound were visited and found to speak the same language as the King Islanders, proving a common origin for all. By completing 2000 miles in an oomiak with nine men, two dogs and four tons of equipment, it was proved that the 56 miles that separate the mainland of North America and Asia could easily have been traversed in mass migrations of human beings rather than postulating a land bridge or other hypotheses for man's advent to North America.

the recent election and said he is beginning to understand why Mr. Childs has endeared himself in the hearts of so many people. Secretary of State Cook told of having received a letter from Governor Saltonstall, who is in Florida. The letter expressed the Governor's regret at being unable to attend the testimonial. The Governor stated: "No testimonial has been more deserved. Ned (Childs) has always thought of his friends. He knew neither race nor creed. Everybody has always known him as Ned Childs."

John F. Malley predicted that Mr. Childs will not retire from public life, and expressed the hope that he will continue to make the sacrifices required in public office because he has the character and integrity essential in such office. In behalf of his assembled friends, Thomas W. White presented to Mr. Childs a Ford sedan, and to Mrs. Childs a bouquet of flowers. Mr. White remarked that the guest of honor has always obeyed the laws of the city, the Commonwealth and the nation, and advised him to study carefully the traffic laws. He brought greetings from Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, and quoted the Senator as saying: "When I retire, I hope my record will be as clear and untarnished as that of Mr. Childs."

Ex-Mayor Childs in expressing his thanks for the testimonial and gift of the automobile said that he had "flagged down" many similar functions planned for him by his friends in the past, but he was three days too late in learning of this affair, to flag it. Mr. Childs said that there must be two questions in the minds of his listeners. He said: "One is—how did I last so long? I don't know. The people of Newton are long-suffering." He commented that he had tried to treat people decently and be fair, and didn't take people too darn seriously. He said the second question is—"How does it feel after 20 years to get kicked out?" He answered this question by saying—"If you have a philosophy like mine, it feels all right. This is a democracy, and the people rule." He urged all present to do their duty as citizens by voting at primaries and elections, and not to forget the primaries, as that is where the damage is done. He said the greatest dangers to this country are not Communism, Fascism or atheism, but selfishness, carelessness and indifference. Mr. Childs said he has returned to the ranks without the slightest feeling of ill-will or enmity of a single soul on earth, and he urged all to stand by Mayor Goddard and the Board of Aldermen during the next 2 years.

This Jubilee has caught the imagination of clubwomen throughout the entire country, and thousands of clubs are holding, or planning to hold, Birthday Parties during the year in honor of this fiftieth anniversary. Cleverly ingenious ways in which funds are being raised to help place the General Federation on a sound financial basis to carry on its constructive program of progress during the next fifty years, are being devised by the clubs of forty-eight states, the District of Columbia, and Alaska. Delving into the history of the General Federation, and the benefits derived by communities, states, and nation, due to its formation, will make inspiring history during this Jubilee year.

NEWTON SPORTS

NEWTON FIVE WINS THREE TO STRETCH STRING TO SEVEN

Undeclared in League Basketball Race

Newton High captured its seventh straight Suburban League basketball victory yesterday afternoon at the Newton High gym to maintain its pace-setting surge to the probable championship role. The remainder of the field is bunched with the two Cambridge teams bunched with Waltham in the scramble for runner-up honors while Arlington and Brookline battle to keep out of the cellar berth. Only a complete reversal of form by Newton could enable the other entries to overhaul the orange and black in the remaining four league games. Three of these four contests, however, will be played on opponents' territory which should assist Coach Beverly Wilson in keeping his team on its toes with the chance of going through an undefeated season looking greater with each victory. Newton's next game will be at Rindge Tech next Tuesday while on Friday the last home league game will have Arlington as the visitors. At the conclusion of the league season Newton will play Medford at Newton in a return engagement, the locals having defeated the blue and white in a game at Medford early this month.

This past week, the Newton victories number three, that against Cambridge Latin yesterday being by a 30 to 26 count. On Monday invading Brookline was turned back 27 to 25 in a nip and tuck affair while the most exciting game of the season was staged last Friday night when Waltham was turned back 29 to 28 before a crowd of over six hundred persons.

Against the Cantabs the locals piled up a commanding 19 to 7 lead at half time and numerous substitutes were able to stage off a final spurt by the visitors. Captain Johnny Flagg, as usual, was the individual high scorer with a total of 12 points.

In the Brookline game the orange and black quintet was hand pressed with Captain Billy Nixon of the Wealthy Towners being a particular nemesis with his accurate shooting and excellent teamwork.

The story of the Waltham game bears repeating. A Newton junior, Billy Betts, was the hero of the fray although the Newton team as a whole deserves much credit for their team play. Waltham, by means of a series of plays which resulted in three successive baskets in the last few minutes of the first half led at half time by a 21 to 14 count and defeat threatened the locals. When play was resumed the Newton team sped up its defensive play to halt the Waltham attack before it could get started. Gradually the visitors' lead was cut down until with three minutes left to play the count was Waltham 28 and Newton 25. Captain Johnny Flagg charged the ball for a two-pointer, to cut down Waltham's margin to one lone point.

Betts raced for the basket and took a pass from a teammate. Fouled while shooting he was given two shots from the free-throw zone while the expectant horde of Newton supporters was stilled with the tenseness of the moment. Coolly the Newton junior gauged the distance and let the ball go, tying the count at 28-all, as it dropped through the strings. Again coolly he stood for his second shot while the tenseness of the Newton fans grew more breathtaking. Straight as a die the ball sailed towards the hoop and dropped through, as a burst of enthusiastic cheering broke from the throats of hundreds of supporters. But the end of the excitement had not come, as more than a minute was still left to play. And during that final minute play went back and forth from one end of the floor to the other as Waltham tried gallantly to score and Newton attempted to freeze the ball.

Three times in that last minute and a half Waltham had free-throw shots but none could match the coolness and accuracy that Betts had displayed and the tying point would not come. Once again Captain Johnny Flagg was the Newton pacesetter with a total of 10 points, and a threat every time he handled the ball. Olivigni's all-round play was of high calibre as was that of Paul Holmes, Newton forward. The former tallied seven points and the latter five while Betts, relieving Nino Colletti, caged three of the most timely digits which brought the Merriwell finish to the game.

Bill Boyer and Jerry Hickey wear Newton colors in the shotput in which Harry Robert, Rindge winner last year, and Burt Oranburg of Boston English, third, are the main threats. Both the Newton boys are tossing the pellet more than forty feet but numerous other schoolboys are doing the same thing.

Bob Edison and Elliot Mover will do the high jumping for Newton with both probably dropping out somewhere near the 5 ft. 8 inch mark which might possibly be good enough for a fractional point. And sometimes it is these fractional points that determine the winners. Tomorrow's meet may be the closest in years, with several schools figuring in the scramble—if Mechanics Arts can be held down.

Peddler's Trees 100 Years Old

A century ago, a peddler toured Maine coastal towns with a load of balm of Gilead trees, claiming that a healing salve could be made from the leaves. That's how Noah Tibbets of Brooklyn knows the approximate age of the balm of Gilead trees on his lawn, for his mother, who bought the original trees, was born in 1822.

NEWTON TRACKSTERS

SEEK FIFTH N. U. WIN

Coach Enoch Has Few Individual Stars on 1940 Team

Newton High will open its defense of its title as champions of the North-eastern Interscholastic track meet held annually at the Boston Garden. For four consecutive years Coach Donald Enoch and his Newton track squad have brushed aside all opposition to win the meet. This year, with many of Newton's veteran stars having graduated, the outlook is far from promising. Several other schools have greater individual strength than the orange and black and the locals will need every break that can bring them points. But many of these schools have also lost some of their veterans of last year and pre-meet predictions at this time are fraught with the possibility of uncertainty.

Newton's one hope of finishing on top of the heap again is in the event that the competition in some of the events will be split among enough schools to enable the orange and black to tally enough points in the few events where points will be forthcoming.

The 600 should provide Newton with its best scoring event. Here, with Captain Fred Hall in great shape, and supported by newcomer Bob Ross is a possible eight digits for Newton. Hall looks unbeatable but in a race against time a fifth of a second in timing means considerable. Bill Alpert should place in the hurdles although the field on Saturday is very much unknown. George Welch is Alpert's co-entry over the barriers and although lacking in experience might edge into the finals.

A relay quartet of Walter Hurley, Gil Dobie, Bob Ross and Freddie Hall will be in there for points among the leaders. Thus Newton should score into double figures but with Mechanics Arts High showing several individual stars the Boston team looks to be the team to beat.

In the dash the Newton colors will be carried by Hurley and Ken Boegner. Hurley was a member of the relay team which ran a year ago and has been showing some promise in the dash. But Boegner may be the surprise of the meet. In practice he has shown possibilities of being faster than any Newton sprinter since Frank Hines' day. Lack of experience as a competitive starter, however, and the grueling test of several heats may prove too great a burden tomorrow. There is reason for hope that he may come through. One of his outstanding opponents will be Lloyd Goldsmith of Malden, fourth in a blanket finish last year.

Bob Cotton will be the local entry in the 300-yard dash, one of the severest tests on the day's programs. Paul Van Wort is a possibility for points in the 1000 yard run along with Ed Benson. Van Wort, however, has been nursing a cold this week and unless he is in the best of shape there seems little hope of his breaking the tape in front of Medford's veteran Dave Blair, one of the few defending champions returning for the meet. Bill McMillan of Everett, fourth a year ago, may bother Blair although McMillan has turned in an excellent 600 performance and may be sent after Newton's Fred Hall by Coach Gildea.

Bill Boyer and Jerry Hickey wear Newton colors in the shotput in which Harry Robert, Rindge winner last year, and Burt Oranburg of Boston English, third, are the main threats. Both the Newton boys are tossing the pellet more than forty feet but numerous other schoolboys are doing the same thing.

Bob Edison and Elliot Mover will do the high jumping for Newton with both probably dropping out somewhere near the 5 ft. 8 inch mark which might possibly be good enough for a fractional point. Wittens Leads Penn.

Warren Wittens, former Newton high track star and scholastic hurdle champion, is captain of the University of Pennsylvania track team this winter. Wittens is a senior, and, as business manager of the university's daily newspaper, holds one of the most responsible positions in extra-curricular activities. He was one of the speakers at a recent meeting of the Track Club and from a report of that meeting comes the following extract after reference to the fact that recent campinches have been viewed as honorariums—"chalking things up to experience, taking bad breaks calmly, letting the breaks make the team instead of the team making the breaks, taking training lightly and dismissing victory beforehand"—all are out Wittens intimated—if prophetic and serious there is the needed spark.

RINDGE JINX IN HOCKEY BRINGS TIE

Newton Sextet Drops to Second Place In G. B. I. H. Race

Newton High once again fell under the spell of a Rindge Tech jinx at the Boston Arena in the G. B. I. league pennant race hockey games last Saturday. Last year the orange and black lost to Rindge Tech at a time when moving fast but this year they were a bit luckier in coming out with a 2-2 tie. Capt. Walter Hurley and Bunny Dugan each scored a goal and an assist. The freshman line from Rindge put a crimp in Newton's hopes when they sneaked by the Newton "giants" to sink two goals. Bob Verrier and Eddie Benoit combined for the tallies, the former caging the puck when the latter assisted him with beautiful passes. Newton, possessor of all 1940 league scoring records, was then forced to come from behind to tie up the game. Even though jinxed "Lady Luck" shone in the scoring of the second goal. Hurley passed to Dugan who in turn lifted the puck. It caromed off Phil Fessenden's back and went into the cage over goalie Mettew's shoulder. While Newton was tying Rindge, Melrose overpowered a stubborn Stoneham High hockey team 5-1 to take sole possession of the G. B. I. League lead.

In the first period Bunny Dugan was sent off for an illegal check. This did not dampen the spirits of the Newton forces. Newton's big defenseman stayed off rush after rush by the fast "frosh" of Rindge. Soon after Dugan returned Ronzio of Tech went off for tripping. Newton ganged the Rindge goal but were unable to push the puck in. It was late in the period, 11:45, when the orange and black scored with Dugan passing to Hurley for the lone tally of the period. Newton was vastly different from the team which set two new league records the week previous. In the second period with Newton leading, Rindge fought desperately to get the equalizer. The first line tried unsuccessfully and the freshman line came on the ice. Soon after there was a scramble around the Newton cage. Benoit laid a perfect pass to Verrier who rammed it by Billy Bender, Newton goalie. The time was 4:18. Rindge bore down in an effort to upset the strongly favored Newton six. At 10:54, Bob Verrier once again sank a goal assisted by Eddie Benoit. Newton came back fighting mad. This was the first time they had been behind since their first game of the season and defeat threatened.

In the third period Newton came out again with determination. Dugan picked up the puck on his own blue line, raced down the ice, went through one defenseman, passed to Hurley who in turn flipped it back to Bunny. Dugan lifted it high in the air. The puck was destined for Phil Fessenden's back instead of the Rindge goal. It caromed off the Newton forward and into the cage, high-up in the twine. But the Johnson coached lads could not put over the game winning goal and had to be content with the tie.

Newton faces third place Arlington High tomorrow afternoon, and is set for a fight to the finish. The general conclusion is that Newton will come roaring back after their moral defeat at the hands of cellar-occupant Rindge Tech and may run wild around the Gray Ghosts from Massachusetts ave.
